Now Ready, One Vol. 8vo. with Etched Frontispiece (by Wehnert) Eight Engravings, Price 15s.

SABRINAE COROLLA: a Volume of Classical Translations, Original Compositions, contributed by Gentlemen educated at Shrewsbury School. Among the Contributors are the Head Masters of Shrewsbury, Stamford, Repton, Uppingham, and Birmingham Schools; Andrew Lawson, Esq., late M.P.; the Rev. R. Shilleto, Cambridge; the Rev. T. S. Evans, Rugby; J. Riddell, Esq., Fellow of Balliol College, Oxford; the Rev. E. M. Cope, H. J. Hodgson, Esq., H. A. J. Munro, Esq., W. G. Clark, Esq., Fellows of Trinity College, Cambridge; and many other distinguished Scholars from both Universities.

The Work is edited by Three of the principal Contributors.

SELECTIONS FROM HERRICK, for Translation into Latin Verse, with a short Preface. By the Rev. A. J. Maclean, M.A., Trinity College, Cambridge, Principal of Brighton College. 12mo. cloth, 2s. 6d.

"We cordially recommend it as a book well adapted to promote a superior style of versification to that which has hitherto prevailed even in the highest classes of our Grammar Schools."—EDUCATIONAL TIMES.

SELECTIONS FROM OVID; Amores, Tristia, Heroides, Metamorphoses, Book III. with prefatory remarks.

This selection is intended to afford an introduction, at once easy and unobjectionable to a knowledge of the Latin language, after a boy has become well acquainted with the declensions of nouns and pronouns, and the ordinary forms of verbs.

XENOPHON'S ANABASIS, with Introduction, Geographical Notes, Itinerary, and Three Maps, compiled from recent Surveys and other authentic Documents; the Text based on Bornemann's, with Notes, chiefly English, original and selected from Bornemann, Krüger, Poppo, Hutchinson, &c. By the Rev. J. F. Macmichael, B.A., Trinity College Cambridge, Master of the Grammar School, Burton-upon-Trent. New Edition. Fcap. 8vo. 5s.

"... We can confidently recommend Mr. Macmichael's edition of the Anabasis as the best school edition that exists in the English language, and we feel certain that it will satisfy every reasonable demand that can be made."—CLASSICAL MUSEUM.

FIRST CLASSICAL MAPS, with Chronological Tables of Grecian and Roman History, and an Appendix of Sacred Geography and Chronology. Second Edition. By the Rev. JAMES TATE, M.A., Master of Richmond Grammar School. Imp. 8vo. 7s. 6d.

RULES for OVIDIAN VERSE, with some Hints on the Transition to the Virgilian Hexameter, and an Introductory Preface. Edited by JAMES TATE, M.A., Master of the Grammar School, Richmond. 8vo. sewed, 1s. 6d.

FIRST STEPS TO LATIN VERSIFICATION; being an Analysis of the Scansion and Structure of the Ovidian Verse. Price 6d. on sheet; folded on cloth, 1s.

PRINCIPLES of LATIN SYNTAX. On a sheet, 6d.; folded on cloth, 1s.

THE PRINCIPAL TENSES OF IRREGULAR GREEK VERBS of frequent Occurrence. On sheet, 6d.; folded on cloth, 1s.

"... This little sheet, as far as it goes, seems to afford the requisite help,—it is printed in a tabular form, which we consider a great improvement; for the eye catches at once the word that is wanted. And it is of such a size that it may be affixed to the beginning and end of a lexicon or exercise-book: or folded on cloth in an octavo shape. Its great merit is its brevity and clearness, and we have reason to know that it has been found exceedingly useful."—ENGLISH JOURNAL OF EDUCATION.

FLORILEGIUM POETICUM ANGLICANUM; or, Selections from English Poetry, for the Use of Classical Schools. 12mo. 3s. 6d.

"The appearance of this volume is owing to the want, which has been often and vexatiously felt, of some collection of Classical English Poetry which might furnish the younger boys of our Grammar Schools with subjects for repetition, and the elder ones with materials for translation into Latin and Greek verse."—PREFACE.

"Carefully and judiciously executed, and the subjects are pleasingly and instructively diversified. . . . By no means a common-place or every-day collection."—ENGLISH JOURNAL OF EDUCATION.

A SELECTION from PERCY'S RELIQUES of ANCIENT ENGLISH POETRY, and from EVANS'S OLD BALLADS, with short Introductions and Notes. By the Rev. HENRY TRIPP, M.A., Sub-Warden of St. Columba's College. 12mo. cloth, 4s.

"The selection is made with good taste and judgment."—CHRISTIAN REMEMBRANCER.

ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE TRAGEDIES OF ÆSCHYLUS and SOPHOCLES, from the Greek, Latin, and English Poets; with an Introductory Essay, by J. F. BOYES, M.A., St. John's College, Oxford. 8vo. 16s.

A few copies of the Illustrations of Æschylus may still be had separately, price 9s. Also, Copies of Parts II. and III. to complete sets, price 3s. each.

"Mr. Boyes has collected these illustrations more for the purpose of determining the heads of thought by a comparison of minds, than for the detection of plagiarism. His work will amuse those whose days of study are gone by, but who love to review their classic recollections, and to recall those images of sublimity and beauty which had delighted their young hearts and charmed their youthful fancy. To use the language of Cicero, he has rendered those studies which nurtured boyhood delightful to age."—ATHENEUM.

"This is one of the most pleasing classical works that we have lately read. The author shows very extensive poetical reading, a quick perception, accurate memory, and well-formed taste,"—GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE.

The following are the Principles upon which the Business of the LONDON & COUNTY BANK is conducted:

Firstly.—Its payments are made in Bank of England Notes and Gold. It is not a Bank of Issue.

Secondly.—Its capital cannot be withdrawn, for when one Shareholder dies, or retires, another takes his Shares and liabilities—thus affording at all times and under all circumstances full Security to its Customers.

Thirdly.—It affords every just accommodation to its Customers through the medium of a large available Capital.

Fourthly.—It has no party or political character:—Its Officers are not allowed to enter into public contests: and they are bound not to disclose to any one the transactions of the Customers of the Company.

Fifthly.—It allows, according to agreement, Interest on large or small sums of money deposited for definite periods.

Sixthly.—It affords great facilities for the advice of payments, or the receipt of money, dividends, &c. in London, at the Chief Office, as well as in the Towns where the Company has Branches—and

Lastly.—It publishes half-yearly an Account of its Assets and Liabilities, attested by Auditors appointed by the Shareholders.

The Elements of. From the Text of Simson. Edited in the Symbolical Form, by R. BLAKELOCK. 12mo. 6s.

12. GASKIN (THOMAS, M.A.)

Solutions of the GEOMETRICAL PROBLEMS proposed at St. John's College, Cambridge, from 1830 to 1846, consisting chiefly of Examples in Plane Co-ordinate Geometry. With an Appendix, containing the determination of the magnitude and position of the Axes of the Conic Section, represented by the general Equation to the Curve of the second order referred to Oblique Co-ordinates. 8vo. 12s.

13. GASKIN (THOMAS, M.A.)

Solutions of the TRIGONOMETRICAL PROBLEMS, proposed at St. John's College, Cambridge, from 1829 to 1846. 8vo. 9s.

14. GOODWIN (REV. H., M.A.)

An Elementary Course of MATHEMATICS. Designed principally for Students of the University of Cambridge. Second Edition. 8vo. cloth, 18s.

The design of this work is to supply a short Course of Mathematical reading including those subjects (Euclid and Arithmetic excepted) which will, in the Examination of Candidates for Honours, furnish the Questions of the first three days. The Author believes that in publishing such a Course he will confer a benefit on those for the sake of whom the recent change in the nature of the Examinations appears principally to have been made, by placing before them in a compressed form nearly the whole of the subjects to which they will find it necessary to give their attention; while at the same time he hopes that the work may be of more extended usefulness as presenting a short course of Mathematical study, such as has been marked out by the University of Cambridge as fit and sufficient for the purposes of a liberal Education.

15. GOODWIN (REV. H.)

An Appendix to the First Edition of an Elementary Course of MATHEMATICS, containing the principal Alterations and Additions introduced in the Second Edition. 8vo. sewed, 1s.

16. GOODWIN (REV. H.)

17. GOODWIN (REV. H.)

An APPENDIX to Collection of Problems and Examples, containing the Answers, and the Solutions of some of the more difficult of the Questions. In the Press.

18. GREGORY (D. F.)

Examples on the Processes of the DIFFERENTIAL and INTEGRAL CALCULUS. Second Edition, edited by WILLIAM WALTON, M.A., Trinity College. 8vo. Plates, 18s.

19. GREGORY (D. F.)

Treatise on the Application of Analysis to SOLID GEOMETRY. Commenced by D. F. GREGORY, M.A., late Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge; concluded by W. WALTON, A.M., Trinity College, Cambridge. 8vo. cloth, 10s. 6d.

20. GRIFFIN (W. N., M.A.)

A Treatise on the DYNAMICS of a RIGID BODY. 8vo. boards, 6s. 6d.

21. GRIFFIN (W. N.)
Solutions of the Examples appended to a Treatise on the

101. TACITUS (C. CORN.) OPERA,

ad Codices Antiquissimos exacta et emendata, Commentario Critico et Exegetico illustrata. Edidit FRANCISCUS RITTER, Prof. Bonnensis. 4 vols. 8vo. 1*l.* 8*s.*

A few copies printed on thick Vellum paper, imp. 8vo. 4*l.* 4*s.*

Immediately under the text is given a complete collation of all the older and only important MSS., together with the emendations of Professor Ritter and of former editors. This is followed by a comprehensive Commentary, containing an explanation of all the difficult passages, and a justification of the new readings introduced into the text. The true reading is restored in more than 180 passages, most of which have hitherto been regarded as hopelessly corrupt. To the first volume is prefixed 'Prolegomena Editoris,' containing a Life of Tacitus, a Criticism of his writings, and of the original form of the works which are still extant. The last volume contains Indices to the Text and the Notes of the Editor.

I.

BOOLE, GEORGE. The Mathematical Analysis of Logic; being an Essay towards a Calculus of Deductive Reasoning. 8vo. sewed, 5s.

II.

CAMBRIDGE and Dublin Mathematical Journal.
Vols. I., II., III., and IV., 8vo. cloth, price 16s. each. Also
No. XXII. being the first number of Vol. V.

Also recently published, a Second Edition of the Cambridge Mathematical Journal, Vol. I.; being the First Series of the

A few complete sets of the First Series, in 4 vols. price 3*l.* 12s. are still to be had.

This Periodical will be found to contain contributions by most of the first Mathematicians of both Universities to all branches of the Science, including many that will be found useful to the Student in the course of his academical career, and interesting to the more advanced Investigator.

HIND, JOHN.

The Principles and Practice of Arithmetic.

By the Rev. JOHN HIND, M.A., F.C.P.S., F.R.A.S., late Fellow and Tutor of Sidney Sussex College. Sixth Edition. 12mo. cloth bds. 4s. 6d.

"Mr. Hind's Arithmetic in the later editions appears to me to be drawn up in such a manner as to be suited for use in Schools for those who are intended to go to the University. It includes the use of Logarithms, and the mensuration of various figures, (triangles, circles, &c.) which I have spoken of as desirable appendages to the parts of Arithmetic usually learnt in Schools."—DR. WHEWELL, Cambridge Studies, p. 228.

XII.

The Solutions of the Questions attended with any Difficulty in the Principles and Practice of Arithmetic. With an Appendix, containing Questions for Examinations in all the Rules of Arithmetic. By the Rev. JOHN HIND. 8vo. cloth bds. 5s.

XIII.

An Introduction to the Elements of Algebra, being a Sequel to the Principles and Practice of Arithmetic. Designed for the use of Students. By the Rev. JOHN HIND. Third Edition. 12mo. cloth bds. 5s.

XIV.

The Elements of Algebra. Designed for the use of Students in the University. By the Rev. JOHN HIND. Fifth Edition. 8vo. cloth bds. 12s. 6d.

XV.

The Elements of Plane and Spherical Tri- gonometry; with the Nature and Properties of Logarithms, and the Construction and the Use of Mathematical Tables. Designed for the use of Students in the University. By the Rev. JOHN HIND. Fifth Edition. 8vo. cloth bds. 7s. 6d.

XVI.

HYMERS, DR.

the Calculus of Finite Differences. By the Rev. J. HYMERS, D.D., Fellow and Tutor of St. John's College. 8vo. bds. 10s.

UNIVERSITY LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

(ESTABLISHED 1825,)

INCORPORATED BY ROYAL CHARTER.

No. 24, Suffolk Street, Pall Mall East, London.

CAPITAL £600,000.

ASSURANCES may be effected on the lives of all Persons whose names are, or have been, during any period, however short, on the Books or Boards of any College or Hall, at OXFORD or CAMBRIDGE.

Assurances may be effected on the lives of such Persons, against the lives of any Persons whatsoever.

A Division of PROFITS is made every five years, and nine-tenths appropriated to the Assured, either by a proportionate diminution of Premium, by an increase in the amount of the Policy, or by a present payment of the value in money, at the option of the Party.

The Society will be always ready to purchase from the Party in possession any unexpired Policy, or the Additions thereon.

The Society will also advance on Loan, at Interest, to the extent of nine-tenths of the actual present value of Policies effected in their own Office, and on that of such other Policies as they may deem it expedient to accept as security.

It may be worthy of remark, that from the institution of this Society to the present time, a period of 24 years, in no case has a Claim been disputed.

* * * On the 18th June, 1845, the FOURTH QUINQUEN-NIAL Division of PROFIT was declared. The Addition made for the last 5 years was 10 per cent. on the amount of the Policy, making, with former Additions, 40 per cent. on all Policies effected before the 1st of June, 1826.

 In June, 1850, the FIFTH QUINQUENNIAL Division of PROFIT will be made. All POLICIES effected before the 1st of May, 1850, will be entitled to participate fully in the Division which will be made in 1855.

AMOUNT ACCUMULATED FROM PREMIUMS	. £570,000
ANNUAL INCOME	. . . . . 70,000
OUTSTANDING POLICIES	. . . . . 1,500,000

Proposals for Assurances to be addressed to the SECRETARY, or to JOHN WRAY, Esq. Chairman of the Committee, 24, Suffolk Street, Pall Mall East, London; or to the Corresponding Directors, the Rev. J. W. HUGHES, Oxford, or H. GUNNING, Esq. Cambridge, from whom Forms of Proposal may be obtained.

•• Personal appearance at the Office is not required, except in particular cases.

Persons Assured in this Office for the whole period of life may go by sea, during peace, without obtaining a Licence or paying an extra Premium, from any part of Europe to any other part of Europe.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

PERSONS wishing to effect an ASSURANCE, must state the Name, Residence, and Profession, of the Party on whose behalf the ASSURANCE is proposed, and of the Party whose life is proposed to be Assured; the College at which the latter Party has been entered; the place and date of birth; the age next birth-day; whether married or single; whether he has resided abroad, and if so, where and for what period; whether he has been employed in the military or naval service; whether he has had the small-pox, the cow-pox, or the gout; whether he has been, since his childhood, afflicted with rupture, fits, insanity, dropsy, asthma, or spitting of blood; whether, during the last seven years, he has been afflicted with any severe or constitutional disease or disorder; the sum proposed to be Assured; and the term for which the ASSURANCE is required.

Reference must also be given to two respectable persons (not being near relations of the Party) for information as to his present and general state of health, one of whom must be (if possible) the medical person who has usually attended him.

A declaration, as to all the points contained in the above statement, will form the basis of the contract between the ASSURED and the SOCIETY; and should any untrue allegation be contained in such declaration, the Policy will become void, and all payments of premium made thereon will be forfeited.

The DIRECTORS have the power of fixing the Premium in every case where any extra risk may attend the life to be Assured.

Policies will not be considered to be in force beyond

30 days after the expiration of the year, unless the Premium then due shall have been paid to the Society. But should proof be given to the satisfaction of the DIRECTORS, that a Party, whose life has been Assured, continues in good health, the Policy may be revived at any time within six months, on the payment of a fine, to be fixed by the COURT OF DIRECTORS, not exceeding ten shillings per cent. on the sum Assured; or at any period within 13 months, on the payment of such fine as the COURT OF DIRECTORS may think reasonable.

Policies will become void if the parties whose lives have been Assured shall go beyond the limits of Europe, or shall die at sea; or, being or becoming a military or naval man, shall be called into actual service; unless, in each case, permission shall have been granted by the DIRECTORS, which may be obtained on such parties attending personally, to give every requisite explanation, and paying a Premium adequate to the extra risk, to be settled by the DIRECTORS; but all persons Assured for a limited term of years may pass direct from any part of the United Kingdom to another, or from any part of the United Kingdom, in time of peace, to and from any part of the Continent situate between the Elbe and Brest, in steam or other decked vessels; and all persons whose lives are Assured for the whole period of life (not being sea-faring persons by occupation) may go by sea, during peace, without obtaining a licence from the COURT OF DIRECTORS, and without paying any additional Premium, from any part of Europe to any other part of Europe, in steam or other decked vessels; and their respective Policies will not be forfeited in case of their dying on the seas under such circumstances.

ASSURANCES made by persons on their own lives will become void if they die at any time by their own act, whether in a state of lunacy or otherwise; or by duelling, within a twelvemonth after the ASSURANCE is effected; or by the hands of justice; but shall remain in force so far as regards any other person or persons who shall then have acquired a bona fide interest therein, by assignment for a valuable consideration; the extent of such interest to be proved to the satisfaction of the Directors. But if any person who has effected an ASSURANCE on his own life shall die by his own hands, not being found felo-de-se, the DIRECTORS shall, if they think proper to make any payment, be at liberty to pay any sum, according to their discretion, not exceeding what would have been payable in the event of natural death.

Unless the age of the Party Assured be endorsed as admitted on the Policy, it must be proved before payment is made.

The time for payment of claims is within three calendar months, after proof of the death of the parties whose lives are the subject of the ASSURANCE.

ADVERTISEMENT.

IN accordance with the wishes of many Members of the University, the Publisher of the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY CALENDAR has inserted in the Volume for this year, a complete list of the PUBLIC ORATORS, and PROFESSORS, from the foundation of the PUBLIC ORATORSHIP and PROFESSORSHIPS.

The TRIPOSES, from 1739 to 1799, which were omitted last year, are restored, many other additions will be found in the present Volume, and some alterations, which it is hoped will be considered improvements.

The Publisher begs to return his thanks to the MODERATORS and EXAMINERS, for the permission to insert their Problems and Examination Papers, and to many other Members of the University who have kindly given much time in rendering the CALENDAR for 1850, more correct than any which have preceded it.

Lewis Hensley, M.A. Trinity, Senior Moderator.
A. Sandeman, M.A. Queens'.

The Board laid their first Report before the Vice-Chancellor in the Easter Term, 1849. The following is an Extract from the recommendations contained in pages 7 and 8 of the Report :—

(1) "That the Mathematical Theories of Electricity, Magnetism, and Heat, be not admitted as subjects of Examination."

(2) "That the Papers containing the questions from books be shortened, in order to enable the Candidates to give more time to Examples and Deductions."

(3) The Board "are of opinion, that with reference to Optics, the restriction 'Geometrically' may with advantage be omitted, and that the questions should be so framed as not necessarily to require any particular kind of demonstration. They therefore suggest that it would be desirable to offer to the SENATE a GRACE for omitting the words 'treated Geometrically in the SCHEDULE.' A Grace to this effect was passed on May 23, 1849.

OBSERVATIONS.

STATUTABLE CONGREGATIONS.—One upon the last day of each Term; two on the 10th day of October; one on the 3d, and one on the 4th, of November; two on the day after the second Tripos; two on the 11th of June.

The Divinity, Law, and Physic Schools are open during the whole of every Term, and the keeping of all Acts, except the former which are confined to every other Thursday, is entirely at the discretion of the respective Professors.

All Festivals, Saints' days, and Sundays, are surplice-days, and the evening preceding are surplice-evenings; but on May 29, June 20, and November 5, surplices are worn in the morning only.

On Litany days the Doctors<sup>a</sup> and Noblemen wear their robes, and the Proctors their congregation-ruffs.

Commemoration of Benefactors is at St Peter's, Clare, Pembroke, Caius, Queens', Catharine, Jesus, Christ's, and St John's Colleges, the day after the end of each Term, on which occasion there is a feast in the several College-halls.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

HINC LUCEM ET POCULA SACRA.

DEUM TIMETO: REGEM HONORATO: VIRTUTEM COLITO:
DISCIPLINIS BONIS OPERAM DATO.

Stat. Acad. Cantab.

THE UNIVERSITY of CAMBRIDGE is a society of students in all and every of the liberal arts and sciences, incorporated (13th Eliz. c. 29,) by the name of "The Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge." This commonwealth is a union of seventeen colleges, or societies, devoted to the study of learning and knowledge, and for the better service of the Church and State. All these colleges<sup>1</sup>, or halls, have been founded since the beginning of the reign of King Edward I.<sup>2</sup> and are maintained by the endowments of their several founders and benefactors. Each college is a body corporate, bound by its own statutes; but is likewise controlled by the paramount laws of the University. The present University Statutes were given by Queen Elizabeth in the 12th year of her reign, and, with the former privileges, were sanctioned by Parliament. They are the foundation upon which all new laws are framed.

Each of the seventeen colleges, or departments, in this literary republic, furnishes members both for the executive and legislative branch of its government. The place of Assembly is the Senate-House.

All persons who are Masters<sup>3</sup> of Arts, or Doctors in one or other of the three faculties, viz. Divinity, the Civil Law, or Physic, having their names upon the College-boards a sufficient time, have votes in this assembly. Those who erase their names from their respective College-boards, lose the privilege of Members of the Senate, unless they re-enter their names, and reside the greater part of three several Terms.

The SENATE is divided into two Houses, denominated the Regents' and Non-Regents' House, with a view to particular

duties allotted to the members of the Regents' House, by the Statutes of the University.

Masters of Arts of less than five years' standing, and Doctors of less than two, compose the Regent or Upper House, or, White-Hood House, from its members wearing their hoods lined with white silk. All the rest constitute the Non-Regent or lower house, otherwise called the Black-Hood House, from its members wearing black silk hoods. But Doctors of more than two years' standing, and the Public Orator of the University, may vote in either House, according to their pleasure.

Besides the two Houses, there is a council called the Caput, chosen annually upon the 12th of October, by which every University Grace must be approved before it can be introduced to the Senate.

The CAPUT consists of the Vice-Chancellor, a Doctor in each of the faculties, Divinity, Civil Law, and Physic, and two Masters of Arts, who are the representatives of the Regent and Non-Regent Houses. The Vice-Chancellor is a member of the Caput by virtue of his office.

A few days before the beginning of each Term, the Vice-Chancellor publishes a list of the several days on which a Congregation or assembly of the Senate will be held for transacting University business; these fixed days occur once a fortnight; but in case of emergency, the Vice-Chancellor summons a Congregation for the dispatch of extraordinary affairs. There are also Statutable Congregations, or days of assembling, enjoined by the Statutes, for the ordinary routine of University affairs, such as conferring degrees, electing officers, &c. for which no notice is required. A Congregation may also be held without three days' previous notice, provided at least forty Members of the Senate be present at its first assembling, and twenty-five at the second.

An assembly of the Senate held out of Term-time is called a Convocation: in such a case a Grace is immediately passed to convert the Convocation into a Congregation, after which the business proceeds in the ordinary manner.

No degree is ever conferred without a Grace for that purpose. After the Grace has passed, the Vice-Chancellor is at liberty to confer the degree. The Grace in this instance is termed a Supplicat. Every degree must have been allowed, or passed, by the College to which the Candidate belongs. It is signed by the Prælector of the college to which the Candidate belongs, and the subscriber is made responsible for the assertion it contains. The penalty for subscribing a false Supplicat, is, "ipso facto," two years deprivation of the privilege of voting in the Senate, or holding any public office in the University. Lib. Stat. p. 234.

For every degree there is a proper form.

The University confers no degree whatever, unless the Candidate has previously subscribed a declaration that he is bonâ fide a member of the Church of England, as by law established<sup>1</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> This suffices for B.A., M.B., and LL.B.; but for other degrees it is necessary that persons should subscribe to the 36th Canon of the Church of England, inserted in the Registry's Book.

The executive branch of the University, is committed to the following officers:—

A CHANCELLOR, who is the head of the whole University, and presides over all cases relating to that body. In him is placed the sole executive authority within the precincts, except in matters of mayhem and felony.

A HIGH STEWARD, who has special power to take the trial of scholars impeached of felony within the 'limits of the University, and to hold and keep a leet according to the established charter and custom. He appoints a Deputy.

A VICE-CHANCELLOR, who is elected annually on the 4th of November, by the Senate. His office, in the absence of the Chancellor, embraces the execution of the Chancellor's powers, and the government of the University according to her Statutes. He must, by an order of the Heads made in 1587, be the Head of some college; and during his continuance in office he acts as a magistrate for the University, Town and County.

A COMMISSARY, who is an officer under the Chancellor, and appointed by him. He holds a court of record for all privileged persons and scholars under the degree of M.A.

A PUBLIC ORATOR, who is the voice of the Senate upon all public occasions. He writes, reads, and records the letters to and from the body of the Senate, and presents to all honorary degrees with an appropriate speech.

The ASSESSOR is an officer specially appointed, by Grace of the Senate, to assist the Vice-Chancellor in his court, in causis forensibus et domesticis.

TWO PROCTORS, who are peace-officers, elected annually. It is their especial duty to attend to the discipline and behaviour of all persons in statu pupillari, to search houses of ill fame. Another part of their duty is to be present at all Congregations of the Senate; to read the Graces in the Regent-House, to take secretly the assent or dissent, and openly to pronounce the same. They must be Masters of Arts of two years' standing at the least; and, of whatever standing in the University, are Regents, by virtue of their office. They determine the seniority of all Masters of Arts at the annual Commencement.

A LIBRARIAN, to whom the regulation and management of the University Library is confided.

A REGISTRARY, who is obliged, either by himself, or by deputy properly authorized, to attend all Congregations, to give directions (if it be required) for the due form of such Graces as are to be propounded, to receive them when passed in both Houses, and to register them in the University records.

TWO TAXORS, who must be Masters of Arts, and are Regents by virtue of their office. They are appointed to regulate the markets, to examine the assize of bread, the lawfulness of weights and measures, and to call all abuses and defects thereof into the Commissary's court.

TWO SCRUTATORS, who are Non-Regents, and whose duty it is to attend all Congregations, to read the Graces in the Lower House, to gather the votes secretly, or to take them openly in scrutiny, and publicly to pronounce the assent or dissent of that House.

TWO MODERATORS, nominated by the Proctors, and appointed by a Grace of the Senate. They act as the Proctors' substitutes in the Philosophical Schools, superintending the exercises and disputations in philosophy, and the examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. They are also generally appointed Deputies in the absence of the Proctors.

TWO PRO-PROCTORS, who are appointed, in consequence of the increasing magnitude of the University, to assist the Proctors in that part of their duty which relates to the discipline and behaviour of those persons who are in statu pupillari, and the preservation of public morals; but in the other parts of the Proctor's office they have not any concern, or control.

THREE ESQUIRE BEDELLS, whose office is to attend the Vice-Chancellor, whom they precede with their silver maces upon all public occasions and solemnities; to attend the Doctors present in the Regent House, by bringing them to open scrutiny, there to deliver their suffrages either by word or writing, according to the order of the Statutes; to receive from the Vice-Chancellor and the rest of the Caput, the Graces delivered unto them, and to deliver them first to the Scrutators in the Lower House, and from thence, if they be granted, to carry them to the Proctors in the Upper House; to attend the Professors and Respondents in the three faculties from their colleges to the Schools, and during the continuance of the several acts; to collect fines and penalties from all members of the University; and to summon to the Chancellor's Court all members of the Senate.

The UNIVERSITY PRINTER, the LIBRARY KEEPER, the UNDER-LIBRARY KEEPERS, and the SCHOOL KEEPER, are elected by the Senate, from two candidates previously nominated by the Heads of Houses.

The YEOMAN BEDELL is appointed by Letters Patent under the hand and seal of the Chancellor.

The UNIVERSITY MARSHAL is appointed by Letters Patent under the hand and seal of the Vice-Chancellor.

---

The TWO MEMBERS, whom the University sends to the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, are chosen by the collective body of the Senate.

The UNIVERSITY COUNSEL are appointed by Grace of the Senate, and are consulted upon various occasions.

The SOLICITOR is appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

SYNDICS are the members of special committees of members of the Senate, appointed by Grace from time to time for specific duties, such as the framing of laws, regulating fees, inspecting the library, building, printing, &c.

The PROFESSORS are paid from various sources: many of them have ancient stipends which were considerable at the period at which they were fixed, but which have become inadequate from the diminished value of money; to some professorships foundation estates are attached, and to the Regius and Lady Margaret's professorships of Divinity the impropriate rectories of Somersham and Terrington: the others are paid by stipends from the Privy Purse, or by Government, one of them receiving £400, another £200, and the rest £100 per annum.

The ANNUAL INCOME of the University arises from various sources, of which the following are the principal:

The Rectory of Burwell and a farm at Barton, producing about £1000 per annum.

The produce of fees at matriculation, for degrees, cautions for certain academical exercises for degrees, and other irregular sources of income not easily enumerated, the gross amount of which is very variable, but does not average more than £2000 per annum.

The trading profits of the PITT [University] PRESS, which have as yet seldom been very considerable.

In the statement of the ordinary income and expenditure of the University, no account has been taken of the amount of fees paid to the Bedells, Proctors, Moderators, Pro-proctors, their servants, the Registrary, amounting to about £2400 per annum, by which these officers are entirely paid: nor of the Library-tax (of 6s. per annum upon every member of the University), which is appropriated entirely to the purchase of books for the Public Library: nor of various trust funds, appropriated to specific objects, over the distribution of which the University possesses no control.

The whole of the funds of the University are managed by the Vice-Chancellor, or by specific Trustees, and the accounts are examined annually by three Auditors, who are appointed annually by the Senate.

The STATUTES of the University were printed in 1785, and a copy of them may be found in the Public Library, in the Library of every College, and in the Senate-House; the Vice-Chancellor and the two Proctors for the time being have also each one copy.

GRACES of the Senate possess generally the force of Statutes; but no Grace of the Senate is considered valid which is inconsistent with the Statutes of the 12th of Elizabeth, and certain nearly cotemporary interpretations of them, or with King's Letters which have been accepted and acted upon by the University.

The TERMS of this University are three, and are fixed by inviolable rules. Michaelmas, or October, Term begins on the tenth of October, and ends on the 16th of December. Lent, or January, Term begins on the 13th of January, and ends on the Friday before Palm Sunday. Easter, or Midsummer, Term begins on the eleventh day (the Wednesday se'nnight) after Easter-day, and ends on the Friday after Commencement-day. Commencement-day is always the First Tuesday in July.

If any member of the Senate change his College, twenty-four hours only are allowed for that purpose: if he exceed that time he must again keep three terms, before he can be reinstated as a member, or qualified to vote.

The respective Orders in the several Colleges are as follow :

1. A HEAD of a College or House, who is generally a Doctor in Divinity; excepting of Trinity-Hall, Caius College, and Downing College, where they may be Doctors in the Civil Law or Physic. The Head of King's is styled Provost; of Queens', President; of all the rest, Master.

2. FELLOWS, who generally are Doctors in Divinity, the Civil Law, or Physic; Bachelors in Divinity; Masters or Bachelors of Arts; some few Bachelors in the Civil Law or Physic, as at Trinity-Hall and Caius College. The number of Fellowships in the University is 430.

3. NOBLEMEN GRADUATES, DOCTORS in the several faculties, BACHELORS IN DIVINITY (who have been Masters of Arts), and MASTERS OF ARTS, who are not on the foundation, but whose names are kept on the boards for the purpose of being members of the Senate. The expense of keeping the name upon the boards varies in different Colleges from about £2 to about £4 per annum.

4. TEN-YEAR MEN; these are allowed to take the degree of Bachelor in Divinity without having been B.A. or M.A., by the 9th statute of Queen Elizabeth, which permits persons, who are admitted at any college when 24 years of age and upwards, to take the degree of Bachelor in Divinity after their names have remained on the boards ten years or more. After the first eight years, they must reside in the University the greater part of three several terms, and perform the exercises which are required by the statutes.

5. BACHELORS in the CIVIL LAW and PHYSIC, who sometimes keep their names upon the boards till they become Doctors. They wear the habit, and enjoy all the ordinary privileges of Masters of Arts, except that of voting in the Senate.

6. BACHELORS OF ARTS, who are in statu pupillari, and pay for tuition whether resident or not, and generally keep their names on the boards, either to shew their desire to offer themselves candidates for Fellowships, or to become members of the Senate. If they erase their names, they save the expense of tuition and College detrimenta; and may nevertheless take the degree of M.A. at the usual period, by putting their names on the College boards a few days previous to incepting: but under such circumstances they cannot become members of the Senate, unless they reside again during the greater part of three several terms.

7. FELLOW-COMMONERS, who are generally the younger sons of the nobility, or young men of fortune, and have the privilege of dining at the Fellows' table, from whence the appellation originated.

8. SCHOLARS, who are generally foundation members of their respective Colleges, and who enjoy various advantages; in some cases they have their commons paid for, their chambers rent-free, and various weekly or other allowances: in other cases they have specific stipends only, in conformity with the conditions of their foundation. They are for the most part elected, by direct examination or otherwise, at different periods subsequent to the commencement of their residence at the University, from the most promising and distinguished of the Students.

9. PENSIONERS, who form the great body of the Students, who pay for their commons, chambers, &c., and enjoy generally no pecuniary advantages from their respective colleges.

10. SIZARS are generally Students of limited means. They usually have their commons free, and receive various emoluments.

THE METHOD OF PROCEEDING IN ARTS.

IN order to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the regular time, the person must be admitted of some College before the end of the Easter Term of the year in which he purposes to come into residence. The mode of admission is, either by a personal examination before the Tutor and some of the College officers, or, which is more usual, by sending to the Tutor a recommendatory certificate, signed by some Master of Arts of this University, stating the name, age, qualifications, &c. &c. of the candidate, and transmitting with it the caution-money<sup>1</sup>. If this certificate be considered satisfactory, the admission takes place, and the person's name is immediately placed on the boards which are suspended in the butteries of the several Colleges. The person thus admitted usually comes into residence about the 20th of October following, and then commences his Academical Course<sup>2</sup>.

The Matriculation in the University, or enrolment of the Students' names in the University Books, is done on the day after the division of the Term. At this time also the fees to the University are paid to the Registry; he presents to each Student a Book of Extracts from the Statutes, containing such directions as relates to his duty.

Besides a constant attendance on lectures, the Undergraduates are examined in their respective Colleges yearly, or half-yearly, in those subjects which have engaged their studies; and, according to the manner in which they acquit themselves in these examinations, their names are arranged in classes, and those who obtain the honour of the first places receive prizes of different value.

By this course the Students are prepared for those public Examinations which the University requires candidates for the degree to pass. The first, viz. the Previous Examination, takes place in the Lent and October Terms of the second year from that in which a student resides the major part of his first Term<sup>3</sup>, according to the following plan, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

[N. B. The parts of the following Plan in which it differs from the Plan of 1837 are printed in Italics.]

1. THAT the subjects of the Examination shall be one of the four Gospels in the original Greek, Paley's Evidences of Christianity, the Old Testament History, as contained in the books from Genesis to Esther both inclusive, one of the Greek and one of the Latin Classics, the Elements of Euclid, Books 1 and 2, and examples in the following rules of Arithmetic, viz. : Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division, Reduction, Rule of Three ; the same Rules in Vulgar and Decimal Fractions ; Practice, Simple and Compound Interest, and Discount.

2. That the appointment of the particular Gospel, and in regard to the Classical subjects, the appointment both of the authors and of the portions of their works which it may be expedient to select, shall rest with the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, the three Regii Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, the Regius Professor of Greek, and the Public Orator (provided that not more than two of them are members of the same College) ; upon this clear understanding, that in the exercise of the powers thus to be vested in them, they shall so limit the Examination, that every one who is to be examined may be reasonably expected to shew a competent knowledge of all the subjects.

3. That in case three or more of those to whom the appointment of the subjects of Examination has been assigned shall belong to the same college, deputies for any number exceeding two shall be appointed, every year, by a Grace of the Senate.

4. That public notice of these subjects of Examination in each year shall be issued in the first week of the Lent Term of the year preceding.

5. That the Examination in the Evidences of Christianity, the Old Testament History, Euclid, and Arithmetic, shall be conducted entirely by printed Papers.

6. That, in regard to the Greek Testament and the Classical subjects, every person when examined shall be required (1) to translate some portion of each subject, and (2) to construe and explain passages of the same, and to answer such plain questions in Grammar, History, and Geography, as may arise immediately out of the subjects.

7. That previously to the commencement of the Examination, the Examiners shall prepare an alphabetical list of all the persons to be examined, and divide them into six portions as nearly equal as possible : and that they shall send a copy of such list to the Prælector of each College, notifying the days and hours when each of the persons to be examined belonging to that College shall be required to attend the Examination.

8. That the Examination shall begin on the Monday in the week before the end of the Lent Term in each year.

9. That the days of Examination shall be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday, in the first week, and Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in the following week ; and the hours of Examination each day from 8 till 11 in the morning, and from 12 till 3 in the afternoon.

10. That on the first day the subject of Examination shall be the Evidences of Christianity, on the second day the Old Testament History, and on the third day Euclid and Arithmetic ; the persons whose names appear in the first three divisions being examined in the morning, and those whose names are in the last three divisions in the afternoon of each day.

11. That during the last six days each of the six divisions shall be examined for one day in the remaining subjects, viz., in the Greek and Latin subjects, and in the Greek Testament; the persons under Examination being employed in translating the passages proposed, and each individual being called upon in turn during the time of Examination to construe and explain passages of the appointed subjects and to answer questions.

12. That the Examination of each person in the Greek and Latin subjects and in the Greek Testament shall be concluded in one day, and that the result of the whole Examination with regard to him shall be notified to the Prælector of his College as soon as conveniently may be after the end of the Examination of all the Six Divisions.

13. That every Undergraduate shall be required to attend the Examination in the Lent Term of the year next but one after that in which he has kept his first term.

14. That in case any person who has been a resident member of either of the Universities of Oxford or Dublin shall become a resident member of this University before the time at which he would have been required, had he been originally of this University, to attend the Previous Examination, such person be required to attend that Previous Examination which he would have been called upon to attend if he had come to reside in this University at the time he actually did commence his residence at Oxford or Dublin.

15. That in case any person who has been a resident member of either of the Universities of Oxford or Dublin shall become a resident member of this University after the time at which he would have been required, had he been originally of this University, to attend the Previous Examination, such person be required to attend that Previous Examination which shall take place next after his becoming a resident member of this University.

16. That two Classes (each of them arranged alphabetically) shall be formed out of those examined—the first consisting of those who have passed their examination with credit—and the second, of those to whom the Examiners have only not refused their certificate of approval.

17. That in case any one shall be prevented by illness, or any other sufficient cause, from attending the proper Examination of his year, a certificate of such illness or other cause shall be submitted by the Tutor of his College to the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors for the time being, for their approbation in writing.

18. That if any one shall absent himself from the proper Examination of his year, without the written approval of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors, he shall not be allowed the Lent Term of that year.

19. That there shall be a second Examination commencing on the second Monday in the Michaelmas Term of each year, for those who have been absent with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors from the preceding Lent Examination, and for those who have not been approved by the Examiners at that Examination; and that such Second Examination shall be in the same subjects as those of the preceding Lent Examination, shall be conducted by the same Examiners, and in a manner similar to that described in the preceding Regulations.

20. That those who shall not have been approved at either the Lent or October Examination of their year, or who shall have been absent from both those Examinations, shall be required to attend the Lent Examination of the following year, subject to the same conditions as before; and that no degree of B.A., M.B., or LL.B., shall be granted, unless a certificate be presented to the Caput shewing that the candidate for such degree has passed, to the satisfaction of the Examiners, some one of these Examinations.

21. That in every year, at the first Congregation after the 10th day of October, the Senate shall elect six Examiners, (who shall be members of the Senate, and nominated by the several Colleges according to the cycle of Proctors, Taxors, and Scrutators) to conduct the Lent and October Examinations of the succeeding year, provided that no one of such Examiners shall also hold the office of Pro-Proctor at the time of the Lent Examination.

22. That the Pro-Proctors and four, at least, of the Examiners shall attend each portion of the Examination during the first three days; and that all the six Examiners shall attend each portion during the last six days.

23. That each of the Examiners shall receive £20 from the University Chest.

24. That the four Pro-Proctors' men shall be in attendance upon the Examiners during each of the first three days; and two of the Proctors' men during each of the last six days of Examination.

25. That the foregoing Regulations shall not interfere with the composition between the University and King's College.

26. That the first Examination under these Regulations shall take place in the Lent Term of 1851.

BOARD OF MATHEMATICAL STUDIES,

ESTABLISHED BY GRACE, OCT. 31, 1848.

WITH a view to encourage attendance at the Lectures of the Mathematical Professors, and to secure a correspondence between those Lectures and the Mathematical Examinations of the University; and also as a means of communicating to the Students themselves, from a body of experienced Examiners and Lecturers, correct views of the nature and objects of the Mathematical Examinations: The Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, the Plumian Professor of Astronomy, the Lowndean Professor of Geometry and Astronomy, and the Jacksonian Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, together with the Moderators and Examiners for Mathematical Honors for the time being, as well as those of the two years immediately preceding, are constituted a Board of Mathematical Studies: whose duty it is to consult together from time to time on all matters relating to the actual state of Mathematical Studies and Examinations in the University; and to prepare annually and lay before the Vice-Chancellor a Report, to be by him published to the University in the Lent or Easter Term of each year.

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS.

THE Candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts must have resided ten terms; or the major part of such terms; the Term in which he entered and that in which he takes the degree are reckoned to him among the twelve required to be kept, by the Statutes.

This Examination extends over twenty days. The Moderators form the Questionists (this being the appellation of the Students during the last six weeks of preparation) into two alphabetical lists, of Candidates for Honors, and Questionists not Candidates for Honors, and these lists are published previously to the Examination Day.

On the first Thursday after the first day of January, the Candidates for Honors enter the Senate-House a little before nine o'clock; the other Questionists on the following Wednesday morning at the same hour, preceded by a Master of Arts, who, on this occasion, is styled the Father of the College to which he belongs<sup>1</sup>.

The Examination of those who contend for Honors then commences, according to the following REGULATIONS, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

Plan of Examination for Questionists who are Candidates for Honors.

1. THAT Questions and Problems being proposed to the Questionists on eight days, the first three days be assigned to the more elementary, and the last five to the higher parts of Mathematics: that after the first three days, there shall be an interval of eight days; and that on the seventh of these days the Moderators and Examiners shall declare, what persons have so acquitted themselves as to deserve Mathematical Honors.

2. That those who are declared to have so acquitted themselves, and no others, be admitted to the Examination in the higher parts of Mathematics; and that after that Examination, the Moderators and Examiners, taking into account the Examination of all the eight days, shall arrange all the Candidates who have been declared to deserve Mathematical Honors into the three classes of Wranglers, Senior Optimes and Junior Optimes, and that these classes be published in the Senate-House at nine o'clock on the Friday morning preceding the general B.A. Admission.

3. That the subjects of the Examination on the first three days shall be those contained in the following Schedule:

Euclid. Book I to VI. Book XI, Props. 1 to xxx. Book XII, Props. 1, 2, 11.

Arithmetic and the elementary parts of Algebra; namely, the Rules for the Fundamental Operations upon Algebraical Symbols, with their proofs; the solution of simple and quadratic Equations; Arithmetical and Geometrical Progression, Permutations and Combinations, the Binomial Theorem, and the principles of Logarithms.

The elementary parts of Plane Trigonometry, so far as to include the solution of triangles.

The elementary parts of Conic Sections, treated geometrically, together with the values of the Radius of Curvature, and of the Chords of Curvature passing through the Focus and Center.

The elementary parts of Statics, treated without the Differential Calculus; namely, the Composition and Resolution of Forces acting in one plane on a point, the Mechanical Powers, and the properties of the Center of Gravity.

<sup>1</sup> All the Questionists are required to pay their fees to the Registrar and the Junior Proctor on the Monday or Tuesday preceding the first day of the Examination for Honors.

The elementary parts of Dynamics, treated without the Differential Calculus; namely, the Doctrine of Uniform and Uniformly Accelerated Motion, of Falling Bodies, Projectiles, Collision, and Cycloidal Oscillations.

The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Sections of Newton's Principia; the Propositions to be proved in Newton's manner.

The elementary parts of Hydrostatics, treated without the Differential Calculus; namely, the pressure of non-elastic Fluids, specific Gravities, floating Bodies, the pressure of the Air, and the construction and use of the more simple Instruments and Machines.

The elementary parts of Optics: namely, the laws of Reflection and Refraction of Rays at plane and spherical surfaces, not including Aberrations; the Eye; Telescopes.

The elementary parts of Astronomy; so far as they are necessary for the explanation of the more simple phenomena, without calculation.

4. In all these subjects, Examples, and Questions arising directly out of the Propositions, shall be introduced into the Examination, in addition to the Propositions themselves.

5. The Examination both for Mathematical Honors and for the Ordinary Degree shall be conducted according to the following Schedule.

6. The Moderators and Examiners shall be authorized to declare Candidates, though they have not deserved Mathematical Honors, to have deserved to pass for an Ordinary Degree, so far as the Mathematical part of the Examination for such Degree is concerned; and such persons shall accordingly be excused the Mathematical part of the Examination for an Ordinary Degree, and shall only be required to pass in the other subjects, namely, in the parts of the Examination assigned in the Schedule to the two last days: but such excuse shall be available to such persons only for the Examination then in progress.

That the Questionists who are Candidates for Honors be required to attend, with the other Questionists, the Examination in Paley's Moral Philosophy, the New Testament and Ecclesiastical History.

That the names of all such Questionists, Candidates for Honors, as shall in the judgment of the Examiners, have passed their Examination in these subjects with credit, be published, in alphabetical order, by the Proctors, in the Senate-House, upon the day of the Bachelor of Arts' Commencement.

On two pillars at the entrance of the Senate-House are hung the two Lists of the Questionists, one of the Candidates for Honors, and the other of the πολλοι, and a paper denoting the hours and order of examination.

The Examination of the other Questionists, viz. those who are not Candidates for Honors, takes place according to the following Plan, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

Plan of Examination for Questionists who are not Candidates for Honors.

1. THAT the Subjects of the Examinations shall be the first fourteen, or the last fourteen Chapters of the Acts of the Apostles, and one of the longer, or two more of the shorter Epistles of the New Testament, in the original Greek, one of the Greek and one of the Latin Classics, three of the Six Books of Paley's Moral Philosophy, the History of the Christian Church from its Origin to the assembling of the Council of Nice, the History of the English Reformation, and such mathematical subjects as are prescribed by the Grace of April 19, 1837, at present in force.

2. That in regard to these Subjects, the appointment of the Division of the Acts—of the Epistle or Epistles—of the Books of Paley's Moral Philosophy, and both of the Classical Authors and of the portions of their Works, which it may be expedient to select, shall be with the persons who appoint the Classical Subjects for the Previous Examination.

3. That public notice of the subjects so selected for any year shall be issued in the last week of the Lent Term of the year next but one preceding.

4. That the Examination shall commence on the Wednesday preceding the first Monday in the Lent Term.

5. That on the Monday previous to the commencement of the Examination the Examiners shall publish the names of the persons to be examined, arranged in alphabetical order, and separated into two divisions.

6. That the distribution of the Subjects and Times of Examination shall be according to the preceding Schedule.

7. That the Examination shall be conducted entirely by printed papers.

8. That the Papers in the Classical Subjects and in the Acts and Epistles shall consist of passages to be translated, accompanied with such plain Questions in Grammar, History and Geography, as arise immediately out of those passages.

9. That the Papers in the Mathematical Subjects shall consist of questions in Arithmetic and Algebra, and of Propositions in Euclid, Mechanics, and Hydrostatics, according to the annexed Schedule: and also of such Questions and applications as arise directly out of the aforementioned propositions.

10. That no person shall be approved by the Examiners, unless he shew competent knowledge of all the subjects of the Examination.

11. That there shall be three additional Examinations in every year; the first commencing on the Thursday preceding Ash-Wednesday, the second on the Thursday preceding the Division of the Easter Term, and the third on the Thursday preceding the Division of the Michaelmas Term.

12. That in these additional Examinations the distribution of the subjects and the hours of the Examination shall be at the discretion of the Examiners, the subjects being the same as at the Examination in the preceding January.

13. That no person shall be allowed to attend any Examination whose name is not sent by the Prælector of his College to the Examiners before the commencement of the Examination.

14. That in every year at the first Congregation after the 10th day of October, the Senate shall elect four Examiners, (who shall be members of the Senate, and nominated by the several Colleges according to the Cycle of Proctors and Taxors) to assist in conducting the Examinations of the three following Terms.

15. That two of these Examiners shall confine themselves to the Classical Subjects, and two to Paley's Moral Philosophy, Ecclesiastical History, the Acts of the Apostles, and the Epistles.

16. That the two Examiners in the Mathematical Subjects, at the Examination in January, be as hitherto the Moderators of the year next but one preceding; and that at the other three Examinations the Moderators for the time being examine in the Mathematical Subjects.

17. That each of the six Examiners shall receive £20 from the University Chest.

18. That the Pro-Proctors and two at least of the Examiners attend in the Senate-House during each portion of the Examination in January.

SCHEDULE OF THE ORDER OF DAYS, HOURS, SUBJECTS, AND EXAMINERS AT THE GENERAL QUESTIONISTS' EXAMINATION.

The first Thursday here mentioned is the first Thursday after the first day of January. The last Tuesday is the Tuesday preceding the general B.A. Admission.

SCHEDULE of MATHEMATICAL SUBJECTS of Examination, for the Degree of B.A. of Persons not Candidates for Honors.

ARITHMETIC.

Addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, reduction, rule of three; the same rules in vulgar and decimal fractions: practice, simple and compound interest, discount, extraction of square and cube roots; duodecimals, together with the proofs of the Rules and the reasons for the processes employed.

ALGEBRA.

1. Definitions and explanations of algebraical signs and terms.
2. Addition, subtraction, multiplication and division of simple algebraical quantities and simple algebraical fractions.
3. Algebraical definitions of ratio and proportion.
4. If  $a : b :: c : d$ , then  $ad = bc$ , and the converse :
     also  $b : a :: d : c$ ,
     and  $a + b : b :: c + d : d$ .
5. If  $a : b :: c : d$ ,
     and  $c : d :: e : f$ ,
     then  $a : b :: e : f$ .
6. If  $a : b :: c : d$ ,
     and  $b : e :: d : f$ ,
     then  $a : e :: c : f$ .
7. Geometrical definition of proportion. (Euc. Book v. Def. 5.)
8. If quantities be proportional according to the algebraical definition, they are proportional according to the geometrical definition.
9. Definition of a quantity varying as another, directly, or inversely, or as to others jointly.
10. Easy Equations of a degree not higher than the second, involving one, or two, unknown quantities, and Questions producing such Equations.

EUCLID.

Book I. II. III.

Book VI. Props. 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.

MECHANICS.

Definition of Force, Weight, Quantity of Matter, Density, Measure of Force.

The Lever.

Definition of Lever.

Axioms.

Prop. 1. A horizontal prism or cylinder of uniform density will produce the same effect by its weight as if it were collected at its middle point.

Prop. 2. If two weights acting perpendicularly on a straight lever on opposite sides of the fulcrum balance each other, they are inversely as their distances from the fulcrum; and the pressure on the fulcrum is equal to their sum.

Prop. 3. If two forces acting perpendicularly on a straight lever in opposite directions and on the same side of the fulcrum balance each other, they are inversely as their distances from the fulcrum; and the pressure on the fulcrum is equal to the difference of the forces.

Prop. 4. To explain the kinds of levers.

Prop. 5. If two forces acting perpendicularly at the extremities of the arms of any lever balance each other, they are inversely as the arms.

Prop. 6. If two forces acting at any angles on the arms of any lever balance each other, they are inversely as the perpendiculars drawn from the fulcrum to the directions in which the forces act.

Prop. 7. If two weights balance each other on a straight lever when it is horizontal, they will balance each other in every position of the lever.

Composition and Resolution of Forces.

Definition of Component and Resultant Forces-

Prop. 8. If the adjacent sides of a parallelogram represent the component forces in direction and magnitude, the diagonal will represent the resultant force in direction and magnitude.

Prop. 9. If three forces, represented in magnitude and direction by the sides of a triangle, act on a point, they will keep it at rest.

And also of such Questions and Applications as arise directly out of the aforementioned Propositions.

Definition of Wheel and Axle.

Prop. 10. There is an equilibrium upon the wheel and axle when the power is to the weight as the radius of the axle to the radius of the wheel.

Definition of Pulley.

Prop. 11. In the single moveable pulley where the strings are parallel, there is an equilibrium when the power is to the weight as 1 to 2.

Prop. 12. In a system in which the same string passes round any number of pulleys, and the parts of it between the pulleys are parallel, there is an equilibrium when power ( $P$ ) : weight ( $W$ ) :: 1 : the number of strings at the lower block.

Prop. 13. In a system in which each pulley hangs by a separate string, and the strings are parallel, there is an equilibrium when  $P : W :: 1$  : that power of 2 whose index is the number of moveable pulleys.

Prop. 14. The weight ( $W$ ) being on an inclined plane, and the force ( $P$ ) acting parallel to the plane, there is an equilibrium when  $P : W ::$  the height of the plane : its length.

Definition of Velocity.

Prop. 15. Assuming that the arcs which subtend equal angles at the centres of two circles are as the radii of the circles, to shew that if  $P$  and  $W$  balance each other on the wheel and axle, and the whole be put in motion,  $P : W :: W$ 's velocity :  $P$ 's velocity.

Prop. 16. To shew that if  $P$  and  $W$  balance each other in the machines described in Propositions 11, 12, 13, and 14, and the whole be put in motion,  $P : W :: W$ 's velocity in the direction of gravity :  $P$ 's velocity.

The Centre of Gravity.

Definition of Centre of Gravity.

Prop. 17. If a body balance itself on a line in all positions, the centre of gravity is in that line.

Prop. 18. To find the centre of gravity of two heavy points ; and to shew that the pressure at the centre of gravity is equal to the sum of the weights, in all positions.

Prop. 19. To find the centre of gravity of any number of heavy points ; and to shew that the pressure at the centre of gravity is equal to the sum of the weights in all positions.

Prop. 20. To find the centre of gravity of a straight line.

Prop. 21. To find the centre of gravity of a triangle.

Prop. 22. When a body is placed on a horizontal plane, it will stand or fall, according as the vertical line, drawn from its centre of gravity, falls within or without its base.

Prop. 23. When a body is suspended from a point, it will rest with its centre of gravity in the vertical line passing through the point of suspension.

HYDROSTATICS.

Definitions of Fluid; of elastic and non-elastic Fluids.

Pressure of non-elastic Fluids.

Prop. 1. Fluids press equally in all directions.

Prop. 2. The pressure upon any particle of a fluid of uniform density is proportional to its depth below the surface of the fluid.

Prop. 3. The surface of every fluid at rest is horizontal.

Prop. 4. If a vessel, the bottom of which is horizontal and the sides vertical, be filled with fluid, the pressure upon the bottom will be equal to the weight of the fluid.

Prop. 5. To explain the hydrostatic paradox.

Prop. 6. If a body floats on a fluid, it displaces as much of the fluid as is equal in weight to the weight of the body; and it presses downwards and is pressed upwards with a force equal to the weight of the fluid displaced.

Specific Gravities.

Definition of Specific Gravity.

Prop. 7. If  $M$  be the magnitude of a body,  $S$  its specific gravity, and  $W$  its weight,  $W = MS$ .

Prop. 8. When a body of uniform density floats on a fluid, the part immersed : the whole body :: the specific gravity of the body : the specific gravity of the fluid.

Prop. 9. When a body is immersed in a fluid, the weight lost : whole weight of the body :: the specific gravity of the fluid : the specific gravity of the body.

Prop. 10. To describe the hydrostatic balance, and to shew how to find the specific gravity of a body by means of it, 1st, when its specific gravity is greater than that of the fluid in which it is weighed; 2ndly, when it is less.

Prop. 11. To describe the common hydrometer, and to shew how to compare the specific gravities of two fluids by means of it.

Elastic Fluids.

Prop. 12. Air has weight.

Prop. 13. The elastic force of air at a given temperature varies as the density.

Prop. 14. The elastic force of air is increased by an increase of temperature.

Prop. 15. To describe the construction of the common air-pump and its operation.

Prop. 16. To describe the construction of the condenser and its operation.

Prop. 17. To explain the construction of the common barometer, and to shew that the mercury is sustained in it by the pressure of the air on the surface of the mercury in the basin.

Prop. 18. The pressure of the atmosphere is accurately measured by the weight of the column of mercury in the barometer.

Prop. 19. To describe the construction of the common pump and its operation.

Prop. 20. To describe the construction of the forcing pump and its operation.

Prop. 21. To explain the action of the siphon.

Prop. 22. To shew how to graduate a common thermometer.

Prop. 23. Having given the number of degrees on Fahrenheit's thermometer, to find the corresponding number on the centigrade thermometer.

That the Questionists who are Candidates for an Ordinary Degree only, and not for Honors, and who pass, be arranged by the Examiners into four Classes, namely, a fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh, according to merit, the names in each Class being arranged alphabetically; and that these Classes be published in the Senate-House on the Friday preceding the general B.A. Admission<sup>1</sup>.

REGULATIONS concerning the PROFESSORS' EXAMINATIONS, an additional Condition for the ordinary B.A. Degree in and after the year 1852: appointed by Grace, Oct. 31, 1848.

1. That, at the beginning of each academical year, the Vice-Chancellor shall issue a Programme of the subjects, places, and times, of the several Professors' Lectures for the year then to ensue.

2. That all Students, who, being Candidates for the Degree of B.A., or for the Honorary Degree of M.A., are not Candidates for Honors, shall in addition to what is now required of them, have attended, before they be admitted to Examination for their respective Degrees, the Lectures delivered during one Term at least, by one or more of the following Professors:

Regius Professor of Laws,	Jacksonian Professor of Natural and
Regius Professor of Physic,	Experimental Philosophy,
Professor of Moral Philosophy,	Downing Professor of the Laws of
Professor of Chemistry,	England,
Professor of Anatomy,	Downing Professor of Medicine,
Professor of Modern History,	Professor of Mineralogy,
Professor of Botany,	Professor of Political Economy;
Woodwardian Professor of Geology,

and shall have obtained a Certificate of having passed an Examination satisfactory to one of the Professors whose Lectures they have chosen to attend.

3. That this Regulation shall apply to all Students answering the above descriptions who shall commence their Academical Residence in or after the Michaelmas Term of the year 1849.

In order to check the practice of Degradings, the following Regulations were adopted by Grace of the Senate, Feb. 27, 1829.

1.—That no person who has degraded, be permitted to become a Candidate for University Scholarships or any other Academical Honors during his Undergraduateship, or for Honors in the Mathematical Tripos, unless he shall previously have obtained special permission for so doing, from a Syndicate hereafter to be appointed for that purpose.

2.—That the Syndicate do consist of the Vice-Chancellor, the Public

Orator, the Greek Professor, and the two Moderators for the time being, who shall be invested with full power to examine into the cases of Applicants for permission to become Candidates for Honors after they have degraded, and to grant or withhold such permission, as they may think proper.

3.—That this Syndicate do meet on a certain day in October in each year, of which notice is to be given by the Vice-Chancellor, for the purpose of taking into consideration the cases of applicants; and that all applications be made in writing by the Tutor of the person or persons making such application, accompanied with certificates of ill health, or such other certificates as he may consider necessary.

THE following Regulations respecting standing of which Candidates for the Degree of B.A. ought to be before they are allowed to be examined for that degree, and respecting the period after examination for which the certificate of approval signed by the Examiners shall remain in force—were adopted by Grace of the Senate, May 8, 1833:

1.—That no person be admitted on or before Ash Wednesday in the Lent term of each year, ad respondendum questioni, who shall not have been publicly examined at the usual time of examination in the month of January of that year, and produce a certificate from the Examiners of examination and approval; except those who in consequence of ill health may, by the permission of the Proctors and Examiners, have absented themselves from such examination.

2.—That no person be admitted to examination for the degree of B.A. until he has entered into his eleventh term, he having previously kept nine terms exclusive of the term in which he was admitted, and that no certificate of approval, in the case of a person so examined in his eleventh term, shall be valid, unless it shall appear when such person applies for the admission ad respondendum questioni, that he has kept the said eleventh term.

ADMISSION OF THE QUESTIONISTS.

ON Saturday after the first Monday in the Lent Term there is a Congregation in the forenoon; at ten o'clock, the whole number of Candidates for degree appear in the Senate-House. Two papers exhibiting a list of the Questionists arranged<sup>1</sup> according to their merits, or seniority, are hung on the pillars for public inspection.

One of the Bedells calls up the Houses, and the Senior Moderator makes a Latin speech<sup>2</sup>; the Vice-Chancellor sitting in the chair, and the Moderator standing on his left hand.

The Junior Proctor delivers to the Vice-Chancellor the list of Honors and Seniority, subscribed thus, "Examinati et approbati a nobis;" (viz. the Proctors, Moderators, and other Examiners.)

The Caput is then called for passing the Supplicats of the Questionists<sup>3</sup>.

The Prælector, or Father of his College, presents to the Caput two papers on behalf of each Candidate:

but claims it by prescription, no Supplicat is offered. A Grace is shewn to the Vice-Chancellor, and read by the Senior Proctor in the Regent-house only.

1. The Supplicat having the name of the Candidate in full, and of his College on it, and signed by himself.
2. A certificate, signed and sealed by the Master of the College (or his locum-tenens), shewing that each Questionist had kept the required number of terms; if otherwise, the deficiency is mentioned in the Supplicat, and a certificate explaining the cause is delivered to the Caput by the Father.

If any Questionist have been prevented by illness from keeping all his terms, the Certificate to be delivered to the Caput is to be in the following form<sup>4</sup>:

I hereby certify to the Senate and University of Cambridge, that Mr —, of — College, has been under my care from the — day of — till the — day of —; and that during that time he could not with safety, on account of his health, return to Cambridge.

Witness my hand this — day of —, 18—.

(Residence.)

(M.D. or Surgeon.)

The Registrary shews to the Caput that every Candidate has subscribed that he is bonâ fide a member of the Church of England; and that he has passed the Previous Examination.

The Vice-Chancellor reads the Supplicats to the Caput, and he writes Ad. on those that are admitted.

When they have been all read, one of the Bedells carries them into the Non-Regent House, to the Scrutators; the senior reads them, and if all are approved, he says, Omnes placent. But if any are disapproved of, he says, A.B. &c. non placent, reliquæ placent.

The Supplicats are then carried into the Regent-House, where the Senior Proctor reads them. If all are approved of, he says, Placent omnes; placeat vobis ut intrent. If any are disapproved of, he says as above.

The Supplicats are then delivered to the Registrary, who writes on them, Lect. et conces. die — Jan. —

In the mean time the Candidates put on their hoods over their Undergraduate gowns, and the School-keeper gives to each of them a printed copy of the declaration he is to make at his admission.

The Vice-Chancellor takes the chair before the table, and a Bedell having desired the respective Fathers to be in readiness with their Sons, he precedes the Father of the Senior Wrangler (the rest of the Fathers following with their Sons) to the Vice-Chancellor.

<sup>4</sup> The Caput scarcely ever grants more than one ægrotat term. An ægrotat term is never allowed if the applicant has omitted to reside any single term subsequent to that for which he applies, without indeed he produces a formal certificate of illness to account for such omission. An ægrotat term is never allowed for sickness before residence.

The dates in the certificate of illness must cover the first or second half of the term; for example,

“A.B. has been under my care from the 9th Oct. to 14th Nov.,” or “from the 12th Nov. to 17th Dec.”

In the Easter term the certificate must cover the first half.

If the certificate of illness be for the Michaelmas or Lent Term and only covers the first half, the applicant is expected to come up and reside the remainder of the Term.

The Father, taking the Senior Wrangler by the right hand, presents him in these words:

Dignissime Domine, Domine Pro-Cancellarie, et tota Universitas; præsentō vobis hunc juvenem, quem scio, tam moribus quam doctrinā, esse idoneum ad respondendum quæstioni, idque tibi fide meā præsto, totique Academiæ.

The Senior Wrangler then takes the oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy; and the Senior Proctor (with his colleague standing by him) reads to him the following declaration:

Affirmabis, quod nihil ex iis omnibus sciens volens prætermisisti, quæ per Leges aut probatas Consuetudines hujus Academiæ ad hunc Gradum, quem ambis adipiscendum, aut peragenda aut persolvenda requiruntur; nisi quatenus per Gratiam ab Academiā concessam tecum dispensatum fuerit.

Dabis fidem quod Cancellario et Pro-Cancellario nostro comiter obtemperabis: et quod Statuta nostra, Ordinationes, et Consuetudines approbatus observabis.

He then kneels down before the Vice-Chancellor, who, taking his hands between his own, admits him in these words:

Auctoritate mihi commissā, admitto te ad respondendum quæstioni, in nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

The Father of King's next presents his Sons: then the Questionists of Trinity and St John's are commonly presented, and after them those of the other Colleges according to the seniority of the Fathers. Four or five are presented at once, the Father saying, Præsentō vobis hos juvenes quos, &c.

As soon as they have been presented, they are directed by one of the Bedells to the south side of the Senate-House.

When all have been presented, they are divided into parties of ten or twelve; one of each party takes the oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the Senior Proctor administers these oaths to the remainder, saying, Eadem juramenta, quæ præstitit A.B., in suā personā, vos quoque præstabit in vestris personis, &c.

The Senior Proctor then repeats to the whole party the Declaration, Affirmabis quod, &c., and each individual replies in succession, Ita affirmo et ita do fidem.

When all have been sworn, and have made the declaration, they are admitted by the Vice-Chancellor in the order in which their names stand in the list signed by the Proctors and Examiners.

When the admissions are concluded, the Vice-Chancellor dissolves the Congregation.

Bachelors of Arts are called either Ordinarii or ad Baptistam. The Ordinarii are admitted on the last Saturday in January, or on any day after that Saturday, and not later than Ash-Wednesday. The last day of the admission of Ordinarii is Ash-Wednesday. All who are admitted after Ash-Wednesday are called ad Baptistam. These lose their year: for example, a Bachelor admitted after Ash-Wednesday in 1849, is a Bachelor of 1850. No person (except an invalid with a certificate from the Examiners) is allowed to take a degree as an Ordinarius who has not undergone the general examination in the January of that year: if unsuccessful in that examination, he may be re-examined before Ash-Wednesday; and, if approved, he may be admitted on Ash-Wednesday. Those who are admitted to their degree of B.A. at any other time are said to go out in Bye Term. Their examination takes place in one of the Schools, and is similar to that of the ordinary πολλοι. When "examined and approved" by the Moderators and Examiners, their names are arranged alphabetically, and not according to merit. Their seniority is reserved in the class of οι πολλοι after those who are admitted as Ordinarii of the succeeding year.

In addition to the Examination previously described, it is also necessary to insert the following Plan of Examination, confirmed by Graces of the Senate, May 23, 1822, and February 13, 1835.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CLASSICAL TRIPOS EXAMINATION, ADOPTED BY THE SENATE, OCTOBER 31, 1849.

1.—THAT the Classical Tripos Examination shall commence in each year on the fourth Monday after the general admission ad respondendum questioni, and shall continue during five days and the morning of the sixth day; the hours of attendance being from Nine till Twelve in the morning, and from One till Four in the afternoon.

2.—That the following persons only shall be admitted to Examination:

(1) Those who shall have obtained honors at the Mathematical Examination of the preceding January.

(2) Those who, having been declared by the Moderators and Examiners for Mathematical Honors in the preceding January to have deserved to pass (according to the present standard) for an Ordinary Degree, so far as the Mathematical part of the Examination for such degree is concerned, shall have afterwards passed in the other subjects of that Examination.

(3) Those whose names shall have been placed (according to the present standard) in the first class in the Examination for an Ordinary Degree in the preceding January.

(4) Those persons, entitled to Noblemen's Degrees, who shall have entered into their Eighth Term at least, having previously kept Six Terms, exclusive of the Term in which they were admitted, and shall have passed the Examination for an Ordinary Degree in the preceding January; provided, however, that not more than Eight terms shall have passed in the case of any such person after his first Term of residence.

3.—That on the Mornings of the first four days Composition shall be required, consisting of Translations from English into Greek and Latin, Prose and Verse; on the Afternoons of the same four days and on the fifth day passages shall be proposed for Translation selected from the best Greek and Latin authors, and written answers required to such questions as arise immediately out of such passages; on the Morning of the sixth day a paper of questions shall be given in Ancient History.

4.—That to conduct the Examination two Examiners shall be nominated every year by the Colleges whose turn it is to present the Proctors for that year; and the Examiners so nominated shall, if elected by the Senate, and also re-elected by the Senate in the following year, hold their office for two years. The Election shall be made by the Senate at the first Congregation after the 10th of October.

5.—That there shall be a general meeting of the Examiners previous to the Examination, when the Papers set by each Examiner shall be submitted to his colleagues for their approval; and that in the paper on History the questions shall be fixed upon by the four Examiners in common.

6.—That the Exercises in Composition and the answers to the questions in History shall be examined by each of the four Examiners; the Translations by not less than two.

7.—That there shall not be contained in any paper longer passages for Translation, nor more questions than Students well prepared have generally been found able to translate and answer in the time allowed for that paper.

8.—That the names of those persons who shall pass the Examination with credit shall be placed in three classes, of which the first and second shall be arranged in order of merit, and the third alphabetically.

9.—That the classes shall be published by the Examiners in the Senate-House on the fourth Thursday after the end of the Examination.

10.—That no person who has degraded shall be allowed to attend the Examination, unless he shall previously have obtained special permission for so doing from the Syndicate appointed to examine into the cases of applicants for permission to become Candidates for Honors after they have degraded.

11.—That each of the Examiners shall receive Twenty Pounds from the University Chest.

12.—That the foregoing Regulations shall not interfere with the composition between the University and King's College.

13.—That the first Examination under these Regulations shall take place in the Lent Term of 1851; it being provided that the two Examiners nominated in 1849 by the Colleges whose turn it was to present the Proctors for that year shall, if elected by the Senate, take part in conducting the Examination of the Lent Term of 1851, together with the other two Examiners nominated and elected according to the provisions of Rule 4.

A Grace to confirm the above Report passed the Senate Oct. 31, 1849.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MORAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, ADOPTED BY THE SENATE, OCT. 31, 1848<sup>1</sup>.

1.—That a New Honor Tripos be established, to be called the Moral Sciences Tripos, the places in which shall be determined by an Examination in the following subjects:

Moral Philosophy<sup>2</sup>,
Political Economy,
Modern History,

General Jurisprudence,
The Laws of England.

2.—That the Examiners for the Moral Sciences Tripos be the Regius Professor of Law, the Professor of Moral Philosophy, the Professor of Modern History, the Downing Professor of the Laws of England, the Professor of Political Economy, together with one additional Examiner to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and appointed by Grace of the Senate; and in case any of the above-mentioned Professors be prevented from examining in any year, Deputies to examine instead of them shall

<sup>1</sup> The Report of the Syndicate says, "The Syndicate admitting the superiority of the study of Mathematics and Classics over all others as the basis of General Education, and acknowledging therefore the wisdom of adhering to our present system in its main features, are nevertheless of opinion that much good would result from affording greater encouragement to the pursuit of various other branches of Science and Learning which are daily acquiring more importance and a higher estimation in the world, and for the teaching of which the University already possesses the necessary means."

be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and appointed by Grace of the Senate.

3.—That the Examination for the Moral Sciences Tripos shall commence on the 2nd Monday after the general admission ad respondendum quæstioni and shall continue four days.

4.—That all Students who shall have passed the Examinations and kept the Exercises required for the Degree of Bachelor of Civil Law, or of Bachelor of Physic, or who shall have passed the Examinations entitling to admission ad respondendum quæstioni, may be Candidates for Honors in the Moral Sciences Tripos next succeeding such Examinations.

5.—That the Candidates for Honors in the Moral Sciences Tripos whom the Examiners shall deem worthy of an honor shall be arranged by them in three Classes, the places being determined by estimating the aggregate merits of each Candidate in all the Subjects of the Examination: and that in these Classes, marks of distinction shall be affixed to the names of such of the Candidates as have shewn eminent proficiency in particular subjects.

6.—That the first Examination for the Moral Sciences Tripos, under the Regulations now proposed, shall take place in the year 1851.

PROGRAMME OF PROFESSORS' LECTURES WITH SUBSIDIARY REGULATIONS.

The Professors charged with the execution of the Regulations respecting the Moral Sciences Tripos, the Natural Sciences Tripos, and the Professorial condition for the ordinary degree of B.A., have, for the purpose of carrying into effect the intentions of the University as expressed in those Regulations, agreed upon the following Subsidiary Regulations; which they have drawn up with a careful regard to the existing customs of the University, and with a view of providing for some uniformity in the number of Lectures, pecuniary terms, and mode of requiring the attendance of Students in the courses of different Professors.

1. That the attendance at any course of Lectures, required as a condition of a Professor's Certificate (according to Grace A) be not less than twenty, and not more than twenty-five Lectures; it being understood that the Professor may make allowance for cases of unavoidable absence.

2. That Lecture Tickets, not transferable, be delivered by the Registrar to all Undergraduates who apply for them, directly or through their College Tutors: these Tickets being of two kinds; namely, Special Tickets, delivered on payment of three guineas each, and admitting the person thereon named to the Lectures of some one Professor in one or more years; and General Tickets, delivered on payment of five guineas each, and admitting the person thereon named to any one or more of the courses of Professors' Lectures, in the same or different years; and that a Professor's Certificate be not given to any Undergraduate who has not provided himself with one or other of such Tickets.

N.B. These regulations refer only to the attendance at Professors' Lectures required by Grace A. The attendance at the Lectures of Professors on the part of persons wishing to take a degree in the Faculties of Law or Medicine, will continue to be regulated by Graces already in operation, and by the Professors concerned therewith. The full courses required by Grace for such degrees being fifty Lectures, will generally occupy two terms; and for these two terms, the regulations (as to fees) made for those proceedings in the Faculties may be different from those here stated.

The terms of attendance of persons not requiring Certificates will, as hitherto, be regulated by the Professors severally.

It is understood that the Professors may admit gratuitously to their Lectures persons recommended by the Tutors, in such cases as have hitherto been customary.

26 REGULATIONS FOR PROFESSORS' LECTURES.

3. The sum raised according to Article 2 shall be distributed in the following manner:—the Registry shall retain a shilling of every guinea; and, after providing for the expense of the Lecture Tickets, the residue shall be divided (for the present) into sixteen shares; two of these shares shall be given to the Professors of Anatomy, Chemistry, and the Jacksonian Professor, in consideration of their expenses in apparatus and preparations; and one share to each of the other ten Professors named in Grace A.

4. It is understood that the Graces establishing the Moral Sciences Tripos and the Natural Sciences Tripos, allow the Examiners to arrange the names in each of the three Classes of Honors alphabetically; this arrangement not precluding the Examiners from marking which candidate is first, second, &c. in any special subject, as directed by the Graces.

5. Each of the certifying Professors shall hold an Examination, before the end of two Terms after each course of Lectures, for the purpose of granting Certificates to those who deserve them: and it shall be provided, by communication among the Professors, that the amount of the difficulties which the Candidate is required to surmount by each Professor be not very different.

6. The answers given in writing by the Candidates (both in the two new Tripos Examinations, and in the ordinary Professors' Examination) shall be kept by the Registry for at least one year, and shall be accessible to members of the Senate by an order of the Vice-Chancellor.

REGULATIONS FOR THE NATURAL SCIENCES TRIPOS, ADOPTED BY THE SENATE, OCT. 31, 1848.

1.—That a New Honor Tripos be established, to be called The Natural Sciences Tripos, the places in which shall be determined by an Examination in the following subjects:

Anatomy,	Chemistry,
Comparative Anatomy,	Botany,
Physiology,	Geology,

Mineralogy, excluding the Mathematical part of Crystallography.

2.—That the Examiners for the Natural Sciences Tripos be the Regius Professor of Physic, the Professor of Chemistry, the Professor of Anatomy, the Professor of Botany, the Woodwardian Professor of Geology, the Professor of Mineralogy, together with one additional Examiner to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and appointed by Grace of the Senate; and in case any of the above-mentioned Professors be prevented from examining in any year, Deputies to examine instead of them shall be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and appointed by Grace of the Senate.

3.—That the Examination for the Natural Sciences Tripos shall commence on the 6th Monday after the general admission ad respondendum questioni and shall continue four days.

4.—That all Students who shall have passed the Examinations and kept the Exercises required for the Degree of Bachelor of Civil Law, or of Bachelor of Physic, or who shall have passed the Examinations entitling to admission ad respondendum questioni, may be Candidates for Honors in the Natural Sciences Tripos next succeeding such Examinations.

5.—That the Candidates for Honors in the Natural Sciences Tripos whom the Examiners shall deem worthy of an honor shall be arranged by them in three Classes, the places being determined by estimating the aggregate merits of each Candidate in all the Subjects of the Examination: and that in these Classes, marks of distinction shall be affixed to the names of such of the Candidates as have shewn eminent proficiency in particular subjects.

6.—That the first Examination for the Natural Sciences Tripos, under the Regulations now proposed, shall take place in the year 1851.

'FIRST TRIPOS DAY.

ON the day after Ash-Wednesday, at one o'clock, the bell rings for the first Tripos.

At two, the Vice-Chancellor and the Proctors meet in the vestry of Great St Mary's Church.

The whole company then proceed to the Law Schools; the Vice-Chancellor, preceded by a Bedell, goes into the gallery; the Senior Proctor with a Bedell into the Respondent's seat, and the Junior Proctor into the Opponent's seat.

The Tripos papers containing the names of the Wranglers and Senior Optimes of the year, and two copies of verses, written by two undergraduates whom the Proctors choose to honor on this occasion, are distributed among the undergraduates and the company present.

A Bedell reads from a Tripos paper :

Baccalaurei quibus sua reservatur Senioritas Comitibus prioribus.

He then pronounces the name and College of the Senior Wrangler, to which the Junior Proctor answers :

Nos reservamus ei Senioritatem suam.

To the second the Junior Proctor answers, et ei, and so on to all the names on the Tripos paper.

When all the names are read, the Junior Proctor says :

SECOND TRIPOS DAY.

THE second Tripos is on the Thursday after Midlent Sunday; the bell begins to ring at one. The Moderators, dressed in the Proctors' Congregation habits, meet the Vice-Chancellor in the vestry of Great St Mary's church at two o'clock, and from thence proceed to the Law Schools. The Vice-Chancellor, preceded by a Bedell, goes into the gallery; the Senior Moderator, with a Bedell, into the Respondent's seat; and the Junior Moderator into the Opponent's seat.

The Tripos papers, containing a list of the Junior Optimes of the year, and two copies of verses, written by two undergraduates at the request of the Moderators, are then distributed amongst the undergraduates and company present.

He then reads the name and College of the first Bachelor, and the Junior Moderator answers, Nos reservamus ei Senioritatem suam.

To the second, the Junior Moderator answers, et ei, and so on, as in the first Tripos.

When all the names have been read he says :

And lastly, Auctoritate quâ fungimur, decernimus, creamus et pronunciamus omnes hujus anni determinatores, finaliter determinasse, ET ACTUALITER ESSE IN ARTIBUS BACCALAUREOS.

A Bachelor of Arts remains of that degree for two years and a half. He is in statu pupillari: and, if resident in the University, he attends the Lectures of the Professors, or is engaged in private Study, or in private Tuition.

INCEPTORS IN ARTS, ON THE DAY AFTER THE SECOND TRIPOS.

AN Inceptor must be a B.A. of the third year from completion of that degree.

On the Friday morning following the second Tripos, there is a Congregation ex Statuto.

The Caput is called, and the several Fathers deliver to the Vice-Chancellor the Supplicats of the Candidates.

Graces of Inceptors who are Fellows of King's, are not presented to the Caput, but merely shewn to the Vice-Chancellor, and read in the Regent House only.

These Inceptors are admitted to their degree at the same Congregation.

The Registry having shewed to the Caput, that each Inceptor has subscribed to the 36th Canon, the Vice-Chancellor reads the Supplicats, and writes Ad. on all that are approved.

The Bedell takes them into the Non-Regent House, where they are read by the Senior Scrutator; and then into the Regent House, where they are read by the Senior Proctor.

Previously to the second Congregation, the Bedells have written the Names and Colleges of all the Inceptors on a sheet of paper, and against every one,

 { non placet..... —

At the bottom of the paper is written,

 { non placent ..... —

At the Second Congregation the Supplicats are carried to the Scrutators, to be read a second time in the Non-Regent House.

When all have been read, a Bedell calls ad Scrutinium.

If all be approved, the two Scrutators and another Non-Regent mark the affirmative line against the word placent, whilst the Bedell calls at intervals, Ad Scrutinium secundo—Ad Scrutinium ultimo—cessatum est a Scrutinio.

The Senior Scrutator then says, omnes placent.

But if any Supplicat be objected to, by one or more persons saying non placet when that Supplicat is read, the Scrutators must take the votes by placet and non placet.

If the non placets be greater than, or equal to, the placets in number, the Supplicat is lost: and the Senior Scrutator says, A. non placet: reliqui placent.

If more than one person's Supplicat be objected to, the votes for each, in which an objection is made, must be taken in the same manner.

The Bedell takes the Supplicats to be read in the Regent House by the Senior Proctor; and they are put to the vote precisely in the same manner as in the Non-Regent House, the Vice-Chancellor and the two Proctors standing in Scrutiny.

The Senior Proctor (the Junior standing by him) pronounces the Scrutiny by saying omnes placent, or, (if any one have been rejected) A. non placet: reliqui placent.

The Vice-Chancellor then dissolves the Congregation.

ADMISSION OF INCEPTORS IN ARTS (M.A.)

THE Congregation for this purpose is on the Friday following at ten o'clock.

The Bedells have prepared a Scrutiny paper in the following form:—

A.	{	scio .....	—
		credo .....	—
		nescio .....	—
B.	{	scio .....	—
		credo .....	—
		nescio .....	—

At the bottom is written,

omnes {	scio .....	—
	credo .....	—
	nescio .....	—

As soon as the Senate is assembled, the Proctors go to their place, and the Senior reads from a paper prepared by the Registrar:

Placeat Vobis, ut omnes Inceptores, quibus Gratia à vobis nuper concessa fuit ad visitandum, bonâ vestrâ cum veniâ, intrent.

When this is granted, a Bedell desires the Fathers to assemble their respective Sons, who have previously received copies of their Admission Oath from the School-keeper, and have put on the Bachelor's hood over the Bachelor's gown.

The Senior Father, following the Bedell presents four or five of his Sons at a time, (holding their right hands in his own) to the Vice-Chancellor sitting in the chair, in these words:

Dignissime Domine, Domine Pro-Cancellarie, et tota Universitas, præsentamus tibi hos viros, quos scio, tam moribus, quam doctrinâ esse idoneos ad incipiendum in Artibus; idque tibi fide meâ præsto, totique Academiæ.

The rest of the Fathers, according to their Seniority, present their Sons, in the same form; and as they are presented they go to the south side of the Senate-House. When all have been presented, they take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the Oath of Admission is administered to them by the Senior Proctor.

Jurabis, quod nihil ex iis omnibus sciens volens prætermisisti, quæ per Leges aut probatas Consuetudines hujus Academiæ ad hunc Gradum, quem ambis adipiscendum, aut peragenda aut persolvendu requiruntur ; nisi quatenus per Gratiam ab Academiâ concessam tecum dispensatum fuerit.

Jurabis etiam, quod Cancellario et Procancellario nostro comiter obtemperabis: et quod Statuta nostra, Ordinationes, et Consuetudines approbatas observabis.

Denique jurabis, quod Compositionem inter Academiam et Collegium Regale factam sciens volens non violabis : Et quod in Bibliothecam publicam et Museum Honoratissimi Domini Vice-Comitis Fitzwilliam admissus, jure isto tuo ita uteris, ut, quantum in te est, nihil inde detrimenti capiat vel Bibliotheca, vel Museum prædictum: in hæc autem verba jurabis, secundum tenorem Senatus-consulti in cautelum jurantium facti.

The Vice-Chancellor and Proctors then stand in scrutiny of

{	scio .....	—
	credo .....	—
	nescio .....	—

and if the Scrutators be unanimous in approving all the Candidates, they mark either the scio or credo line.

Then one of the Bedells precedes the Candidates round the chair, and in passing they bow to the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors.

The Bedell calls the name of each Inceptor.

The Inceptor then kneels down before the Vice-Chancellor, who, taking both his hands between his own, admits him in the following words:

Auctoritate mihi commissâ admitto te ad incipiendum in Artibus, in nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritûs Sancti.

If on the incepting day there be any Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts, who were of sufficient standing to have taken their degree before the incepting day, they are to be admitted at the second Congregation, observing the same forms as the Inceptors.

Degrees of NOBLEMEN, and of those who proceed to their Degrees 'tanquam Nobiles.'

By an interpretation made May 31, 1786, it was determined that the following persons are entitled to Honorary Degrees: viz.

1. Privy Counsellors.
2. Bishops.
3. Noblemen:—Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Viscounts, Barons.
4. Sons of Noblemen.
5. Persons related to the Sovereign by consanguinity or affinity: provided they be also Honourable.
6. The eldest sons of such persons.
7. Baronets, }
8. Knights, } to the degree of M.A. only.

By a Grace of the Senate, passed March 18, 1825, all the above persons (before they are admitted to any degree) are to be "examined and approved" of, in the same manner as others who are admitted ad Respondendum Quæstioni; but they have the privilege of being examined after they have kept nine Terms, the first and last excepted. They are then entitled to the degree of Master of Arts.

Though no person can claim a degree in right of Nobility, who has not previously undergone the usual examination, yet the University sometimes confers degrees, without either examination or residence, on such individuals of mature age, as are illustrious, not on account of their birth only, but also for the services they have rendered to the State, or to Literature.

No person taking a degree in right of Nobility, is entitled to a vote, unless he shall previously have resided three Terms.

PROCEEDINGS IN DIVINITY<sup>1</sup>.

PLAN of THEOLOGICAL EXAMINATION for Students who shall have been admitted ad respondendum quæstioni.

1. IN the first or second week of the Michaelmas Term of each year, there shall be an Examination in the Greek Testament, assigned portions of the Early Fathers, Ecclesiastical History, the Articles of Religion and the Liturgy of the Church of England; which Examination shall be open to all students who, having at any time been admitted ad respondendum quæstioni in conformity with the preceding Regulations, shall present themselves to be examined.

2. The Examination shall be conducted by the Regius and Lady Margaret Professors of Divinity; or, in case of the illness or unavoidable absence of either or both of them, by some Member or Members of the Senate, nominated by either or both of the Professors, and confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

3. The names of those students, who shall have passed their Examination to the satisfaction of the Examiners, shall be published in alphabetical order, and registered in the usual manner.

4. Immediately after each such Examination, a portion of the Hebrew Scriptures shall form the subject of a new Examination, for such students as, having their names published as above mentioned, shall offer themselves to be examined.

5. The Examination in the Hebrew Scriptures shall be conducted by the Regius Professor of Hebrew; or, in case of his illness or absence, by some Member of the Senate, nominated by him, and confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

6. The names of the students, who shall have passed their Examination in the Hebrew Scriptures to the satisfaction of the Examiner, shall be published and registered in the manner already described.

7. Public notice of the days of Examination, and also of the portions of the Early Fathers and of the Hebrew Scriptures, assigned for the aforesaid examinations in the Michaelmas Term of any year, shall be given in the first week of the Lent Term immediately preceding.

<sup>1</sup> All Masters of Arts who do not declare for Law or Physic within four years after the completion of their M.A. degree, are considered as belonging to the Divinity line, and are not allowed to proceed either in Law or Physic.

THAT all persons who present themselves for Examination at the Theological Examination, established by Grace of the Senate, May 11, 1842, be required to produce a Certificate of having attended the Lectures delivered during one Term, at least, by two of the three Theological Professors, viz. the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Margaret Professor of Divinity, and the Norrisian Professor of Divinity.

That this Regulation shall first come into operation at the Theological Examination in the Michaelmas Term 1850; but that it shall not be obligatory on Candidates either admitted ad respondendum quæstioni, or having completed the Exercises for the degree of B.C.L., before January 1, 1850.

This Examination will be open to students in the Civil Law on producing Certificates from the Regius Professor of the Civil Law, or his Deputy, of their having performed the Exercises required for the degree of Bachelor in that Faculty.

Those who intend to take HOLY ORDERS, will be required by several of the Bishops to have passed the above Examination.

BACHELOR OF DIVINITY (B.D.)

A Master of Arts must be of at least seven years' standing before he can be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity: for which degree the requisite Exercises are, one Act, two Opponencies, a Latin Sermon (Concio ad Clerum), and an English Sermon. The Act cannot be kept by a Master of Arts of less than four years' standing: the other Exercises may be kept at any time after the Degree of Master of Arts has been completed.

A Master of Arts, proceeding in this faculty, calls upon the Regius Professor of Divinity, for his approbation of the Question for his Act; on which Question a Latin Thesis must be written.

A second Question is given by the Professor; who also appoints the day on which the Act is to be kept.

A copy of these Questions is to be left with the Vice-Chancellor, the Senior Doctor in Divinity resident in the University, and the Regius Professor of Divinity.

Eight days, at least, before the Act is to be kept, three copies of the Questions are to be delivered to a Bedell, for the Opponents; and one copy to the University Marshal, to be affixed to the School-doors.

The Act commences, in the Divinity Schools, a quarter before two o'clock. The Professor having addressed the Respondent with the words "Agas Domine"—the Respondent begins with the following prayer:

Actiones nostras singulas, Domine, clementissimo tuo favore præveni, et perpetuo auxilio proseguere, ut in omnibus operibus nostris in te inceptis, continuatis et finitis, sanctum tuum nomen glorificemus, et tandem miseratione tuâ vitam æternam consequamur per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

<sup>1</sup> A full account of the means of Theological Instruction afforded by the University will be found in a Report printed in the Calendars for 1844 and 1845.

The Respondent then states his two Questions; and reads a Thesis, which lasts about half an hour, upon the first. After this the Opponents are in succession called up by the Professor; who, at the close of the Disputation, reads a Determination upon the second Question.

The regular time for proceeding to this Degree, in the case of a Master of Arts of seven years' standing, is on the eleventh of June. Masters of Arts of more than seven years' standing may be admitted on other days. For this Degree two Congregations are required; at which the Candidate must be present, in his gown and cassock, and a black hood.

BACHELOR IN DIVINITY, by the 9th of ELIZABETH.

A person, having been admitted of any College after the age of twenty-four years, and having continued a member for ten years at the least, during the last two of which he has resided in College the greater part of three several Terms, may proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity. The Exercises to be performed in this case are precisely the same as those required of a Master of Arts. The Candidate is moreover examined by the Regius Professor of Divinity, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has complied with the provisions of the Statute, and actually devoted himself to the study of Theology.

It is recommended to all persons who intend to proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity under this statute, to call upon the Regius Professor of Divinity, at the commencement of their residence in the University, in order that due arrangements may be made for the performance of the requisite Exercises.

DOCTOR OF DIVINITY.

A Doctor in Divinity must be a Bachelor in Divinity of five, or a Master of Arts<sup>1</sup>, of twelve years' standing. The Exercises are one Act, two Opponencies, a Clerum, an English Sermon, and a Determination.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE CIVIL LAW<sup>2</sup>.

PREPARATORY to the Degree of Bachelor in the Civil Law, a student is obliged to pass the Previous Examination; to attend the Lectures of the Professor for the space of three terms; and to be examined by the Professor; and after four years' standing, and a residence of nine terms, he may keep his Act<sup>3</sup>. Prior to this exercise, he carries his Questions to the Vice-Chancellor for his approbation; after which they are affixed to the door of the Lecture-room under the Public Library.

At the expiration of six years, the Supplicat and the certificates of standing, residence, attendance on the Professor's Lectures, having declared for Law, and passed the Previous Examination, are presented to the Caput, and the Supplicat is afterwards read in both Houses. At the next Congregation, after the Supplicat has again been read, and approved in both Houses, the Candidate is admitted to the degree of Bachelor in the Civil Law.

<sup>1</sup> When a Master of Arts takes a Doctor's degree in any of the three faculties, he is said to graduate per saltum, though properly the phrase belongs only to the degree of D.D.

<sup>2</sup> See also the regulations of the Lectures of the Regius Professor of the Civil Law.

<sup>3</sup> Zouche's or Vinnius's Questions deserve to be consulted by a person preparing for this Act, as also the Commentaries of Vinnius and Voet.

REGULATIONS concerning an additional EXAMINATION BY A PROFESSOR, appointed as a Condition for the B. C. L. Degree by Grace, Oct. 31, 1848.

1. THAT all Students, who, being Candidates for the Degree of B. C. L., do not pass the Examinations for the First Class in that Faculty, shall, in addition to what is now required of them, have attended, before they be allowed to keep their Act, the Lectures delivered during one Term at least, by one or more of the following Professors :

Regius Professor of Physic,	Woodwardian Professor of Geology,
Professor of Moral Philosophy,	Jacksonian Professor of Natural and
Professor of Chemistry,	Experimental Philosophy,
Professor of Anatomy,	Downing Professor of Medicine,
Professor of Modern History,	Professor of Mineralogy,
Professor of Botany,	Professor of Political Economy ;

and shall have obtained a certificate of having passed an Examination satisfactory to one of the Professors whose Lectures they have chosen to attend.

2. That this Regulation shall apply to all Students answering the above descriptions who shall commence their Academical Residence in or after the Michaelmas Term of the year 1849.

A Bachelor of Arts of four years' standing may be admitted to this degree. His exercise is one Act, and he is not required to attend the Professor's Lectures.

Every Candidate for LL.B., or LL.D., pays to the Professor £7. 7s. for each Act.

A Doctor in the Civil Law must be of five years' standing from the degree of LL.B., or a Master of Arts of seven years' standing<sup>1</sup>. The exercises are two Acts and one Opponency.

PROCEEDINGS IN PHYSIC.

BACHELOR OF MEDICINE (M.B.)

A STUDENT before he can become a Bachelor of Physic must have entered on his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University (Stat. Reg.), have resided nine terms (Decree of Heads, 1684), and have passed the Previous Examination (Grace of the Senate, March, 1822).

A Bachelor of Arts may become a Bachelor of Physic after having entered on his sixth year, computed from the date of his first admission at the University, provided that one year at least has intervened between his final determination in Arts and his admission to the Degree of Bachelor of Physic (Graces, Dec. 1819, and June, 1821).

The Exercises for this Degree are one Act and one Opponency (Stat. Reg.).

Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Physic must, previously to the performance of these Exercises, in addition to the Examination by the Regius Professor of Physic, be examined by the Professors of Anatomy, Chemistry and Botany, and the Downing Professor of Medicine. The Examinations by the Professors of Chemistry and Botany, may take place in the fourth year after admission (Grace, May, 1847). The other part of the Examination may take place in the fifth year after admission, but not earlier, (Grace, Feb. 1829). They must have diligently attended the Lectures of the Regius Professor of Physic for two Terms, (Graces, June, 1821; April, 1841), and must bring to him Certificates of Examination by the above Professors, and of attendance on their Lectures, in case the Course of Lectures of the Professor of Botany consist of not less than twenty Lectures, and the Courses of Lectures of the Professors of Anatomy and Chemistry, and of the Downing Professor of Medicine, of not less than fifty Lectures each, (Grace, Feb. 1829). They must also deliver to the Regius Professor of Physic Certificates of having been diligently employed in attendance on Medical Lectures and the Practice of some well-known Hospital for two years, or for as long a time as they have been absent from the University during their Undergraduateship (Grace, March, 1834).

Every Candidate for the M.B. degree pays the Professor £7. for his Act.

If on or before the first of February in his fourth year, the candidate for LL.B. or M.B. does not declare, in writing, to the Master of his college, that it is not his intention to proceed to B.A. he forfeits £3. to the University Chest, over and above the usual fees; and if after this declaration he proceeds to B.A. he also pays £3. extra to the Senior Proctor.

LICENTIATE IN MEDICINE (L.M.)

A Licence ad practicandum in Medicina may be granted to a Bachelor of Physic in the term subsequent to that in which he has taken the Degree, (Grace, March, 1834); or to a Master of Arts of two years' standing.

Candidates for a Licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Bachelors of Physic, are required to produce to the Regius Professor of Physic Certificates of their having attended on Hospital practice for three years exclusive of the nine Terms which they kept by residence for the Degree of Bachelor of Physic, and of their having attended Lectures on the following subjects; namely;

Practice of Physic and Pathology.
Anatomy and Physiology.
Chemistry and Botany.
Medical Jurisprudence.
Materia Medica and Pharmacy.

Principles of Surgery.
Principles of Midwifery.
Practical Anatomy for two seasons.
(Grace, April, 1841.)

Candidates for a Licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Masters of Arts, are required to bring satisfactory evidence to the Regius Professor of Physic of their having been employed in the study of Physic for five years after they became Bachelors of Arts; and to produce to him Certificates of their having attended on Hospital practice for three of the said five years, and of their having attended Lectures on the subjects before mentioned. (Grace, April, 1841.)

Every Candidate for a Licence ad practicandum in Medicina is required to pass an Examination to the satisfaction of the Regius Professor of Physic, the Professor of Anatomy, the Downing Professor of Medicine, and a Doctor of Physic to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and approved by the Senate at the first Congregation after the tenth of October in each year. (Grace, April, 1841.)

There are two such Examinations in every year; one in the week immediately preceding that in which the division of the Michaelmas Term falls; the other in the week immediately preceding that in which the division of the Easter term falls (Grace, April, 1841.)

A Candidate for a Licence ad practicandum in Medicina, being previously Bachelor of Physic, cannot be examined for the said Licence until the Examination which shall occur next but one after his having passed the Examination required for the Degree of Bachelor of Physic. (Grace, April, 1841.)

A student who has declared for Law or Physic, may put on a full-sleeved gown, when those of the same year, who go out at the regular time, have taken their degree of Bachelor of Arts.

He is then styled a Harry-Soph (επισοφος).

DOCTOR IN MEDICINE (M.D.)

The Degree of Doctor of Physic is granted to a Bachelor of Physic of five years, or to a Master of Arts of seven years' standing.<sup>1</sup> (Stat. Reg.)

The Exercises for this Degree are two Acts and one Opponency. (Stat. Reg.)

Every Candidate for the Degree of Doctor of Physic, who has not previously obtained a Licence ad practicandum in Medicina, is required to produce to the Regius Professor of Physic the same Certificates and pass the same Examination as are required in the case of Candidates for a Licence ad practicandum in Medicina. (Grace, April, 1841.)

PROCEEDINGS IN MUSIC.

A Bachelor in Music (Mus. B.) must enter his name in some College, and compose and perform a solemn piece of music, as an exercise, before the University.

A Doctor in Music is generally Mus. B., and his exercise the same.

COMPOUNDERS.

ALL persons are reputed and reckoned Compounders, who, before admission to their degree, have presentation to, collation, institution, induction, or any manner of possession of, any Living or Livings Ecclesiastical, of what kind soever, which are rated (even though discharged) to the yearly value of £26. 13s. 4d. in the King's Books.

Every person, who is admitted to any degree, must, if he be a Compounder, pay over and above the usual fees, the sum of £8. 6s. 4d.

Endowed Chapels, or other Ecclesiastical preferment not in the King's Books, are rated according to their real value.

Also any estate, annuity, or certain income for life, by whatever tenure possessed (except University, or College income) whether in the person's own right, that of his wife, or any other person, if of the annual amount of £26. 13s. 4d. makes the holder a Compounder.

Ten-year men B.D. and persons taking a degree per saltum if Compounders, pay the Composition money for the degree, or degrees, passed over, as well as for that taken.

CAUTION FOR EXERCISES.

THE University Statutes require certain exercises to be performed for the several degrees, which are sometimes granted to non-gremials with the omission of part, or of the whole, but with this condition, that they shall be performed within the following Term. The party deposits, as a pledge, the undermentioned sums with the Vice-Chancellor, which, on non-performance of the exercises, are forfeited to the University Chest:

Sizar .....	10	0	0

The Caution Money remains in the hands of the Tutor, and is not returned till a person takes his name off the boards. Noblemen and Fellow-Commoners usually make a present of Plate to the College.

ADMISSION FEES.

IN addition to the Caution, every Student on admission, or coming into residence, makes a payment, differing at different Colleges.

MATRICULATION FEES.

By Graces of the Senate, it has been decreed that the Matriculation fees paid to the Registrary should be as follows:

Noblemen.....	£16	0	0	Pensioner .....	£5	10	0
Fellow-Commoner .....	11	0	0	Sizar.....	1	5	0

The above sums include fees to the University Chest, fees to the Registrary, and tax to Government.

On occasion of an extra Matriculation each person pays 10s. in addition.

COLLEGE PAYMENTS.

IN each College a quarterly payment is made by each Member of it, according to his degree and condition, on a scale which differs slightly in the several Colleges.

This payment includes the small annual contributions made to the University. These payments may be compounded for in several Colleges, subsequent to the degrees D.D., LL.D., M.D., B.D. and M.A.

TUITION.

THE quarterly payments of persons in statu pupillari in every College, are the following:

UNIVERSITY OFFICERS, &c.

CHANCELLORS.*

THE office of Chancellor is biennial, or tenable for such a length of time beyond two years as the tacit consent of the University may choose to allow. The election of a Chancellor must be within fourteen days after the vacancy—and is, more burgensium. At the time of election, the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, and the junior D.D. present, stand in scrutiny, (in failure of the latter, the junior LL.D., and in the absence of such, the junior M.D.) and first write their votes. All members of the Senate then bring their votes written in the same form, and the Senior Proctor pronounces the election.

ELECTED.

- 1688 Charles, Duke of Somerset, Trinity.
- 1748 Thomas-Holles, Duke of Newcastle, Clare-Hall.
- 1768 Augustus-Henry, Duke of Grafton, M.A. St Peter's.
- 1811 His Royal Highness William-Frederick, Duke of Gloucester, D.C.L. Trinity.
- 1834 John Jefferies, Marquis Camden, LL.D. Trinity.
- 1840 Hugh-Percy, Duke of Northumberland, F.R.S. LL.D. St John's.
- 1847 HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ALBERT, LL.D. Trinity.

HIGH STEWARDS.

The election is by a Grace of the Senate.

ELECTED.

- 1721 Arthur, Earl of Anglesea, Magdalene.
- 1737 Thomas-Holles, Duke of Newcastle, Clare-Hall.
- 1749 Philip, Lord Hardwicke, D.C.L. Lord Chancellor, Corpus.
- 1764 Philip, Earl of Hardwicke, D.C.L. Corpus.
- 1790 Right Hon. William Pitt, M.A. Pembroke.
- 1806 Philip, Earl of Hardwicke, M.A. Queens'.
- 1834 Hugh-Percy, Duke of Northumberland, F.R.S. LL.D. St John's.
- 1840 JOHN SINGLETON COPLEY, LORD LYNDHURST, LL.D. Trinity.

VICE-CHANCELLORS.

The election of a Vice-Chancellor always takes place on the 4th of November. The morning previous to election, the Heads of Colleges meet in the Senate-House, to nominate and prick two persons. And on the following day the election of one of them is determined by the votes of the Senate.

ELECTED.

- 1814 George Thackeray, D.D. King's.
- 1815 John Kaye, D.D. Christ's.

- 1848 H. Wilkinson Cookson, D.D. Peter's.
- 1849 JAMES CARTMELL, D.D. Christ's.

REPRESENTATIVES IN PARLIAMENT.

JAMES I., by his Charter in the first year of his reign, granted power to the Chancellors, Masters, and Scholars of the two Universities, to elect and return two persons in each, to represent them in Parliament. Whenever there is a vacancy in the representation, the Sheriff sends the precept to the Vice-Chancellor; and the election, of which the Vice-Chancellor gives four days' notice at least, is to be within eight days from the receipt of it. At the time of election, the two Proctors, and the junior D.D. present, stand in scrutiny with the Vice-Chancellor, who is the returning officer. The members of the Senate then give their votes in writing, and a majority of such determines the election.

ELECTED.

Hon. Charles Ewan Law, M.A. John's.
1847 Rt. Hon. H. Goulburn, M.A. Trinity.
Hon. Charles Ewan Law, M.A. John's.

COMMISSARIES.

THE Commissaries are appointed by Letters Patent under the hand and seal of the Chancellor.

1824 J. F. Pollock, M.A. Trinity.

PROCTORS.

Two Colleges are every year to nominate persons for Proctors in the order prescribed in a cycle of 51 years; in which time, King's, Trinity, and St John's Colleges have each of them eleven turns; St Peter's, Christ's, Queens', and Pembroke, seven each; Clare Hall, six; Corpus Christi, Jesus, Caius, Magdalene, Emmanuel, and Sidney, five each; Catharine Hall, four; and Trinity Hall, one. Each of the two Colleges nominates one person. The person nominated may be a Regent or Non-Regent Master of Arts. If he be a Regent he must be in the third year of his Regency at least.

He must be presented to the Vice-Chancellor, in the presence of the Registry, by the head of his College, or by some one in his name, before the 1st day of August.

If any one who has been presented should die, or refuse the office, or be found incapacitated, before the 10th of October following, the Heads of colleges nominate two persons to be offered to the Senate, one of whom is to be elected. The same course is observed in case any college neglects to present in due time.

If the office becomes vacant before the expiration of the year, Trinity Hall presents a Proctor for the remainder.

The Proctors are elected on the 10th of October, by the Regents only.

TAXORS.

ACCORDING to the decree, by which the cycle of Proctors, now in use, was established, the several Colleges are to present persons to be Taxors in the year immediately following that in which they have presented to the Proctorship. They may be either Regent or Non-Regent Masters of Arts; but by their office they are Regents during the year. They are to be presented to the Vice-Chancellor by the Masters of their colleges, or by others in their names, before the 1st of September immediately preceding the election. Presentation, &c., the same as the Proctors; and in case of a vacancy, the like rule is observed. The election of Taxors takes place on the 10th of October, and the Regents only are the Electors.

LADY MARGARET'S PROFESSOR OF DIVINITY.

AN election to this Professorship, founded 1502, by LADY MARGARET, mother of Henry VII., is to be every two years. The Professor is to be chosen on the last day of Easter Term, and his two years are to commence from the next following feast of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary, (Sept. 8). When the Lectureship becomes vacant, the same person may be re-elected, but this ceremony is generally dispensed with, and the Professor continues in his office as before. When, however, an election does occur, the electors are, the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, Doctors, Inceptors, and Bachelors in Divinity, who have been Regents in Arts. Lady Margaret's stipend was 20 marks per annum. Augmented by James I. with the rectorial tithes of Terrington, Norfolk.

PROFESSOR BLUNT'S LECTURES.

THE present Professor's Lectures are prepared with a reference to the Voluntary Theological Examination:

They are, 'On the Use of the Fathers;' the subject so treated, as to furnish an account in detail drawn from the Early Fathers, of the circumstances, structure, discipline, and doctrine of the Church of the first three centuries:

On the particular Father selected for the Voluntary Theological Examination of the year:

On the Liturgy of the Church of England:

And on the acquirements, principal obligations, and duties of the Parish Priest.

PROFESSOR MAINE'S LECTURES.

THE Lectures on the Civil and English Law commence in the Michaelmas Term, and are continued during the Lent and Easter Terms. Notice is always previously given of the exact day of commencement. It is desirable, though not absolutely necessary, that persons desirous of proceeding in the Law Faculty should begin their attendance in the Michaelmas Term.

Those Law Students who proceed to the Law Degree are required by the Professor to pass at least two examinations in successive Terms. Candidates for the first class must pass three examinations in three successive Terms, the first of these taking place in the Easter, the second in the Michaelmas, and the third in the Lent Term. This order of examinations will not be changed or inverted, unless special cause be shown.

The matter of each examination is always co-extensive with the substance of the Lectures delivered in the Term next but one preceding the examination in question. Thus the subjects of the examination in the Easter Term are always those of the Lectures in the October Term preceding, and so on.

The University requirements for the Law Degree are, attendance at the Professor's Lectures for three Terms, and the keeping a Law Act. This Act may be kept in or after the ninth Term of residence<sup>1</sup>.

The Lectures generally follow the order of subjects observed in Hallifax's Analysis. The Lectures<sup>2</sup> are delivered in the Law School.

The Class List is published at Commencement. The names, distributed into three classes, are arranged, as regards the first two classes, according to the merit displayed in the examinations and the Law Act. In the third class, the arrangement of names is alphabetical.

1764 E. Law, D.D. Peter's.	1838 W. Whewell, D.D. Trin.
1769 R. Plumtre, D.D. Queens'.

DR WHEWELL'S LECTURES.

THE present Professor has in each of the past years of his office given a course of Lectures. The subjects of these Lectures have been, the History of Moral Philosophy, particularly as it appears in Plato, Aristotle, and modern English writers; and Systematic Morality.

In future, the Lectures will have reference to the Examination for the Moral Sciences Tripos; and in them will be given an account of the books which are recommended with reference to that Examination. The Examination in Moral Philosophy will require from the Candidates both a knowledge of the subject in general, and also a special acquaintance with certain books selected for each year, of which selection notice will be given in the Lectures. The special subjects selected for the Examination in 1851 are the following.

Plato. Charmides. Protagoras. Republic, B. I.

Aristotle. Nicomachean Ethics.

Cicero. De Finibus.

Grotius. De Jure Belli et Pacis, B. I.

Stewart's Outlines of Moral Philosophy.

CHEMISTRY.

FOUNDED by the UNIVERSITY, 1702.

THE Professors, previous to the year 1773, were elected by a Grace of the Senate; but there being several competitors for the office at that time, this mode of election became impracticable; and, as it appeared that no adequate provision had been made for such cases, it was decided that the election should, on that occasion, be "more burgensium:" by a Grace dated 24th October, 1793, it was determined that all subsequent elections to this Professorship should be in the same manner.

The salary is £100 per annum, which is paid by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on exhibiting a certificate of the delivery of a Course of Lectures.

It appears, by the Graces appointing the first Professors, that a house and apparatus were attached to this Professorship: but there is now no house nor apparatus exclusive of what is the private property of the Professor.

PROFESSOR CUMMING'S LECTURES.

A COURSE of Thirty Lectures, on the general principles of Chemistry, is given during the Lent Term, in the Schools in the Botanical Garden; and Twenty Lectures, principally on Organic Chemistry, during the Easter Term, in the rooms recently added to the north end of the same building.

The Medical Students are required to attend these Lectures under the same regulations as those of the Anatomical Professor.

ASTRONOMY AND EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

THE Candidates may be bachelors, married men, Englishmen (Nostrates), or Foreigners. The election is not to be before the thirtieth, nor protracted beyond the sixtieth day after the schedule is affixed. The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Masters of Trinity, Christ's and Caius colleges, and the Lucasian Professor. If any of the Masters be Vice-Chancellor, the Master of St John's acts in his stead. Founded by Dr PLUME, Archdeacon of Rochester, 1704.

This Professorship was endowed with the rent of an estate situated at Balsham. The stipend was increased by the bequest of Dr Smith; £50 per annum being left by him to the Plumian Professor, on condition of an examination for Smith's Prizes being annually made. The late Professor having represented to the University, that the income of the Professorship offered no adequate remuneration for the increased labours occasioned by the superintendence of the Observatory, a Grace of the Senate was passed Feb. 27, 1829, for granting annually to the Professor from the Common Chest (by Grace), such a sum as would raise the income of the Professorship to £500 per annum.

1707 Roger Cotes, M.A. Trinity.
 1716 R. Smith, M.A. Trinity.
 1760 A. Shepherd, M.A. Christ's.
 1796 S. Vince, M.A. Caius.

1822 R. Woodhouse, M.A. Caius.
 1828 G. B. Airy, M.A. Trinity.
 1836 James Challis, M.A. Trinity.

PROFESSOR CHALLIS'S LECTURES.

THE Plumian Professor will in future lecture only on Practical Astronomy, the subjects of Hydrostatics and Optics being undertaken by the Lucasian Professor. The object of the Lectures is to describe the parts and uses of Astronomical Instruments, and the methods of observing, and to prove and exemplify the mathematical formulæ required in the reduction of observations. In the course of the Lectures the Instruments of the Cambridge Observatory are described to the Class in the observing rooms. The Lectures will be given in the Lent Term.

ANATOMY.

At the period of election, the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, and the junior Doctor in Divinity present, stand in scrutiny: in failure of the latter, the junior LL.D., and in the absence of such, the junior M.D. All members of the Senate have votes, and the majority of such decide the election. Founded by the UNIVERSITY, 1707. Salary, £100 per annum.

DR CLARK'S LECTURES ON HUMAN ANATOMY.

THE course consists of at least fifty Lectures, which are delivered in the Anatomical School in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms (after the division of each), between the hours of one and two. The terms of attendance are Five Guineas for each of two courses: afterwards gratis.

These Lectures (a certificate of attendance on which, provided they amount to fifty in number, is required by the Senate from Candidates for medical degrees,) explain the general and special Anatomy of the human body, together with the principles of Physiology.

The pupils have the opportunity of dissecting in private.

LECTURES ON COMPARATIVE ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY.

In accordance with the Regulations of the "Natural Sciences Tripos" a course, consisting of twenty-four Lectures, on Comparative Anatomy and Physiology, is delivered in the Anatomical School on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at One o'clock, during the October Term.

Members of the University who have not a General Ticket of admission to the Lectures of the Professors, may attend the above Lectures on payment of Two Guineas for each Course.

MODERN HISTORY.

THE Professor is appointed by the Queen, and holds the Professorship during pleasure. He must either be a Master of Arts, Bachelor in the Civil Law, or of a superior degree. Founded by GEORGE I. 1724. Salary, £400. per annum.

BOTANY.

THIS Professorship was founded by the University in 1724. A Salary of £100 was allowed by Government, on condition of a course of Lectures being annually delivered, as in the case of the Professorships of Anatomy, Chemistry, &c. Government afterwards increased the Salary to £200, and made the Professorship a Patent office.

PROFESSOR HENSLOW'S LECTURES.

It has been decreed, by a Grace of the Senate, that if the Professor should deliver a course consisting of not less than twenty Lectures, the students in Medicine shall be required to obtain a certificate of their having attended them. These Lectures are delivered during the Easter Term. The Professor occasionally makes herborizing excursions with his class, in the neighbourhood of Cambridge.

GEOLOGY.

THIS Professorship was founded by Dr WOODWARD, in the year 1727; and on January 31, 1731-2 the four executors of the Founder's will appointed Dr Conyers Middleton the first Professor. After their decease the election was vested in the members of the Senate; in addition to whom the following persons were allowed, by the express direction of the Founder's will, to give their votes by proxy, viz. the Chancellor of the University, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Ely, the President of the Royal Society, the President of the College of Physicians, and the Members for the University.

ASTRONOMY AND GEOMETRY.

THIS Professorship is in the appointment of the Lord High Chancellor, the Lord President of the Privy Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Lord High Treasurer, and the Lord Steward of the Queen's Household. Founded by THOMAS LOWNDES, Esq. 1749. Salary, an estate about £300 per annum.

1771 John Smith, D.D. Caius.

1795 W. Lax, M.A. Trinity.
1836 <sup>3</sup> George Peacock, M.A. Trinity.

PROFESSOR PEACOCK'S LECTURES.

THESE Lectures are given in the October Term, and the object proposed by them, is to make students acquainted with the present state of the science of Astronomy, and the theory of the processes followed for the purpose of determining the places of the fixed stars, the periodical or other changes to which they are subject, the elements of the planetary system, and relation of Astronomy with Geography and Navigation: the theory of astronomical instruments, which they formerly comprehended, has since been transferred to the lectures of the Plumian Professor, to whose province they more properly belong. As this Professorship was designed by the Founder to comprehend Geometry as well as Astronomy, it is proposed to give alternately with Lectures on Astronomy, others on Geometry and the general principles of Mathematical reasoning.

DIVINITY.

(Mr NORRIS'S.)

THE Stewards of this institution are, the Master of Trinity, the Provost of King's, and the Master or President of Caius. The candidates for this Professorship give a written notice to the three Stewards within the first fourteen days of November. The Stewards select two, and signify their names to the Heads of Houses on or before the first day of February next ensuing, and the election of one of the two nominated must be within the first fourteen days of the succeeding May. The electors must be a majority of ten Heads of Houses. The Professor may have been educated at either University, may be lay or clerical, but cannot be elected under his thirtieth, or re-elected after his sixtieth year. No person can continue in office longer than five years, but may be re-elected.—Founded by JOHN NORRIS, Esq. of Whitton in Norfolk, 1760. Salary, £105 per annum<sup>1</sup>.

In conformity with the Founder's directions, the Norrisian Professor of Divinity delivers fifty Lectures during the Michaelmas and Lent Terms, gratuitously, to those who have been matriculated or incorporated into the University, on three days in the week, at the Lecture-room under the Public Library. Candidates for Holy Orders are required to attend twenty Lectures in the same Term in order to obtain the Professor's certificate; and no Undergraduate is admitted to attend the Lectures, unless his name have beforehand been entered in a book kept for that purpose.

By the will of the Founder, the Professor is required to read or cause to be read during each course of fifty Lectures, certain portions of Bishop Pearson's Exposition of the Creed.

NATURAL AND EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

THIS Professor is to be chosen by those Regent Masters of Arts only who have been resident in the University for the greater part of the year previous to the day of election (excepting only such Masters of Arts as are under one year's standing, who may vote though they have not been resident for that term); which said Regent Masters, on notice assigned by the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity College, shall assemble on a day, and choose, within one month after such notice is received, by a majority of votes given in writing under the hand of each voter, and taken by the Proctors, such a person as appears best qualified in Natural and Experimental Philosophy and the practical part thereof, and in Chemistry. A member of Trinity College is to be preferred (cæteris paribus), next a Staffordshire, Warwickshire, Derbyshire, or Cheshire man. In cases of disputes about the majority of the electors, the same is to be determined by the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, and the Master of Trinity, or if either of the two latter be Vice-Chancellor, by the Master of St John's. Founded by the Rev. RICHARD JACKSON, M.A. 1783. Salary, £160 per annum.

<sup>1</sup> By Mr Norris's Will, a further sum of 18s. is bequeathed to be expended by the Professor in books, the New Testament, or the Great Importance of a Religious Life, to be given, through the hands of the Senior Proctor, to the prisoners either in the Town or County Prison.

PROFESSOR MILLER'S LECTURES.

A course of Lectures on Crystallography and Mineralogy is delivered during the Lent Term. These Lectures are given in the new Mineralogical Museum.

POLITICAL ECONOMY.

THE title of Professor of Political Economy was conferred by a Grace of the Senate, in May 1828, on George Pryme, Esq., A.M., late Fellow of Trinity College.

Lectures on this science had been given by him for some years previous, under the sanction of the University. They attempt to analyse the original and efficient causes of national prosperity—to shew by what measures of the Legislature, and by what conduct of individuals in private life, it is augmented or diminished—and to assist the reader of history in explaining the phenomena of the strength or weakness, the rise or fall, of States.

They are of an elementary and popular nature, requiring no previous knowledge of the subject. They are intended to facilitate the study of a science, hitherto inaccessible without the most arduous perseverance; to simplify the order, explain the obscurities, and point out the errors, of A. Smith's Inquiry into the Wealth of Nations; to combine with his discoveries what the experience of subsequent events, and the researches of subsequent authors, have taught, and to place some part of the subject in a point of view different from what any writer has done. Their plan is—1st, To trace the history of national wealth from the rudest to the richest state of society, and to examine each change as it naturally arises in the progress of opulence and civilization; 2dly, Briefly to explain the systems of the ancients, of Dr Paley, of the French economists, and what is called the commercial system; and 3dly, To explain the principles of taxation and finance.

They are usually given in the Michaelmas Term.

LADY MARGARET's PREACHER.

THIS preachership, value £10. per annum, was founded in 1503, and, according to the grant, is to be retained for only three years, but that practice is now dispensed with, and the preacher continues without a fresh election. When a vacancy does occur, an election must take place within fourteen days. The electors are the Vice-Chancellor and the Heads of Houses. Doctors, Inceptors, and Bachelors in Divinity, only are eligible to this office, and one of Christ's college is, cæteris paribus, to be preferred. The preacher is now required by his office to preach a Concio ad Clerum, before the University, on the day preceding Easter Term.

SADLERIAN LECTURES.

THE following seventeen Algebra Lectureships were founded by Lady Sadler, and the Lectures commenced in 1710.

The Lecturers, who are required to be Bachelors of Arts, at least, are severally nominated by the Masters of the respective colleges; are then examined and approved by the Plumian Professor; and before entering on the Lectureship, are required to subscribe a Declaration at Emmanuel Lodge, before the Master of that college, to the effect that they will diligently perform the duties of the office. The stipend of the Lecturer nominated by the Master of Emmanuel college is £60, and that of each of the other Lecturers is £40, per annum. Every Lecturer produces a certificate signed by the Master of his college, that the Lectures have been by him regularly given, before payment of the stipend, which is annually at Lady-day, at Emmanuel Lodge.

The Lectureships are tenable only for ten years.

MR HULSE'S FOUNDATIONS.

THE REV. JOHN HULSE was educated at St John's college, became Bachelor of Arts in 1728, and died in 1789, bequeathing his estates in Cheshire to the University for the advancement and reward of religious learning. The various purposes to which he appropriated the revenue of these estates, are—first, the maintenance of two Scholars at St John's college—secondly, to recompense the exertions of the Hulsean prizeman—thirdly, to found and support the office of Christian Advocate—and fourthly, that of the Hulsean Lecturer or Christian Preacher. The salaries of these offices vary according to the annual rent of Mr Hulse's estates, different proportions of which are set apart for each, the largest belonging to the Lecturer.

The trustees and electors of Mr Hulse's bequest are, the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, the Master of Trinity college, and the Master of St John's college. If the Master of Trinity or St John's be Vice-Chancellor, the Greek Professor supplies his place. The Bishop of Ely is visitor, with power to determine, in reason and equity, in all disputes<sup>1</sup>.

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Extract from MR HULSE's Will, dated July 21, 1777.

THE person to be elected into such office (on Christmas Day, or within seven days after, for a term not exceeding five or six years) to be a learned and ingenious person of the degree of Master of Arts, or of Bachelor or Doctor of Divinity of the age of 30 years, and resident in the University; who is to compose yearly, whilst in office, some proper and judicious answer or answers every year, to all such new and popular, or other cavils and objections, against the Christian or revealed religion, or against the religion of nature, as may, in the opinion of the trustees, or any two of them, seem best or most proper to deserve or require an answer, whether the same be ancient or modern objections, but chiefly such as are most modern, and especially such as have appeared in the English language of late years against Christianity, and which may not seem to have received a full and sufficient answer, if any such there shall be, unto the year preceding his election; as likewise to be ready to satisfy any real scruples or objections in a private way, that may be brought from time to time by any fair and candid enquirer against the same: such writer to be called the Christian Advocate, and such his written answers to be in English, and only against notorious infidels, whether atheists or deists, not descending to any particular controversies or sects among Christians themselves, except some new or dangerous error, either of superstition or enthusiasm, as of popery or methodism, either in opinion or practice, shall prevail: in which case only it may be necessary for that time to write or reason against the same; and such treatise or treatises to be every year printed, the expense whereof shall be deducted out of the temporary stipend or salary: and the remainder of the said stipend or salary, or rents and profits, shall be paid or given every year to the several authors successively as a reward for the same; but if the person chosen into the said office shall neglect or not discharge his office as he ought to do, he is to forfeit and lose his salary for that year, which is, in such case, to be equally divided between the six senior fellows of St John's college.

The Christian Advocate is not afterwards eligible to the office of Hulsean Lecturer.

of Downing.

HULSEAN LECTURER OR CHRISTIAN PREACHER.

Salary, nearly £300 per annum.

THE election to this office is to take place on Christmas Day, or within eight days after. The persons eligible are, Masters of Arts of the University of Cambridge, under forty years of age. The office is only annual, but the same individual may, under certain circumstances, be continued for any successive number of years, not exceeding six. The duty of the Lecturer is, by Mr Hulse's will, to preach and print twenty sermons in each year, ten in April, May, and the former part of June, and ten in September, October, and the former part of November. The subject of the discourses is—to shew the evidence for revealed religion, or to explain some of the most difficult texts or obscure parts of Holy Scripture,—or both. The time and place of delivery are to be in Great St Mary's Church, and either on the Friday mornings or the Sunday afternoons of each week in the above-mentioned period; and if the duties be not discharged by the person appointed, his salary is divided amongst the six senior Fellows of St John's college. The Preacher is not afterwards eligible to the office of Christian Advocate.

By a decree of the Court of Chancery in 1830, it was ordered that the number of Lectures shall be reduced to eight, and that the time of printing be enlarged for the term of one year from the delivery of the last Lecture.

Various circumstances prevented any appointment taking place until the year 1819, when the first election was made, and Lectures have since been delivered and published in the following order :

1841 Henry Alford, M.A. Trinity.
1843 J. H. Marsden, B.D. John's.
1845 R. C. Trench, M.A. Trinity.

1847 C. Wordsworth, D.D. Trinity.
1849 W. G. Humphry, M.A. Trinity.

TRAVELLING BACHELORS.

WILLIAM WORTS, M.A. of Caius College, formerly one of the Esquire Bedells of this University, gave two pensions of £100 per annum each, to two recent Bachelors of Arts, presented to the Vice-Chancellor by the Master of the college whose turn it is to nominate, and elected by the Senate. The Bachelors are required to visit foreign countries, to take different routes, and severally to write, during their travels, at least one Latin letter in each year, descriptive of the customs and curiosities of the places visited by them; which letters, as soon as received by the Vice-Chancellor, are laid before the Senate, and afterwards deposited in the University Library.

The income of these travellers is continued for the space of three years, the period during which they are to continue abroad.

The following Regulations have been made by the Trustees, with a view to insure greater regularity in the recurrence and filling up of vacancies :

1. That no election of a Travelling Scholar shall take place in any year, excepting between the second Tripos day and the end of the Easter Term in that year.

2. That no persons shall be eligible, excepting actual Bachelors of Arts, who shall have been admitted ad respondendum quæstioni not later than Ash-Wednesday in that year, and subsequently to Ash-Wednesday in the preceding year.

3. That the Travelling Scholarship of each person so elected shall be deemed to expire, if not sooner vacated by resignation or otherwise, on the second Tripos day in the third year after that in which his election took place; when he will be a Bachelor of Arts of three years' standing complete.

4. That, if any college, whose turn it is to nominate, shall not do so before the end of the Easter Term next ensuing after any vacancy, provided its occurrence shall have come to the knowledge of the Master of the college or his locum tenens, that college shall be held to have forfeited its right of nominating for that turn, and such right shall devolve in the succeeding year upon the college, whose turn follows next according to the appointed cycle.

5. That, if a vacancy shall occur by resignation or otherwise during the Easter Term of any year, it shall be at the option of the college, which has the next turn, either to nominate in that same Term or to defer nominating until the following year.

WHITEHALL PREACHERS.

THE Whitehall Preacherships were established by GEORGE I. in the year 1724. The preachers were originally 24 in number, twelve from each University. By a recent alteration they have been reduced to two, one from each, who are to hold the office for two years. They must be Fellows of colleges during their time of holding the office, to which they are appointed by the Bishop of London, as Dean of her Majesty's Chapel.

The Cambridge preachers since the alteration have been,

1837 H. Philpott, B.D. Cath.
1839 C. Merivale, B.D. John's.
1841 W. J. Conybeare, M.A. Trinity.
1843 J. Hildyard, M.A. Christ's.

1845 G. Currey, M.A. John's.
1847 J. A. Frere, M.A. Trinity.
1849 C. A. Swainson, M.A. Christ's.

COMBINATION PAPERS, &c.

THE Sermons before the University at Great St Mary's, are preached by Bachelors in Divinity and Masters of Arts who have completed their first year, beginning with the former. The two papers, one published in July, and the other in December, are made out by the Esquire Bedells and signed by the Vice-Chancellor.

The Prior Combinatio contains the Sunday morning turns, and is made after the following order:—The colleges are divided into seven classes, each of which (Trinity Hall and Downing excepted, which send no morning preacher) provides a preacher every seventh turn. In the first three colleges the name is omitted, in the remaining twelve the preacher's name and college are set down.

| { Sid.       | { Emman.    |               |

Persons of sixty years of age, and upwards, are excused from preaching.

The Posterior Combinatio contains the Sunday afternoon turns and Saints' days, and is made according to the order in which the members stand in the Registry's book. The names as well as the colleges are here mentioned.

The Combination Papers are, immediately on their publication, sent to the Tutors of the respective colleges, who communicate to the persons named in the Paper the time appointed for them to preach. Substitutes procured by such as omit to preach in their turn, receive three guineas a sermon. The Vice-Chancellor appoints the preachers for the Lent and Summer Assizes, and for extraordinary Fasts and Thanksgivings. The payment is five guineas a sermon.

SELECT PREACHERS.

A GRACE having passed the Senate: "That those to whom the Sunday afternoon turns at St Mary's, and the turns for Christmas Day and Good Friday, are assigned, shall, from the beginning of November to the end of May, provide no other substitute than such as are appointed in conformity with that Grace:"—The following persons have been elected, each for the month to which his name is affixed:—

MEMBERS' PRIZEMEN.

THE REPRESENTATIVES in Parliament of this University give four annual prizes of fifteen guineas each, which are adjudged by the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Colleges, to two Bachelors of Arts, and two Undergraduates, who compose the best Dissertations in Latin prose, which are read publicly by them in the Senate-House on a day appointed near to the Commencement, and afterwards sent by them to the aforesaid Members. Of these prizes, two are open to all Bachelors of Arts, without distinction of years, who are not of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.;—and the other two are open to all Undergraduates who shall have resided not less than seven terms at the time when the exercises are to be sent in. The subjects are delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term, and each candidate is to send his exercise privately to the Vice-Chancellor, on or before the 30th of April, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. These prizes, confined until 1827 to Senior and Middle Bachelors, were established by the Hon. EDWARD FINCH and the Hon. THOMAS TOWNSHEND, and have been continued by the succeeding Members.

SIR WM. BROWNE's MEDALLISTS.

SIR WILLIAM BROWNE, Knt. M.D. directed three gold medals, value five guineas each, to be given yearly to three Undergraduates on the Commencement day, when the exercises are publicly read, and copies of them sent by the successful candidates to Sir W. J. B. Folkes, Bart. The first to him who writes the best Greek Ode in imitation of Sappho; the second for the best Latin Ode in imitation of Horace; the third for the best Greek and Latin Epigrams: the former after the manner of the Anthologia, the latter after the model of Martial<sup>1</sup>. The subjects (delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term) are appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, the sole adjudicator of these prizes. The exercises must be sent in on or before the 30th of April, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. The Greek Ode is not to exceed 25, and the Latin Ode 30 stanzas.

PORSON PRIZE.

THE REV. CHARLES BURNEY, D.D. and the Rev. JOHN CLEAVER BANKES, M.A. only surviving trustees of a fund raised by the friends of the late Professor Porson, and appropriated to his use during his lifetime, did, by deed, bearing date the 27th November, 1816, transfer to the University the sum of £400 Navy 5 per cents. upon trust, that the interest arising therefrom shall be annually employed in the purchase of one or more Greek books, to be given to such resident Undergraduates as shall make the best translation of a proposed passage in Shakspeare, Ben Jonson, Massinger, or Beaumont and Fletcher, into Greek verse.

The metre of the translation, if the selection be from a Tragedy, shall be Tragicum Iambicum Trimetrum Acatalecticum, or Tragicum Trochaicum Tetrametrum Catalecticum; if from a Comedy, the metre of the translation shall be Comicum Iambicum Trimetrum Acatalecticum, or Comicum Trochaicum Catalecticum. The exercises (the subjects of which are delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term) must be distinctly written and accentuated, and accompanied by a literal Latin prose version of the Greek, and sent in privately to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 31st of March, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. The examiners are, the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, the Provost of King's, the Masters of Trinity, St John's, Christ's, and Caius colleges, the Greek Professor, and the Public Orator. The prize translation is to be printed at the expense of the author, and copies to be given to the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of Houses, previous to the Commencement, at which time it is to be recited in the Senate-House. And if in any year there be no translation worthy of the prize, the book or books provided for that year shall be reserved and given to the candidate who shall be considered second best in the subsequent year, and so from time to time the book or books provided in any year, and not given in that year as a prize, shall be reserved till the examiners shall adjudge the same to be given in some subsequent year to a candidate whose translation is second best, or third best to the prize translation, but worthy to be rewarded, and then shall be disposed of accordingly; provided also that they be printed and recited as in the case of the prize translation. All the prize translations, and every such second best or third best translations, shall be transcribed in a book to be kept by the Vice-Chancellor.

ADAMS PRIZE.

SEVERAL members of St John's College having raised by Subscription a Fund for the purpose of Establishing a Prize to be connected with the name of Mr Adams, in testimony of their sense of the honour he had conferred on his College and the University by having been the first among the Mathematicians of Europe to determine from perturbations the unknown place of a disturbing Planet exterior to Uranus, offered the said fund to the University for its acceptance under the following Regulations:—confirmed by Grace of the Senate, April 7, 1848.

1. That a Prize, to be called "THE ADAMS PRIZE," be awarded every two years, during the Michaelmas Term, to the author of the best Essay on some subject of Pure Mathematics, Astronomy, or other branch of Natural Philosophy.

2. That the Vice-Chancellor and the Plumian Professor of Astronomy and Experimental Philosophy be requested to undertake the office of Examiners and Adjudicators of the Prize, in conjunction with two persons to be nominated by Colleges in rotation, according to the cycle of Proctors<sup>1</sup>, and to be approved by Grace of the Senate, provided always that not more than two of the Examiners be members of the same College.

3. That the Adams Prize be open to the competition of all persons who have at any time been admitted to a Degree in this University.

4. That the successful Candidate receive two years' Income of the Fund, and in case no Essay be considered deserving of the Prize, the Income of the past two years be added to the Capital of the Fund.

5. That the first two Examiners to be chosen by the Senate be elected at the second Congregation of the Lent Term of 1849, and that the future Examiners be in like manner elected every second year.

6. That as soon as may be after the election of the said two Examiners, or at least before the end of the Lent Term in which they shall have been elected, the four Examiners select and publicly announce the Subject for the next Essay, and that the Prize for the same be awarded in the Michaelmas Term of the year next following.

7. That the Essays be sent in to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the first day of July preceding the Michaelmas Term in which the Prize is to be awarded, in the same manner and form as are prescribed in the regulations for the Chancellor's English Medal.

8. That the Essay be printed at the expense of the successful Candidate, and a copy be presented to the University Library, to the Library of St John's College, and to each of the four Examiners.

9. That if at any time hereafter it appear to the Senate to be expedient to alter the foregoing scheme, it be competent to the Master and Senior Fellows of St John's College, at the request of the Senate, to propose for its adoption an amended Scheme.

NORRISIAN PRIZEMEN.

JOHN NORRIS, Esq. the Founder of the Divinity Professorship, by his Will bequeathed a premium of £12 per annum, £7. 4s. of which is to be expended upon a gold medal, the residue in books, to the author of the best prose Essay on a sacred subject, which is to be proposed by the Norrisian Professor.

The subject is delivered out early in November, and the Essay must be sent either to the Master of Trinity, the Master of Caius, or the Provost of King's college, on or before the tenth day preceding Palm Sunday. A sheet of paper, folded up like a letter, with the name of the candidate enclosed, and sealed, must be sent with the Essay; also a Greek or Latin motto must be inscribed on the Essay, and the same on the sheet inclosing the name. A candidate for this prize must be above twenty years of age, and under thirty at the time when the Prize is adjudged. He must be, or have been, a Student of this University; and must produce a certificate, under the hand of the Norrisian Professor, that he has attended twenty of the Norrisian Lectures in the course of some one year. The three above-mentioned persons compare and decide which is the best Essay, and are directed by its motto to the letter which contains the name of the successful candidate, to whom the event is communicated on the Thursday in Passion week. The prize he receives within 14 days, giving at the same time a promissory note for the payment of £12 if he neglects to publish the Essay within two calendar months. The rest of the sealed papers are burnt unopened.

No doctrine must be advanced in the Essay contrary to the Liturgy, Articles, and Homilies of the Church of England.

SIR PEREGRINE MAITLAND's PRIZE.

THE friends of Lieutenant-General Sir PEREGRINE MAITLAND, K.C.B., late Commander in Chief of the forces in South India, being desirous of testifying their respect and esteem for his character and principles, and for his disinterested zeal in the cause of Christian truth in the East; have raised a fund for the institution of a Prize in one of the Universities, and for the establishment of two native Scholarships at Bishop Corrie's Grammar School at Madras,—such Prize and Scholarships to be associated with the name of Sir PEREGRINE MAITLAND.

In pursuance of the foregoing scheme, the sum of £1000 has been given to the University of Cambridge for the purpose of instituting a Prize, to be called "Sir PEREGRINE MAITLAND's PRIZE," for an English Essay on some subject connected with the propagation of the Gospel, through Missionary exertions, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

Sir John Cam Hobhouse, Bart. Author of Travels through Albania, &c.

8 Author of Jewish, Classical, and Oriental Antiquities, &c.

in India and other parts of the heathen world, subject to the following regulations:—

1. That the Prize shall be given once in every three years, and shall consist of the accruing interest of the principal sum during the preceding three years.

2. That the subject shall be given out in the Michaelmas Term by the Vice-Chancellor, and the exercises sent in before the Division of the Easter Term.

3. That the candidates for the Prize shall, at the time when the subject is given out, be Bachelors of Arts under the standing of M.A.; or Students in Civil Law or Medicine, of not less than four, or more than seven years' standing, not being graduates in either faculty, who shall be required, before they are admitted to become candidates, to produce from their respective Professors certificates that they have kept the exercises necessary for the Degree of Bachelor of Law or Medicine.

4. That the Examiners for the Prize shall be the Vice-Chancellor and two other members of the University, either Masters of Arts, or of degrees superior to the degree of Master of Arts, to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and approved by the Senate, and that their names shall be announced together with the subject of the Essay.

5. That the Essay be printed at the expense of the successful candidate; and that fifty copies be distributed to each of the three following institutions:—The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts; the Church Missionary Society; Bishop Corrie's Grammar School at Madras.

Besides the £1000 before mentioned, the sum of £100 has been given for the first Prize.

1845 G. Nugée, B.A. Trinity.

1849 E. F. Fiske, B.A. Emman.

BURNEY PRIZE.

THE late RICHARD BURNEY, Esq., M.A., of Christ's College, Cambridge, previously to his death on the 30th Nov. 1845, empowered his cousin, Mr Archdeacon Burney, to offer, through the Vice-Chancellor, to the University of Cambridge, the sum of £3,500 Reduced Three per Cent. Stock, for the purpose of establishing an Annual Prize, to be awarded to the Bachelor of Arts in his first year of standing, who should produce the best Essay on a subject to be set by the Vice-Chancellor.

On the day after this offer was communicated to the Vice-Chancellor, Mr Burney died; but his sister and executrix, Miss J. Caroline Burney, being desirous of carrying her brother's intentions into effect, generously renewed the offer, subject to the following regulations, which have been sanctioned by the Senate:

That the prize be awarded to the B.A. in his first year of standing, who shall produce the best English Essay "on some moral or metaphysical subject, on the Existence, Nature, and Attributes of God, or on the Truth and Evidence of the Christian Religion."

That the successful Candidate be required to print his Essay; and that after having delivered, or caused to be delivered, a copy of it to the University Library, the Library of Christ's College, the University Libraries of Oxford, Dublin, and Edinburgh, and to each of the Adjudicators of the Prize, he receive from the Vice-Chancellor the year's interest of the Stock, from which sum the Candidate is to pay the expenses of printing the Essay.

That the Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Christ's College, and the Norrisian Professor of Divinity, be the Examiners of the Compositions and the Adjudicators of the Prize.

That in the event of the exercises of two of the Candidates being deemed by the Examiners to possess equal merit, if one of such Candidates be a member of Christ's College, the prize be adjudged to him.

1848 G. H. Forbes, Downing.
1849 J. Todhunter, John's.

LE BAS PRIZE.

A large number of Members of the Civil Service of India who were students at the East India College at Haileybury at various intervals during the thirty years that the Rev. C. W. LE BAS, M.A., formerly Fellow of Trinity College, was connected with that Institution, desirous of testifying their regard for Mr LE BAS, and of perpetuating the memory of his services, raised a Fund amounting to about £1920. three per cent. Consols, which they offered to the University of Cambridge for founding an annual Prize, to be called in honour of Mr LE BAS the Le Bas Prize, for the best English Essay on a subject of General Literature, such subject to be occasionally chosen with reference to the history, institutions, and probable destinies and prospects of the Anglo-Indian Empire.

The Prize is subject to the following Regulations, confirmed by Grace of the Senate, Nov. 22, 1848.

1. That the LE BAS Prize shall consist of the annual interest of the above-mentioned Fund, the Essay being published at the expense of the successful Candidate.

2. That the Candidates for the Prize shall be, at the time when the subject is given out, Bachelors of Arts under the standing of M.A.; or Students in Civil Law or Medicine of not less than four or more than seven years' standing, not being graduates in either faculty, but having kept the Exercises necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law or Medicine.

3. That the subject for the Essay shall be selected and the Prize adjudicated by the Vice-Chancellor and two other Members of the Senate, to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and approved by the Senate at the first Congregation after the tenth day of October in each year.

4. That the subject shall be given out in the week preceding the division of the Michaelmas Term in each year, and the Essays sent in before the end of the next ensuing Easter Term.

1849 C. B. Scott, B.A. Trinity.

CHANCELLOR'S ENGLISH MEDALLISTS.

H. R. H. the Duke of Gloucester, formerly Chancellor, gave annually a gold medal, to be conferred upon a resident Under-graduate, who shall compose in English the best Ode or best Poem in heroic verse<sup>1</sup>.

The present Chancellor continues this prize. The subject is given out at the end of Michaelmas Term, and the Exercises are to be sent in to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 31st of March following, and are not to exceed 200 lines. Each candidate is to send his exercise privately: each is to have some motto prefixed; and to be accompanied by a paper sealed up, with the same motto on the outside, which paper is to enclose another, folded up, having the candidate's name and college written within. The papers containing the names of those persons who do not succeed are destroyed unopened. No prize will be given to any exercise which is written, wholly, or in part (or of which the title, motto, superscription, address, &c., are written), in the hand-writing of the candidate; nor to any one who has not, at the time for sending in the exercises, resided one term at least. Any candidate is at liberty to send in his exercise printed or lithographed. The successful candidate recites his Poem in the Senate-House on Commencement-day. Examiners the same as for the Classical Medals.

SEATONIAN PRIZE.

THE REV. THOMAS SEATON, M.A., late Fellow of Clare Hall, bequeathed to the University the rents of his Kislingbury estate, now producing clear £40. per annum, to be given yearly to that Master of Arts who shall write the best English Poem on a sacred subject. The Vice-Chancellor, the Master of Clare Hall, and the Greek Professor (who are the disposers of this premium) determine the subject, which is delivered out in January, and the Poem is to be sent to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the 29th of September following. The poem is to be printed, and the expense deducted out of the product of the estate; the remainder is given as a reward to the composer. The prize is determined a few days previous to the resignation of the Vice-Chancellor's office<sup>2</sup>.

was adjudged to T. E. Hankinson, Corpus Christi college.

<sup>3</sup> These Poems have been published in 2 Vols.

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

CRAVEN'S SCHOLARS.

JOHN, LORD CRAVEN, founded two classical Scholarships of £25 per annum each, arising from estates vested in the hands of six trustees. The Cambridge trustees are, the Bishop of Peterborough, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, and the Master of Trinity College. Electors, the Vice-Chancellor, the five Regius Professors, and the Public Orator. Whenever a vacancy occurs, any undergraduate may offer himself a candidate by signifying his intention in a Latin letter addressed to the above electors, within the time limited by the Programma which declares the vacancy. If any one of the name or kindred of the founder should be in indigent circumstances, and a Scholar of this University, he (by the Will) is to be preferred. This annuity cannot be enjoyed after fourteen years' standing in the University, nor by any one who may attain to preferment of double its value. The possessors are not allowed to be absent from the University above three months in the year, without the express permission of the Vice-Chancellor, or the major part of the electors then resident in the University.

These rules have been modified in part by the regulations enacted in 1817; which will be found at the end of this list of University Scholarships.

* Whenever there is an omission of a year, no prize was adjudged.

1 Translator of Horace.

2 The Examiners also gave notice, that should any poem appear to them to possess distinguished merit, a premium of 100l. would be adjudged. The above premium was this year awarded to Mr HANKINSON.

3 A second prize was this year adjudged to Mr J. Gorle, Clare Hall.

4 A premium of 100l. was this year adjudged instead of the ordinary prize.

By a decree of the Court of Chancery, in 1819, the income of the Scholars was augmented to £50 per annum each, and three additional Scholarships founded, under the same regulations as the preceding, except that they cannot be held for more than seven years. And by a decree of the Court of Chancery, in 1841, the Scholarships have been further augmented to £75 per annum.

BATTIE'S SCHOLARS.

WILLIAM BATTIE, M.D. Fellow of King's college, left an estate, present value between £30. and £35 per annum, on a plan similar to the preceding, but subject to the following conditions: 1st. Every Scholar shall reside nine calendar months in the year, except he be a graduate in Physic, or one who designs to profess the same; in that case his residence may be dispensed with at the University, provided he produces once every year a certificate signed by one Hospital Physician in London, testifying his regular conduct and diligent attendance with the said Physician at the Hospital. 2nd. No Scholar is capable of being elected who has been admitted three years, or receives any benefit or advantage from either of Lord Craven's exhibitions; and if any one, after being admitted to this Scholarship, shall become entitled to any emoluments from the said exhibitions, his claim to this benefaction is void. 3rd. When any Scholar shall have entered nine years at the college to which he first belonged, or shall have obtained any ecclesiastical benefice or preferment, his right to this legacy shall then cease and determine, but it shall not be vacated by the holder obtaining a Fellowship. The electors to this Scholarship are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Regius Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, and the Proctors for the time being.

BROWNE's SCHOLARSHIP.

SIR WILLIAM BROWNE, Knt. M.D., left a perpetual rent-charge of £21 per annum, upon sundry estates for founding a Scholarship, to be paid clear of taxes and disbursements, to the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University. A candidate for this Scholarship must offer himself for examination within a year from his Matriculation; public notice being given by the Vice-Chancellor a month before such election. The Scholarship, with all the arrears which may happen by vacancy, is tenable for seven years; but the possessor, if of another college, is obliged to remove to St Peter's, and reside there every entire term during his undergraduateship. Electors to this Scholarship the same as to Lord Craven's.

DAVIES's SCHOLARSHIP.

THE REV. J. DAVIES, D.D., formerly Fellow of King's, and afterwards Provost of Eton college, bequeathed (by Will, dated July 1804) to the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, and the Provost of King's, in the University of Cambridge, in trust, the sum of £1000 in the 3 per cents., to found a Scholarship, to be called

Dr Davies's University Scholarship, on the same footing as those called Craven Scholars, for the greatest proficient in classical learning. The examiners to be the same, only with the addition of the Provost of King's; and to be tenable for the same number of years as the above-mentioned Scholarships.

BELL'S SCHOLARSHIPS.

THE REV. WILLIAM BELL, D.D. Prebendary of the collegiate church of Westminster, and late Fellow of Magdalene college in this University, in the year 1810, transferred £15,200 stock, 3 per cents., to the University of Cambridge, in trust, to found eight new Scholarships. On the receipt of this benefaction, Scholars were elected in such a manner, and for such a period, that two Scholarships will become vacant every year.

The regulations of these Scholarships are, that candidates for them must be in their first year of admission, i. e. they must have been admitted between the last and last but one Commencement preceding the October Term in which they begin to reside; for example, Candidates in 1839 must have been admitted between the Commencements of 1837 and 1838, and so on; and every Scholar elected on this foundation shall promise in writing to take the degree of B.A. in the most regular way. The Vice-Chancellor produces the certificates of admission on the day of Election. Where personal merits are equal, those are to be preferred who stand most in need of assistance. If any Scholar shall degrade or determine, and go out in a bye term, or declare for law, or be rusticated or expelled, his Scholarship shall be ipso facto vacant. The profits to continue for four years and no more. No person shall ever have two sons Scholars, nor shall there be two orphans, brothers, Scholars at the same time. If no sons or orphans of clergymen shall be found properly qualified for the Scholarships, then, and then only, the electors shall elect the sons of laymen, being undergraduates, who stand in need of assistance. No Scholar to be elected from King's College, or from Trinity Hall.

The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professors of Divinity and the Civil Law, the Lucasian Professor of Mathematics, and the Public Orator: and the election takes place on the Friday after Midlent Sunday.

In the following list, wherever two or more gentlemen are recorded as æquales, their literary merits were considered by the electors as nearly equal. In this case the choice of the Scholar or Scholars was made simply on the ground of pecuniary circumstances, according to the express direction of the Supplemental clause to Dr Bell's Deed of foundation.

PITT SCHOLARSHIP.

Rules for the Foundation of the Pitt Scholarship, and for the Election of a Scholar, confirmed by Grace of the Senate, Dec. 9, 1813.

1.—THE sum of £1000 given by the SUBSCRIBERS to Mr PITT'S STATUE, for the purpose of founding the Pitt Scholarship, and which has since been augmented by a donation of £500 from the Pitt Club in London, shall be placed in the public funds, until the Syndics shall be able to vest it in land; and the clear annual income arising from it shall be paid to the Pitt Scholar.

2.—The Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, the Public Orator, the Greek Professor, and two members of the Senate, to be appointed by the different colleges in their turn, shall be the electors. Two colleges, according to the cycle of Proctors commencing with the year 1817, shall respectively nominate an elector. But if the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor, or any two of them, be members of the same college, no elector in that case shall be appointed by the college according to the cycle of Proctors, but the appointment shall be made by the University. Or if the Public Orator or the Greek Professor shall be prevented by illness or otherwise from attending the examination, or if the colleges shall have neglected to signify to the Vice-Chancellor the appointment of the electors according to their respective turns, then Deputies shall be appointed by Grace.

3.—The first examination commenced on Monday, January 17, 1814; and the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor, shall, in future, on or before the 1st day of December after every vacancy, cause a writing under their hands, declaring the said vacancy and the time of examination, to be affixed to the door of the Public Schools; and they shall notify the same to the two colleges which are to nominate the electors, and the Heads of those colleges, or their deputies, shall, within one week after such notices, signify to the Vice-Chancellor the names of the electors so appointed.

4.—The examination, which shall be solely classical, shall always take place during the week of the public examinations in the Senate-House, previous to the Bachelors' Commencement, and the Scholar elected shall receive all the dividends or rents that shall have become due subsequent to the last vacancy.

5.—Any undergraduate, of whatever rank, may be a candidate for the Pitt Scholarship, provided he be not of more than three years' standing from the time of his first residence; but he shall, on or before the 31st day of December preceding the examination, signify, in a Latin epistle to each of the electors, his intention of becoming a candidate, and in case he shall omit sending such an epistle, he shall be considered as incapable of being elected at that time.

6.—The Pitt Scholar shall not hold any other University Scholarship.

7.—Every Scholar shall, during the time of his holding this Scholarship, reside the major part of each term; and if he shall not have kept such residence, he shall vacate his Scholarship, unless he has been prevented by illness or any other cause which shall be approved of by the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor.

8.—Every Scholar who shall obtain any ecclesiastical benefice or preferment, or shall be Master of Arts' standing, shall vacate his Scholarship.

PORSON SCHOLARSHIP.

THE Venerable CHARLES PARR BURNEY, D. D., Archdeacon of Colchester, the representative of the last surviving Trustee of a Fund, which was raised by the friends of the late Professor Porson for his benefit, proposes, in conformity with the intention of the said Trustee, to invest the residue of the said Fund now remaining in his hands, and the interest thereon, in the 3 per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the names of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, upon certain trusts, for the purpose of founding a Scholarship, to be called the "Porson Scholarship," so soon as the money so to be invested shall have accumulated to such an amount as will produce the yearly sum of £65, and subject to the following regulations:—

1. That the person, who shall from time to time be elected into the said Scholarship, shall, during the time of his holding such Scholarship, receive out of the annual proceeds of the said stock an Exhibition of not less than £60 per annum, and that the residue or surplus of the said proceeds, together with the dividends which may at any time accrue during the vacancy of the said Scholarship, shall be invested in the like stock, and appropriated to the general purposes of the Trust.

2. That any Undergraduate shall be eligible to the said Scholarship, who shall have been matriculated, and shall not have resided in the University more than five Terms.

3. That on or before the 1st day of December, next after the occurrence of any vacancy, public notice shall be given declaring the said vacancy and the time of Examination; and that every Candidate shall signify his intention of presenting himself for Examination in a Latin Epistle to each of the Electors on or before the 31st day of December.

4. That the Electors shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's College, the Master of Trinity College, the Master of St John's College, the Master of Christ's College, the Master of Caius College, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor.

5. That the Examination shall be exclusively Classical, and shall commence in the last week of January, at the same time as the Examination of the Candidates for the other University Scholarships.

6. That the Porson Scholar shall reside during the major part of every term, unless prevented by sickness or other cause to be approved of by the Vice-Chancellor and a majority of the other Electors.

7. That the Porson Scholar shall not hold any other University Scholarship; and that he shall vacate his Scholarship at the expiration of three years and a half from the Christmas-day preceding his election, so as to be entitled to Seven half-yearly payments.

TYRWHITT'S HEBREW SCHOLARSHIPS.

THE REV. ROBERT TYRWHITT, M.A. late Fellow of Jesus College, who died in 1818, by his Will bequeathed £4000 Navy 5 per cents. for the promotion and encouragement of Hebrew learning, the mode and disposition of this bequest to be left to the University.

The Senate in 1818 decreed the foundation of three Scholarships, which decree was revised in 1826, and the number increased to six; this was again revised in 1836, when the following Regulations passed the Senate:

DECREE OF THE SENATE, April 29, 1836.

1.—THAT there shall in future be six Scholarships, called Tyrwhitt's Hebrew Scholarships.

2.—That the candidates for these Scholarships shall be, first, (actualiter) Bachelors of Arts or Inceptors who are not of sufficient standing to be created Masters of Arts; or secondly, Students in the Civil Law or Medicine, of not less than four or more than seven years' standing, who shall be required, before they are admitted to become candidates, to produce certificates from their respective Professors, that they have kept the exercises necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law or Physic.

3.—That out of the net annual proceeds of Mr Tyrwhitt's Benefaction the sum of £150 be divided among the six Scholars, in the proportions hereinafter specified.

4.—That the electors to these Scholarships shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Professor of Arabic, and two members of the Senate, to be nominated by the different colleges according to the cycle of Proctors.

5.—That if the Regius Professor of Hebrew, or the Professor of Arabic, or both of them, shall decline, or be prevented from examining, a deputy or deputies shall be appointed by a Grace of the Senate.

6.—That if it shall happen at any time, that two of the offices severally constituting electors are united in the same person, the deputy for the elector in respect of one of the said offices shall be the Lord Almoner's Reader in Arabic; but if in any case the Lord Almoner's Reader shall decline the office of deputy examiner, or shall be prevented from undertaking the said office, a deputy examiner shall be appointed in his place by a Grace of the Senate.

7.—That if the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Professor of Arabic, or any two of them, shall be members of the same college, no elector shall in that case be appointed by that college according to the cycle of Proctors; but the appointment shall be made by a Grace of the Senate.

8.—That the appointment, when requisite, of an examiner or examiners by Grace of the Senate take place at the first Congregation of the Lent Term of the year, and that the examiner or examiners so appointed continue in office until the first Congregation in the Lent Term of the following year.

9.—That the examination for these Scholarships commence annually on the second Wednesday in May; and that persons intending to be candidates send in their names to the Vice-Chancellor on or before the first day of May.

10.—That two Scholars be elected in each year; that the first in the order of merit of these two, receive an annual stipend of £30, and the second an annual stipend of £20, for three years from the time of election. That in case of equality of merit the stipend of each be £25.

11.—That should it appear in any case to the majority of the electors that no one of the candidates is deserving of a Scholarship with the stipend of £30 a year, it shall be competent for them to elect one Scholar only, with the stipend of £20 a year.

12.—That in case there shall be a deficiency of deserving candidates for the two Scholarships in any year, the electors shall have power, in the second or third succeeding year, to elect additional Scholars into the vacancy, or vacancies, thus occasioned; after which time the stipends, belonging to the Scholarships which have not been filled up, shall be appropriated in the manner appointed in the next regulation.

13.—That the residue of the net annual proceeds of Mr Tyrwhitt's benefaction, not already disposed of by the third regulation, together with all accumulations which may arise under the twelfth regulation, shall form a fund to be expended in the promotion and encouragement of Hebrew Literature, at the discretion of the examiners, provided that not more than a third part of such fund be expended in any year.

14.—That the accounts of this Bequest be kept distinct from the general Accounts of the University, and be annually audited by the electors in Michaelmas Term before the first of November; and being so audited, shall be laid on the Registry's Table in the Senate-House at the next Congregation, for the inspection of the Senate.

15.—That these Regulations shall be in force until the first Congregation in Lent Term, 1842.

On December 15, 1841, the following Grace passed the SENATE :—
 "That the existing regulations of the Tyrwhitt's Hebrew Scholarships be continued."

The following Grace passed the SENATE, May 8, 1842 :—

"That the Examiners shall publish the names arranged in the order of merit, of such candidates as pass the examination with credit."

CROSSE SCHOLARSHIPS.

THE REV. JOHN CROSSE, late Vicar of Bradford in Yorkshire, left to George Buxton Browne, Esq. in trust, the sum of £2000 free of legacy-duty, for the purpose of founding three Theological Scholarships, "for promoting the cause of true Religion,"—to be under the following Regulations: which were confirmed by a Grace of the SENATE, Dec. 4, 1832.

1.—That they be called "The CROSSE SCHOLARSHIPS."

2.—That the Candidates for the same be Bachelors of Arts in the first year from their degree; and that such Scholarships be tenable till the Scholars attain the standing of Masters of Arts, viz. for three years.

3.—That the first Elections be so arranged as to make one of them vacant yearly for ever; and for this purpose, that at the first Election the persons elected be a Junior, a Middle, and a Senior, Bachelor.

4.—That the annual Examination and Election take place in the Michaelmas Term after the division of the said Term.

5.—That in case of any vacancy of a Scholarship before the person is of Master of Arts' standing, that at the next annual Election a Bachelor of Arts of the same year with the Scholar so vacating be elected into his room.

6.—That the sum of £2000 proposed to be transferred to the University be vested in Government securities, in the name of The Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, the annual interest arising from the same to be divided equally among the three Scholars.

7.—The Electors to be the Vice-Chancellor, the Margaret Professor of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Divinity, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Regius Professor of Greek, the Norrisian Professor of Divinity, and the Professor of Arabic.

8.—The Examination to turn upon a knowledge of the Holy Scriptures in their Original Tongues, Hebrew and Greek, of Ecclesiastical History, of the earlier and later Heresies, and such other subjects of useful enquiry, as may be thought most likely to assist in the formation of valuable Characters, fitted to sustain and adorn "the Cause of true Religion."

MUIR PRIZE.

A PRIZE of £500 on the Refutation of Hinduism, and establishment of the exclusive Claims and authority of Christianity, given to the University by a gentleman of the Bengal Civil Service, was adjudged in 1848 to Rowland Williams, M.A., King's College.

LUMLEY EXHIBITIONS.

THE Right Honourable ELIZABETH, Viscountess LUMLEY, by a deed bearing date October 8, 1657, directed certain Trustees therein named, to pay and allow yearly to ten poor Scholars of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, educated in the School founded by her at Thornton in the county of York, or in default of such, to any other poor Scholars, not exceeding ten in number (subsequently reduced to five,) who should be nominated thereto by the respective Convocations of the said Universities for the time being, the sum of £4 a year each, to be continued until they should have time to become graduates in one of the said Universities.

By an Order of the Court of Chancery, issued in the year 1820, it was directed that, in consequence of the increased rents these five Exhibitions should in future be £15 per annum each, and that the rents not called for should accumulate.

REGULATIONS

RESPECTING

THE UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

[Confirmed by a Grace of the SENATE, 1817.]

ON the last Saturday in November in every year there shall be a meeting at the Vice-Chancellor's of the electors to the Craven's and Davies's Scholarships, and of the permanent electors to the Pitt Scholarship, to consider whether any one and which of those Scholarships shall be then declared vacant; and the examination for such vacant Scholarship shall commence in the last week of January following.

At this meeting, of the Scholarships which shall have become voidable by non-residence, that shall be declared vacant which has been held for the longest time; provided that no one Scholarship shall have become necessarily void before the day of this meeting, in which case no other shall be declared vacant for that year.

When it is decided at this meeting which of the Scholarships is to be declared vacant, the rules pointed out by the founder for notice, examination, and election, (where any such rules are particularly prescribed by the founder), will be pursued, so as to bring on the examination in the last week of January. Where no such regulations have been prescribed by the founder, the notice of the vacancy is to be affixed to the door of the Public Schools, on or before the 1st of December; and the candidates are to deliver their Latin Epistles to each of the examiners, on or before the 31st of December, as in the case of the Pitt Scholarship; and all prior regulations made by the University, inconsistent with these, are hereby repealed.

With respect to non-residence, it is to be understood that the holders of the Craven, Davies's and Pitt Scholarships, shall, generally speaking, have such leave of absence, as will enable them to retain their Scholarships until the holder becomes senior Scholar according to the above regulations.

But in case of any instance of non-residence in the University, for one whole term, before the Bachelor's degree, the electors, at their meeting, shall have the power of declaring vacant the Scholarship of the person so non-resident in preference to that of the senior Scholar: if it appear to them that such non-residence is without sufficient excuse.

UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE PRIZES.

THE prizes for the encouragement of literature, free and open to competition for the whole University, amount to upwards of £1,500, three-fourths of which are given for Classics and English Composition.

The amount of the annual prizes in the different colleges is about £800, more than half of which are given for the encouragement of Classical Literature.

PATRONAGE

IN THE GIFT OF THE UNIVERSITY.

WHEN a benefice becomes vacant, the senior Proctor declares the vacancy, and a candidate is chosen by the Senate. In regard to the vicarage of Burwell, the University, within four months after a vacancy, names two candidates, and the Earl of Guilford presents one of them to the Bishop of Norwich.

CRANE'S CHARITY FOR THE RELIEF OF SICK SCHOLARS.

JOHN CRANE, Apothecary in Cambridge, and M.A., died in 1654, and left by his Will money to buy an estate of £62 per annum<sup>1</sup>, to be settled on the five corporations following, viz. the University of Cambridge, the towns of Wisbech, Cambridge, Lynn, and Ipswich<sup>2</sup>. The rents to be received in order, and to be applied by the University in their turn towards the relief of Sick Scholars. The distribution to be made by the Vice-Chancellor, the Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, and the Chief Apothecary of the town. The Master of Caius college is requested to assist the Distributors. Meetings of the distributors, to consider and determine the claims of applicants for the benefit of this charity, take place on the third Tuesday of May, and the third Tuesday of November, in every year, and all applications of Scholars must be made by the Tutors of their respective colleges.

The Trustees wish it to be understood that they are willing to apply to the "Institution for Nursing Sisters," in London, for nurses to attend poor sick scholars and to pay their wages in case of necessity; applications to be made to the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, or to the Regius Professor of Physic.

For an account of the various charitable Institutions, &c. connected with the town of Cambridge, see the Cambridge Guide.

PERSE FREE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Trustees, The Master and four Senior Fellows of Gonville and Caius College.

STEPHEN PERSE, M.D., senior Fellow of Caius College, by a clause in his Will<sup>3</sup>, dated September 27th, 1615, bequeathed certain property in charge to his executors, to purchase divers grounds and tenements, to be applied, amongst other purposes, to that of erecting and establishing within three years (if possible), after his decease, a convenient house capable of containing one hundred Scholars to be used for a Free Grammar School, with apartments for a Master and Usher, who are required to be graduates in this University; the former a Master, the latter a Bachelor of Arts at least. The Scholars are to be natives of Cambridge, Barnwell, Chesterton, or Trumpington.

Every Scholar on admission pays twenty shillings, and to the Assistant Usher, ten shillings entrance, and ten shillings each half-year, for being taught Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and elementary Mathematics.

The age of admission is 10 years. No free Scholar is to remain longer than till the Midsummer Vacation next after he has attained the age of 18 years.

None but free Scholars are to be instructed in the School, unless with further sufficient help besides the present Master, Usher, and Assistant Usher; and then according to the direction of the Trustees.

A List of the Rules of the School, and of the Names of the Scholars, is kept in the School Room.

The School is examined annually at Midsummer, by two Masters of Arts appointed by the Trustees, and prizes are awarded according to merit.

In case of a vacancy in the place of a Master or Usher, preference is to be given to one who has received his education at the School.

Scholars educated three years at least at this School, are to be admitted (ceteris paribus), before all others, to the Perse Fellowships and Scholarships at Caius College.

In 1842 the old School-house was taken down, and new buildings were erected, comprehending a school-room, and houses for the Master and Usher.

Master, Peter Mason, M.A. St John's Coll.

Usher, Rev. George Barber, M.A. Queens' Coll.

ADDENBROOKE's HOSPITAL

WAS opened in the year 1766, having been founded by JOHN ADDENBROOKE, M.D., formerly fellow of Catharine Hall. It was further endowed in 1813 by MR JOHN BOWTELL, late bookseller and stationer in Cambridge, and is supported chiefly by the voluntary contributions of the public. It contains upwards of one hundred beds.

Certificates of attendance on the practice in it are recognized by the University, by the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons, and by the Society of Apothecaries in London.

During Term Clinical Lectures are delivered weekly by the Physicians, and a course of Lectures on the Principles of Surgery by Mr Humphry, the certificate of attendance on which is received of Candidates for L.M.

Consulting Physicians.

John Haviland, M.D.

F. Thackeray, M.D.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

THIS magnificent Library, containing at present about 170,000 volumes, has been enriched at different times by royal and private benefactors, amongst whom the name of Thomas Rotherham, Archbishop of Canterbury, and Lord Privy Seal to King Edward IV., and that of King George I. may be mentioned as pre-eminently distinguished.

The permanent sources of its increase are as follows:

1. The Copyright Act (8th of Queen Anne, 54th Geo. III. and 6 & 7 Will. IV.) under which this Library, in common with the British Museum, the Bodleian Library at Oxford, the Library of the faculty of Advocates at Edinburgh, and that of Trinity College, Dublin, is entitled to demand a copy of every book published in Great Britain.

2. The Rustat Fund, arising from an estate at Ovington in Norfolk. This estate was bought with the money given to the University in 1666, by Tobias Rustat, Esq. M.A. Yeoman of the Robes to King Charles II., to be laid out in land, the rents to be applied in the purchase of choice books for the Public Library, and the income of it is nearly £200 per annum.

3. William Worts, M.A. Fellow of Caius College, formerly one of the Esquire Bedells of this University, ordered by his Will that the annual surplus of the rents and profits of his estate at Landbeach, in this county, producing about £500 per annum, after the discharge of the other outgoings (see p. 114), should be applied to the use of the Public Library.

4. The Rev. John Manistre, M.A. late Fellow of King's College, lately bequeathed £5000, to purchase books. This sum has been invested, and produces the annual income of £150.

5. A quarterly contribution of one shilling and sixpence each from all members of the University, excepting Sizars, is likewise made for the support of the Library.

The great want of accommodation for books in the present Library, and of Lecture-Rooms for the Professors, had long been complained of; and, as the University was not itself in possession of funds to supply these deficiencies, a subscription was set on foot, and above £20,000 were collected from Members of the University and others, who felt an interest in the undertaking. The funds raised by this subscription, however liberal, being no more than are requisite to the erection of one side of the proposed Court, the further completion of the design must rest for the present.

The Rev. T. HALFORD, M.A. of Jesus College, has invested in the hands of Trustees the munificent sum of £2000 for completing a second wing of the New Library, to which have been added for the same purpose the following subscriptions :

The Right Rev. The Lord Bishop of Durham..... £100.

The Rev. B. Chapman, D.D. Master of Caius College... £50.

The portion of the New Library, lately erected, is according to part of a design by Mr C. R. Cockerell of London, for an entire Court, which it is intended should occupy the whole site of the present Library and Schools.

The management of the Library is committed to Syndics, who are the Vice-Chancellor, the Heads of Colleges, all Doctors in each faculty, the Orator, and all public Professors, the Proctors and Scrutators. They meet in the Library on the first Monday after the division of every Term, and oftener if necessary; and to them, or the major part, not less than five, of whom the Vice-Chancellor must always be one, full powers are committed for the better regulating of the same.

RULES AND ORDERS OF THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

Published by Authority, May 1st. 1849.

1. That no person shall be allowed to take Books out of the Library, but those who, having been admitted to the Degree of M.B., LL.B., M.A., M.D., LL.D., or D.D., have their names on the Boards of their respective Colleges, or are "Commorantes in Villa."

MEMORANDUM.—Every person admitted to any one of the above-named Degrees is required to take the following Oath before his admission :
"Jurabis quod in Bibliothecam publicam admissus jure isto tuo ita uteris ut quantum in te est nihil inde detrimenti capiat Bibliotheca."

2. That no one shall take or borrow any Book out of the Library without first delivering a note for the same to one of the Library-keepers, in his own hand-writing, expressing his Name and College, the title of the Book, and the year and day of the month on which such Book is taken or borrowed, on pain of forfeiting Five Pounds, or double the value of such Book, at the discretion and in the judgment of the Vice-Chancellor.

3. That the Library-keepers shall preserve all such notes, till the Books so taken out be returned again to the Library; and that when all the Books specified in each note are returned, they shall deliver up the notes to the persons by whom the Books are brought back: when only some Books specified in each note are returned, those Books so returned shall be erased at the time.

4. That no person shall be allowed to have in his possession at any one time more than Ten Volumes belonging to the Library; but that the Vice-Chancellor and the Librarian shall be empowered to dispense with this Order in any particular case, if they shall be both of opinion that sufficient reasons have been assigned for such dispensation: that such dispensation however shall continue in force no longer than to the end of the Quarter in which it shall be granted; but upon fresh application may be renewed by the same authority.

5. That no person shall take out any of the printed Books from the Classes that are locked up, except by a note countersigned by the Vice-Chancellor; nor shall have more than Five Volumes of such Books out of the Library at one time.

6. That no Manuscript whatever shall be taken out of the Library without a Grace for its removal being obtained from the Senate; nor without a Bond given by the borrower to the Librarian to return it uninjured within a certain time, to be specified in the Grace, under the penalty of Fifty Pounds at least.

7. That no Volume containing a Collection of Prints or Drawings shall be taken out of the Library on any account whatever.

8. That certain printed Books also, of which a list is preserved by the Librarian, shall be always kept in the Library.

9. That every one who shall borrow or take any Book out of the Library shall return it thither again on or before the next of the Four following days: viz. September 29th, December 21st, March 25th, June 24th, under penalty of Two Shillings for every Folio or Quarto, and One Shilling for every Book of less size: the penalty to be doubled if the Book be one taken out of the locked up Classes; and all penalties to be repeated every fortnight till the Books be returned, or others of the same editions and equal value placed in their room.

10. That for the purpose of allowing the Librarian sufficient time to inspect the Books, the Library shall be closed for the fourteen days immediately following Michaelmas-day; and also for the two days next after each of the Three other Quarter Days; and that no Books shall be taken out of the Library on the days appointed for the return of Books.

11. That every Tutor of a College (being a Member of the Senate or a Bachelor of Law or Physic) shall have the privilege of obtaining, for each resident pupil, after his admission ad respondendum quæstioni, any number of Volumes not exceeding Five, from the Library: that each order for the Volumes so obtained shall bear the titles of the Books, and be dated and subscribed as follows:

For M. N., B.A., — College.

C. D. Tutor.

That the Books so obtained shall not be taken out of the Library till the day after that on which the Library is re-opened for the Quarter; and that they shall be returned not later than the day before the next Quarter Day.

That the Tutor shall be responsible to the Library for the Books so obtained, and for the penalties prescribed by Rule 9, if they are not returned at the appointed times.

12. That a list of the Books omitted to be returned at the end of any Quarter, together with the names of the borrowers, shall be suspended in some public place in the Library.

13. That no person, from whom any fine is due to the Library, shall be allowed to take out Books until such fine has been paid.

14. That those persons, for whom Tutors of Colleges are allowed under Rule 11 the privilege of obtaining Books, shall be admitted into the Library and allowed to examine the Catalogues and take down Books from the shelves, provided they appear in their Academical Habit.

MEMORANDUM.—Every Candidate for the Degree of B.A. is required to make the following Affirmation before his admission ad respondendum quæstioni: “Dabis fidem quod in Bibliothecam publicam admissus jure isto tuo ita uteris ut quantum in te est nihil inde detrimenti capiat Bibliotheca.”

15. That Undergraduates in their Academical Dress shall be admitted into the Library during the last hour that it is open each day, but shall not be permitted to examine the Catalogues or to take down Books from the shelves. Each Undergraduate, however, shall be required to write his Name and College together with the year and the day of the month in a Book to be kept for that purpose.

16. That persons, who are not Members of the University, shall be admitted into the Library only when accompanied by a Member of the University, who shall remain with them during the whole time they are in the Library; but they shall not in any case be allowed to examine the Catalogues or to take down Books from the shelves: if accompanied by a Bachelor of Arts, or Undergraduate, they shall be admitted only during the last hour that it is open each day.

17. That the Library-keepers shall not be allowed to receive any perquisites for shewing the Library.

18. That the Library shall be closed on the following days, viz. Sundays, Christmas-Day, the Circumcision, the Epiphany, the Purification, Ash-Wednesday, Good-Friday, Easter-Monday and Tuesday, Ascension-Day, Whit-Monday and Tuesday, the Queen's Accession (June 20), All Saints'-Day, November 5th, days which may be appointed by authority for Public Fasts or Thanksgivings, the days mentioned in Rule 10; and on no other days.

19. That the Library shall be open on Saturdays from Ten till One; on January 30th, May 29th, and Saints' Days, from Twelve till Three; and on other days from Ten till Three.

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS.

THE management of the University Press is committed by the Senate to Syndics, who meet to transact business in the Printing-office, and cannot act unless five are present, the Vice-Chancellor being always one.

On the death of the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT, many distinguished personal friends of that statesman and admirers of his public conduct, entered into a subscription for the purpose of erecting some memorial worthy of his name.

By means of the funds thus raised, a marble statue of Mr Pitt, executed by Westmacott, was erected in Westminster Abbey; and another bronze statue of him, executed after a model by Chantry, has been more recently placed in Hanover Square, London. A large sum still remained unexpended; and the Committee at whose disposal the Funds were placed, desiring to employ the surplus in some mode that might contribute to the honour and usefulness of the University in which Mr Pitt had received his education, offered, with a noble liberality, to erect a building, after a design by Mr Blore, which should form the front of the University Printing Offices, and be designated by the name of the PITT PRESS.

This munificent offer was accepted; and a large sum of money was expended by the University in purchasing the necessary site. The first stone of the New Building was laid in 1831 by the Marquis Camden, the chairman of the before-mentioned Committee, attended by the Earl of Clarendon, the Earl of Harrowby, Lord Farnborough, and Henry Banks, Esq. M.P.; also Members of that Committee.

The edifice was completed in 1833.

Strangers and persons in statu pupillari are admitted to this Establishment on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, from Twelve to One o'clock, if accompanied by a Master of Arts.

THE FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM.

RICHARD, Viscount FITZWILLIAM, formerly of Trinity Hall, (M.A. 1764,) who died 5th February, 1816, bequeathed to the University his splendid collection of books, paintings, drawings, engravings, &c., together with the dividends or annual proceeds of £100,000 South Sea Annuities, for the erection of a Museum for their reception.

The dividends on the above-mentioned Stock having accumulated to a sum exceeding £40,000, the University considered that it was now within its power to commence the erecting of the Museum. The competition of Architects was accordingly invited, and the choice fell on Mr George Basevi, jun.

The ceremony of laying the first stone was performed on the 2nd of November, 1837, and the building was steadily advancing towards its completion, when the works were suddenly suspended by the melancholy death of the architect, occasioned by an accidental fall from the tower of Ely Cathedral, Oct. 16, 1845.

C. R. Cockerell, Esq., the architect of the Public Library and many other works, was appointed to succeed him, and to this gentleman are due the designs for the interior of the Entrance-hall and for the fitting up of the Library; the late architect having left no drawings for these two portions of his work. In the course of the year 1847, however, it became evident that the available funds would not suffice for the entire finishing of the Hall, and it was therefore resolved that the building should be temporarily completed for the reception of the Collections, and the farther works suspended for a period of years sufficient to allow of the accumulation of the requisite sum.

In accordance with this plan, the Pictures, Books, and other articles which comprise the Fitzwilliam Collection, together with the Mesman Collection described below, and other presents of the same kind, that had been given to the University from time to time, have been removed into the new building, where they are now open for inspection.

THE late Mr MESMAN bequeathed a valuable collection of Pictures to the University. His brother, the Rev. Mr Mesman (to whom they were bequeathed for his life,) having given up his life-interest in the bequest, the collection came into the immediate possession of the University. These pictures were for many years deposited in one of the apartments of the Pitt Press, but are now removed into the Fitzwilliam Museum. The collection amounts in number to 248 Paintings and 33 Drawings and Prints. Among the Painters are many very distinguished names, Vandyck, Schi-doni, P. Brill, Ruysdael, Canaletti, Teniers, Gerard Dow, Cuyp, Wouvermans, Tintoretto, the Carracci, Holbein, L. Van Leyden, Castiglioni, Van Goyen, &c. &c. &c. The majority of the Pictures are of the Flemish and Dutch schools; and they are considered to be a very genuine collection of the masters whose names they bear.

The Museum has been augmented by many other valuable presents of Paintings, Prints, Books, Statues, Models, and Curiosities; a list of which may be seen in the donation book.

REGULATIONS of the FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM.

The Syndicate appointed Dec. 6, 1848, to consider the Regulations which it may be advisable to adopt for the future management of the Fitzwilliam Museum, beg leave to recommend as follows:—

A.

1. That the general management of the Fitzwilliam Museum be entrusted to a Syndicate composed of the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, the Vice-Chancellors of the two preceding years, and eight other members of the Senate to be appointed by Grace.

2. That of the eight last-mentioned members one retire by rotation on the third of November in each year, and that his place be supplied at the next ensuing congregation, such retiring member not being re-eligible until a year at least shall have elapsed from the time of his retiring. Vacancies occurring in the course of any year by death or resignation to be supplied as speedily as possible.

3. That with regard to the eight members who shall be first appointed, the order of rotation for retiring be that of seniority in Academical standing; but that for all members who shall be appointed to fill their places and for all future members, the order of rotation be that of priority of appointment on the Syndicate, it being understood that the provision for the annual retirement of one member shall not come into operation until Nov. 1850.

4. That there be at least one meeting of the Syndicate in every term, and that five members (the Vice-Chancellor being one) be requisite to constitute a quorum; but that in cases of emergency arising at times when the members of the University are for the most part absent from Cambridge a smaller number be authorized to act, provided they be unanimous.

5. That the following be the principal duties of the Syndicate:

To provide generally for the care of the building; the regulation of the temperature and ventilation; and to direct ordinary repairs and cleaning.

To provide for the care of the collection.

In case of presents being offered to the collection; to decide whether they shall be at once accepted or rejected, or whether the question shall be referred to the Senate.

To carry into effect the regulations for admission; and on special occasions to modify or suspend them.

To inspect the accounts.

In cases of misconduct or incompetency, to reprimand, and, if need be, to dismiss the Curators or servants; but not without the concurrence of a majority of the whole Syndicate.

To make an annual inspection of the building and collection upon a day to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor in the Easter Term of each year; and to invite (if they think proper) other members of the University or strangers to take part in such inspection.

To make an annual report to the Senate of the state of the building and collection, of the expenses incurred, and of such other particulars as may appear to them to require notice.

The Syndicate having carefully examined the Regulations for Admission which are adopted in similar Institutions, beg leave also to recommend the following Rules of Admission for the Fitzwilliam Museum:—

B.

I. For the Picture and Sculpture Galleries and Entrance Hall.

1. The Museum shall be open for inspection every day (with the exceptions after-mentioned) from ten to four during the whole year; and also, except on Saturdays, from five to half-past six from the first of May to the first of September.

2. Every Graduate of the University shall have admission during the whole time that the Museum is open, provided he appear in his academical habit.

3. Every Undergraduate shall have admission after twelve o'clock, provided he appear in his academical habit.

4. There shall be two days appointed in every week, namely, Wednesday and Saturday, which shall be called Public Days, upon which all persons respectably dressed shall be freely admitted (excepting children under ten years of age), between the hours of twelve and four, upon condition that, if required, they give their names and addresses.

5. Every Graduate of the University may introduce any strangers or friends, provided he accompany them and (if strangers) remain with them during the whole time they are in the building.

6. Every Undergraduate of the University may, during the time that the Museum is open, introduce any strangers or friends who do not belong to the University, on delivering a ticket signed by himself and countersigned by the Tutor or Head of his College, containing the name and address of at least one of the party so introduced. He must also accompany the party and remain with them during the whole time they are in the building.

7. Any person desirous of copying the pictures must first obtain express permission from the Vice-Chancellor. Application for such permission shall be accompanied with a written recommendation from some Member of the Senate. The permission shall be granted by means of a ticket, signed by the person applying, and countersigned by the Vice-Chancellor, and specifying the time to which the permission shall extend; it being understood that copyists shall be subjected to rules hereafter to be prepared by the Managing Syndicate.

The bearer of such a ticket will be required to insert his signature in a book to be kept for the purpose; and, if a stranger, must be accompanied upon the first visit to the building by some Resident Member of the Senate.

8. The days upon which the building shall be closed to be the following:—Sundays, Christmas-day, Epiphany, Purification, Ash-Wednesday, Good-Friday, Easter-Monday and Tuesday, Ascension-day, Whit-Monday and Tuesday, and November 5. It shall also remain closed for the purpose of cleaning and verifying the state of the collection on the first Thursday of every month, or oftener if deemed necessary by the Managing Syndicate. Also on the day appointed for the annual inspection by the Syndicate.

II. For the Library.

9. The Library shall remain open during the same days and hours as the Museum.

10. Every Graduate of the University shall have admission to the Library for the purpose of consulting or examining its contents.

11. Any Undergraduate may obtain admission on the delivery of a ticket signed by himself and countersigned by the Tutor or Head of his College.

12. Every Graduate of the University may introduce any strangers or friends into the Library for the purpose of consulting or examining its contents, provided he remain with them during the whole time they are in the apartment. But the rule (4) for the admission to the Museum on public days, and the rule (6) for the admission of strangers by Undergraduates shall not extend to the Library.

13. Any person who wishes to examine or copy the Prints or Manuscripts may apply for permission to do so in the manner prescribed in rule (7).

III.

14. Regulations for examining and copying the Pictures, Prints, and Manuscripts, as well as forms for the tickets required by rules (6), (7), (11), (13), shall be prepared by the Managing Syndicate.

15. The following clause shall be inserted in the profession required of every Candidate for the degree of B.A. :—

And a similar one in the profession required at Matriculation.

16. No money shall be received from Visitors by any of the officers or servants.

The Syndicate beg leave further to recommend :

C.

1. That there shall be three Curators of the Fitzwilliam Museum.

(1) The Curator of the Pictures, Sculptures, and Antiquities.

(2) The Curator of the Library.

(3) The Curator of the Building.

2. That the Curator of the Pictures, &c., shall remain in the galleries during the hours of exhibition, and shall be assisted by two other persons, one of whom shall remain in and about the south gallery, and the other in and about the north gallery and entrance-hall; the duty of all these persons being, not to explain the collection or conduct parties round the galleries, but to watch their respective departments.

3. That the Curator of the Library shall remain therein during the hours of exhibition, and his duty shall be to assist visitors, and generally to take care that the rules which may be hereafter drawn up for the management of the Library be observed.

4. That the Curator of the Building shall manage the admission of persons according to the rules laid down for that purpose, and shall attend to the warming apparatus, and generally to the care and cleaning of the building and fixtures. One servant shall be assigned to him.

This Report was confirmed by Grace of the Senate April 28, 1849, and the following gentlemen appointed as a Managing Syndicate :—

The Master of Jesus College, the Master of Downing College, Dr Paget of Caius College, Professor Willis, Mr Hopkins of St Peter's College,

Mr Hand of King's College, Mr Mathison of Trinity College, and Mr Atlay of St John's College.

Curator of the Pictures—William Key Ridgway.

Curator of the Library—John Massey.

Curator of the Building—T. Smith.

THE BOTANIC GARDEN.

A PIECE of Ground, between three and four acres, was purchased, by the late Dr RICHARD WALKER, Vice-Master of Trinity, for £1600 and appropriated for the purposes of a Botanic Garden. This site having become insufficient, an Act of Parliament was passed empowering the University to procure a fresh one, and to dispose of the former. Thirty acres, within a mile of the town, and lying east of the London road, were accordingly purchased of Trinity Hall. The laying out of this ground is now in progress, and the arboretum and herbaceous beds have been planted. It is intended that the Stoves and Greenhouses should occupy a central situation, and the surrounding parts be laid out in an ornamental style, with shrubberies and walks.

This Garden is under the government of the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Masters of Trinity and St John's, and the Professor of Physic.

Curator—Andrew Murray.

THE CAMBRIDGE OBSERVATORY

WAS erected in 1822-4, after the designs of Mr J. C. Mead, of London, at an expense of upwards of £18,115. About £6000 of this sum was contributed by subscriptions, and the remainder was granted from the public chest of the University.

The principal instruments in the Observatory are a Transit Instrument of 10 feet focal length, by Dollond, a Mural Circle of 8 feet diameter, by Troughton and Simms, which was graduated on its pier; and an Equatoreal of 5 feet focal length with Declination Circle of 3 feet diameter, and Hour Circle of 2 feet Diameter, by Jones. The Transit Clock is by Hardy. There are also two other clocks, one by Molyneux and Cope, and one by Graham, with several smaller instruments, of which some have been purchased by the Plumian Professors according to the regulations of their foundation, and others have been bought by the University, or have been presented to the Observatory by individuals.

On Feb. 27, and March 18, 1829, Graces passed the Senate by which the former regulations for the appointment of the Assistants were revoked, and the following substituted. The Plumian Professor (under whose superintendence the Observatory is placed) is authorised to appoint, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor, one or two Assistant Observers, as he may see necessary; and they or either of them are removeable from the office by the authority of the Plumian Professor with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor: and their annual salaries are to be determined by Graces of the Senate, and to be paid out of the common chest. And on June 11, 1829, and May 14, 1834, the annual salaries of the Assistants were fixed by Grace at £80.

By the Grace of Feb. 27, 1829, it was also ordered, that on the first Congregation of November in each year, a Syndicate should be appointed by Grace of the Senate, who with the Plumian Trustees and the Plumian and Lowndean Professors, should visit the Observatory at least once in each Term; and should in the month of May (after inspecting the instruments, &c., with such Members of the Senate, and strangers distinguished for their knowledge of Astronomy, as the Vice-Chancellor and the Plumian Professor might invite to assist them) make a report to the Senate of the state of the Observatory, and the proceedings of the previous year.

The volumes of Observations made in the years 1828—1843, have been published (the expense of which was defrayed by the Press Syndicate,) and copies have been distributed to the principal Observatories and Academies in Europe, as well as to several private Observers.

The Observatory is open to members of the University and their friends every day (except Sunday), between half-past Twelve and half-past One. No stranger is admitted except in company with a Member of the University.

In the Spring of 1835, a magnificent telescope, of nearly twelve inches aperture and twenty feet focal length, made by M. Cauchoix of Paris, was presented to the Observatory by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland. His Grace at the same time intimated his wish to be allowed to present the telescope in a complete working state. A building has accordingly been erected near the Observatory, with a revolving dome, twenty-seven feet in diameter, and the equatoreal mounting of the telescope has been completed under the superintendence of the late Plumian Professor.

THE ANATOMICAL MUSEUM.

THIS rich and interesting Collection, now placed in commodious buildings lately erected at great cost by the University, is under the care and superintendence of the Professor of Anatomy for the time being. It is used by him and by the Regius Professor of Physic for the illustration of their respective lectures. It originated in a small number of choice preparations which were presented to the University by Mr Lawrence. The Museum of the late Sir Busick Harwood was afterwards added to it by purchase: and further acquisitions were made at various times, with grants of money from the common chest, particularly on occasion of the sale of Mr Brook's Museum, and when a series of models in wax was executed under the direction of the present Professor at Florence and Bologna. From these sources, and from the donations of many friends of the University, this portion of the Collection consists of more than thirteen hundred specimens.

In the year 1836, the rare and valuable collection of Dr Macartney, Professor of Anatomy in Trinity College, Dublin, was purchased by the University. This consists of more than two thousand specimens, and is an acquisition by which the riches of the Museum have in every department, except the osteological, been more than doubled.

A descriptive Catalogue of the entire Museum is in course of preparation. It will distinctly record the names of each of the donors, or authors of the works, which it enumerates.

By a Grace of the Senate, passed Nov. 16, 1836, the Museum is at all times open to the Regius Professor of Physic; to the other Professors of Medicine or Natural Science, to Doctors and Bachelors of Physic, and to all Students attending the Lectures of the Regius Professor of Physic, and of the Professor of Anatomy, or of any of the above-described Professors, from Eleven to Twelve every day, with the exception of Sundays, Christmas-day, and Good Friday. It is also open to all Graduates, and to Visitors introduced by any Member of the Senate, from Two till Three on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

The Museum is visited by the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Physic, and one other Inspector appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, on some day in the Michaelmas Term previous to the 1st of November in each year, who examine and report upon its condition to the Senate.

THE GEOLOGICAL MUSEUM.

THE original collection in the Geological Museum consisted exclusively of those specimens, English and Foreign, which are described in Dr Woodward's Catalogues, printed in 1729. The English Fossils were bequeathed by him to the University; and by a Grace of the Senate, dated Feb. 26, 1728-9, the Vice-Chancellor was empowered to purchase of his heirs, for a sum not exceeding £1000, the foreign fossils described in the above-mentioned catalogues. This purchase having been carried into immediate effect, the whole collection came into the possession of the University, and remains nearly in the same order, and in the same ancient cabinets, in which the Doctor first arranged it. Two Graduates of the University are annually appointed to inspect its condition, and their report is delivered on the 1st of May to the Heads of Houses, who form a board of Auditors under the provisions of the Founder's will.

This noble monument of the talents and unwearied labours of Dr Woodward long remained in a room ill fitted for its reception, where the specimens which formed the best part of the collection could not be well exhibited: but, during the summer of 1841, it was removed into a convenient and well-lighted closet, in the north-eastern corner of the Museum, under the new wing of the Public Library.

It not merely possesses a great historical value, as representing the condition of a progressive science during the latter half of the 17th century; but it contains such a large series of organic remains, with the locality of each specimen carefully recorded, that almost every part of secondary geology may still derive from it many important illustrations. Out of respect to the Founder it will therefore be preserved in its original state, unmixed with the more recent additions to the Museum.

Professor Green added some valuable organic remains to the Woodwardian cabinets. But Professor Hailstone, after his appointment, formed another distinct collection composed of many rare and beautiful simple minerals, and of specimens illustrative of the physical structure both of the British Isles and of some portions of the Continent. In this labour he was assisted by the munificence of various friends of the University.

During the last twenty-five years continual additions have been made to the collection; partly by the personal labours of the present Professor and his friends, and partly by the purchase of specimens made from time to time by the University, under the sanction of the Board of Auditors, out of the Woodwardian surplus: so that it now contains many thousand specimens of organic remains illustrating the natural history of the British rocks, from the newest beds above the chalk, to the lowest fossiliferous strata of Cumberland and North Wales. In 1843, a magnificent Plesiosaurus was added to the collection by a subscription of the members of the University. It contains also a noble series of many thousand rock-specimens from the most important formations of the British Isles. A considerable time must, however, elapse before all these specimens can be permanently arranged; but there is now ample room for their accommodation in the cabinets of the New Museum.

The Museum also contains some good foreign collections, among which may be specified, (1) A miscellaneous series of many thousand fossils, purchased (in 1840) of Count Münster; (2) A beautiful series of organic remains from the Muschelkalk; (3) A series of specimens, illustrating the tertiary geology of France, partly collected, and partly purchased by the present Professor.

Several years must elapse before all the above-mentioned collections can be put in complete order, and described in catalogues. A considerable progress has, however, been already made in this labour; so that the Museum has become available to the public, and of great value to the Geological Student.

THE MINERALOGICAL MUSEUM.

THE 'Collection' of Minerals formed by the late Dr Edward Daniel Clarke, which was purchased after his death by the University for the sum of £1500, was for some time kept in one of the apartments at the Pitt Press, by permission of the Syndics of the Press: it was removed in 1841 to the Mineralogical Museum under the West-end of the new Library.

The Museum contains, besides many rare and fine minerals presented by the Marquis of Northampton, the Rev. C. Francis, and others, a very extensive and complete collection, of minerals well adapted for the purpose of instruction, presented by Professor Whewell.

Soon after the completion of the Museum, Viscount Alford gave the University the rich collection of minerals and diamonds formed by the late Sir Abraham Hume, Bart. This collection is arranged in the Mineralogical Museum, but kept distinct from the rest of the minerals belonging to the University.

ST PETER'S COLLEGE.

MSS. HARLEY, No. 7032, p. 187. New,—No. 7046, p. 132.

THIS most ancient College or House was founded by HUGH DE BALSHAM, Bishop of Ely, for a Master and fourteen Fellows.

The Fellowships are open without restriction to natives of any part of the British dominions, but no one is eligible who is M.A. or of sufficient standing to take that degree. The Bishop of Ely appoints to the Mastership one of two candidates presented to him by the Society. The candidates must be Doctors or Bachelors of Divinity, and must be selected, if possible, from the Fellows on the foundation. Formerly, there could not be more than two Fellows of a county, (except of Cambridge or Middlesex); and seven Fellowships were confined to the northern, and seven to the southern division of England and Wales; but these restrictions were removed by letters patent which came into operation in June 1839.

One fourth part only of the Foundation Fellows are required to be in priest's orders. By Queen Elizabeth's licence, the five senior Clerical Fellows may hold any livings with their Fellowships, provided they are not more than £20 in the Liber Regis, and within 20 miles of the University of Cambridge. The bye Fellowships, which are perfectly open and unrestricted, are distinct from the former: the possessors of them are not entitled to any office or voice in the affairs of the College. Two, founded 1589, by Andrew Perne, D.D. Two, 1601, by Lady Ramsay. And four, 1637, by Thomas Parke, Esq.

Two Fellowships of £70 per annum each, and four new Scholarships of £30 per annum each, have recently been added to the College, from the donation of the Rev. Francis Gisborne, M.A. late Fellow of St Peter's.

This foundation bears the name of the donor. The two Gisborne Fellowships are tenable for seven years, and any person may be elected from either of them into a foundation Fellowship before he is of standing to take his M.A. degree. Any candidate for a Gisborne Fellowship must have been either a scholar of this foundation, or a scholar of the College. These Fellowships are vacated by marriage, or by the possession of any permanent income amounting to £250 per annum.

The rest of the Scholarships, fifty-eight in number, of different value, are paid in proportion to residence. A few of them are in the patronage of Lord Melbourne, and preference is given to scholars from Hertford School. There is an exhibition from the Company of Cloth-workers, and one from the Ironmongers. The Society elect one sizar annually, after an examination at the beginning of the October term. The candidates must be in the first year of their residence, and must have been previously admitted as pensioners.

Annual Prizes are given, together with the vacant Scholarships, to those who are most successful in the Midsummer Examination. A deserving candidate may obtain more than one Scholarship at the end of his first year, and may also be elected to others at the end of his second and third years.

CLARE HALL.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, New Mss. HARLEY, No. 7932, p. 319. Old,—No. 7041, p. 53. New University Library, Mss. Mm. 3. 5.

THIS ancient College, Hall, or House, founded by Lady ELIZABETH, sister and co-heir of GILBERT, Earl of CLARE, consists of a Master, ten Senior or Foundation Fellows, nine Junior, and three Bye-appropriation Fellows, besides Scholars, Students, and Foundation Servants. All these Fellowships, with the exception of those which are appropriated, are perfectly open to all persons who are Bachelors of Arts, or of a higher degree, no one being superannuated, or incapable of being a candidate on account of age or length of standing in the University. An election must take place within ten weeks and three days after a Fellowship has become vacant. The electors are, the Master, Senior and Junior Fellows; and, in case there be an equal division, the Master has the casting vote. The Master is elected by the above-mentioned Fellows within eleven days after a vacancy is known, and a candidate must be either a Bachelor or Doctor in Divinity. Fellows neglecting to take the degree of M.A. at the regular time, are punished by a fine; but the degree of B.D. has not of late years been required. The Seniors must all profess the faculty of Divinity except two, who, with the consent of the Master and major part of the Fellows, may practise Law and Physic. Six of the Seniors must be in Priest's Orders.

The nine Junior Fellowships were founded by different benefactors, (viz. three by Lord Exeter in 1612, two by John Freeman, Esq. in 1622, and four from the estates bequeathed to the college by Joseph Diggons, Esq. in 1658.) Of these, two may be held by laymen, the other seven require Priest's Orders after a certain standing. They enjoy the same privileges as the Seniors.

The Three Bye-appropriation Fellows have no voice in any college business, can hold no college office, and are incapable of being ever elected into any other Fellowship. They are obliged to take Priest's Orders within seven years after they are Bachelors of Arts. Two of these Fellowships, founded by Mr Philpot, are appropriated to natives of Kent, with a preference to those born in the hundred of Blackheath. The third was founded by Mr Borage, for his name and kindred, or a Norfolk or a Norwich man. This Fellowship is not tenable by a Non-Regent Master of Arts.

There are eight Scholarships lately increased, four of which are £50 per annum each, and the other four £20 each, besides a weekly allowance in the butteries of 3s. 3d. during residence. They are tenable by undergraduates only, and are so arranged that one on each foundation shall be vacant every year. There are also,

One founded by Sir John Trott, value £20 per annum, and tenable till M.A.

One founded by Mr Ralph Scrivener, value about £14 per annum.

Two by Mr Cave, appropriated to Scholars from Wakefield School, value one guinea each per week during residence.

One by Alexander Metcalfe, appropriated to a Scholar from Hull School, value 12s. per week during residence.

One by Benjamin Cherry, Esq, of £40 per annum, appropriated to natives of Hertford; or in case of there not being a candidate from thence sufficiently qualified, open to general competition.

One by the Rev. J. Hinman, formerly Fellow, of £30 per annum. This will be filled up in Jan. 1851.

Besides these there are upwards of thirty other Scholarships, varying in value from two to six shillings per week, and being allowances in the butteries during residence.

All the above Scholarships (except the four specified) are open to all competitors, and the annual examination takes place at the same time as the Senate-House Examination for the degree of B.A.

Four exhibitions of £20 per annum each, were founded by Archdeacon Johnson, with a preference to persons educated at Oakham and Uppingham Schools.

The present Society wish to admit no more than three Sizars.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

ONE of ten pounds, left by Mr Greaves of Fulbourn, to any Bachelor of Arts (not a Fellow of the college) who shall compose the best Dissertation on the character of King William III. It must be sent to the Master on or before Michaelmas-day, with the name under seal in the ordinary manner, and that which is adjudged to be the best is recited on the 4th of November in the Hall of the college.

Two silver cups, with appropriate inscriptions, value £6 each, left by Dr Robert Green, of Tamworth; the first as the reward of regularity of conduct, the second of general learning. The first this year adjudged to Ds Collett, the second to Ds Bell. A prize of books of equal value was adjudged to Ds Bloomfield.

Prizes are given for the best declamation and theme; and to the best reader in chapel.

There is also an annual examination about the division of the Easter Term, when two prizes of £20 and £10 respectively are given to the first and second man in Mathematics in each year; and a prize not exceeding £10 to the first man in classics, of the second and third years, provided they pass their examination with credit, in addition to prizes in books, bearing the college arms, to all such who may be thought deserving.

PEMBROKE COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1347.)

THIS College was founded under the name of VALENCE-MARY, by Mary de St Paul, the widow of Aymer de Valence, Earl of Pembroke; and King Henry VI. was so liberal a benefactor to it, as to obtain the name of a second Founder.

There are fourteen Foundation Fellowships open to persons of every nation, and unrestricted as to counties, except that in the election to that Fellowship which was established by Archbishop Grindal, formerly Master of the College, a preference is given to a Scholar educated at St Begh's School in Cumberland.

Although there may be no Fellowship vacant, yet a candidate is never considered as superannuated.

When more than twelve of the Fellowships are filled, six of the Fellows must be in Orders; when less than twelve are filled, four of the Fellows must be in Orders.

There are also two Bye-Fellowships, one founded by William Smart, Esq. of Ipswich, with a preference for the Scholars on his own foundation in this College; the other founded by Benjamin Lany, D.D. formerly Bishop of Ely and Master of the College.

---

The Scholarships belonging to the College are,

Six Foundation of the yearly value of £28 each.

Three, founded by Archbishop Grindal, of the yearly value of £28 each, for Scholars educated at St Begh's School.

Eight Greek, seven founded by Thomas Watts, D.D. formerly Archdeacon of Middlesex, and the other by Thomas James, Esq. Of these the four Senior Scholarships are of the yearly value of £14 each, and the four Junior of the yearly value of £12 each.

Six others, two founded by William Smart, Esq., and four by Ralph Scrivener, Esq. of the yearly value of £5 each, with a preference for those who have been educated at the Grammar School at Ipswich.

Six, founded by Charles Parkin, M.A. formerly Rector of Oxburgh in Norfolk, of the yearly value of £50. Of these five are for such Scholars of Merchant Tailors' School as have been there four years at the least immediately before their removal to the University, with a preference for such of them as are superannuated; and the other for one who has been a Scholar of the Free School at Bowes in Yorkshire for two years at the least immediately before removal to the University. When there are no properly qualified Candidates from the aforesaid Schools, these Scholarships are at the free disposal of the Master of the College.

One, founded by William Stuart, D.D. formerly Chancellor of the Diocese of Exeter, of the yearly value of £80, for a superannuated Scholar of Merchant Tailors' School, who has been there five years at the least immediately before appointment.

The Exhibitions belonging to the College are—

One, of the yearly value of £70, founded by Mr John Holmes, for a Scholar educated at Blackrode School in Lancashire. This Exhibition is given by the Governors of the School, and the Scholar who holds it also receives from the College an additional Exhibition, the gift of Mr Warren, formerly a Blackrode Scholar, of the yearly value of £5.

Several founded by Sergeant Moses, who presided over the College during the time of the Commonwealth, of the yearly value of £50 each, for Scholars educated at Christ's Hospital, which Exhibitions they hold in addition to others of the yearly value of £80 each, allowed by the Governors of the School.

One, of the yearly value of £6, founded by Roger Long, D.D. formerly Master, for a Scholar appointed by the Master to keep the key of the room in which Dr Long's sphere is placed.

Besides the above there are other Exhibitions, given to the College by Robert Mapletoft, D.D. formerly Master, and by others, to which the College have made such an addition that three Sizars may have £12 each yearly.

The enjoyment of one Scholarship or Exhibition does not preclude a deserving person from holding others on different Foundations.

There is an annual Examination at the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books are given to the best proficients in each year.

A prize of books is also given annually to the author of the best Compositions in Latin Verse and Prose.

GONVILLE AND CAIUS COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1348.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the University Library.

Mss. Mm. 4. 20.

THIS College, originally styled 'Gonville Hall, was founded in 1348, by EDMUND GONVILLE, son of Sir Nicholas Gonville, rector of Terrington, in Norfolk, and endowed for a Master and three Fellows. He gave statutes, which are still existing. The original site was between Free-School Lane and the churchyard of St Botolph's.

The name of the College and its situation were both changed by William Bateman, Bishop of Norwich, whom Gonville had appointed to be his executor. In 1353, Bateman established the College where the Gonville Court at present stands; and previously to this removal he had changed Gonville's statutes for statutes of his own, and altered the name to the "Hall of the Annunciation of Blessed Mary the Virgin." Thus, and by certain endowments, he made himself a SECOND FOUNDER.

The revenues were afterwards increased by various Benefactors.

In 1558, JOHN CAIUS, M.D., the THIRD FOUNDER, obtained the Royal Charter by which the former Foundations were all confirmed, and his own foundation was established. By this charter the College was thenceforward to be called GONVILLE and CAIUS College.

FELLOWSHIPS.

There are now twenty-nine FELLOWSHIPS. Twelve of these are called Senior Fellowships:

THREE, of the old Foundation, are open without restriction as to profession or place of birth.

ONE, by Dame Mary Pakenham, founded in 1393, open to natives of all counties.

ONE, by Stephen Smith, Rector of Blomorton, in 1478, for one in priest's orders.

ONE, by the Lady Ann Scroope, in 1502, for one in priest's orders, born in the Norwich diocese.

ONE, by Thomas Willowes, in 1503, for one in priest's orders.

ONE, by John Bayly, D.D., in 1534, open without restriction as to profession or place of birth.

ONE, by Mrs Elizabeth Clere, for one in priest's orders, born in the Norwich diocese.

THREE, by Dr Caius, in 1558, of whom two are to be physicians and one studying Theology, for men of Norfolk.

The government of the College is vested in the Master and these twelve senior Fellows.

The other Fellowships are as follows:

ONE, founded by Dr Wendy in 1559, for one in priest's orders, and born in the Norwich diocese.

SIX, founded by Mrs Joyce Frankland in 1586, open without restriction as to profession or place of birth.

ONE, by Mr Matthew Stokys, Fellow, by will, dated 1631, for one in priest's orders.

SIX, by Stephen Perse, M.D., by will dated 1615; open without restriction as to profession or place of birth; but with a preference in favour of his own Scholars.

THREE, by Mr Bartholomew Wortley, Rector of Bratton Fleming, N. Devon, in 1742. To one of these, N. Devon has a claim; another is confined to Norfolk.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The SCHOLARSHIPS in the gift of the College were founded by Dr Caius, Mr Willowes, Mrs Frankland, Mr Stokys, Dr Perse, Mr Sigo, Mr Gale, Mr Atkin, Mrs Hore, Mr Hewet, Mrs Trapps, Dr Bisby, Abp Parker, Mr Willison, Mr Cutting, Dr Harvey, Dr Branthwaite, Dr Gostlin, Bp Cosins, and Mr Stockton. They are as follows:

Three of £60 a year.

One ..... £40 .....

Three..... £36 .....

Six, Perse, £30 ..... together with the option of rooms, rent-free, in the Perse Building.

One.....£28 a year.

One.....£22 .....

Two.....£20 ..... One of these, which was founded by Mr Mickleburgh, is given annually for proficiency in Chemistry.

Twenty.....£20. 6s. 8d. Three of these are given for proficiency in Anatomy and Physiology; and five of these scholars have rooms in the Caius Court, rent-free, except a small reserve.

Two.....£13. 6s. 8d.

One.....£12. 15s. 8d.

One.....£12. 1s. 8d: with rooms in the Gonville Court, rent-free, except a small reserve.

One.....£8.

The annual stipends of the Scholars receive a small augmentation from the Tancred bequest.

The Scholarships are held in general till the Lady-day after B.A. degree; but, if a Scholar obtain certain honours in the examinations for B.A. degree, he retains his Scholarship either until he is elected into a Fellowship, or until the Lady-day previous to his taking the degree of M.A.

Elections to Scholarships are made by the Master and Senior Fellows in the month of June. They are guided in the election by the joint results of the two examinations, in Classics and Theology, and in Mathematics, in the first or second year of the student's course; or by his progress in study at a later period.

EXHIBITIONS.

The EXHIBITIONS are eighteen in number. They may be held either by Scholars or by others.

THREE, on the Wortley foundation, each £18 per annum. One of these is given annually for merit in an Examination in Moral Philosophy.

The appointment to these is made by the Master.

FOUR, on the Peters' Foundation, each £20; to which the Master presents. They are tenable for a year after the B.A. degree.

THREE, founded by the College, £10 each.

FOUR, founded by Dr Belward, who died 1803, each £14, (the appointment to be made by the Master;) for Students, being Norfolk men, and in need. They may be held until the time of taking the degree of M.A.

ONE, by Dr Moss, £5 per annum, in the gift of the Master: to be held until the exhibitioner is Master of Arts.

ONE, by Bishop Gooch, in 1750, £4; in the gift of the Master.

ONE, by Mr Parham, in 1711, £6.

ONE, by Mr Fairclough, 1689, of £5.

These Exhibitions, with the exceptions specified, are held until the Lady-day subsequent to the degree of B.A.

TANCRED STUDENTSHIPS.

There are also connected with the College:

FOUR STUDENTSHIPS in Medicine, founded by Christopher Tancred<sup>1</sup>, Esq. each of the annual value £113. 8s.

The Candidate who is elected to one of these Studentships is obliged to enter at this College within a month from the time of election; or to remove hither, if he be a member of any other College.

These Students are required to take the degree of Bachelor in Physic as soon as they are of sufficient standing for the same; and they may hold the Studentship for three years after their degree. Those therefore who are elected previous to admission at any College, can hold them eight years. The electors to these Studentships are, the Masters of Caius and Christ's Colleges, the President of the College of Physicians, the Treasurer of Lincoln's Inn, the Master of the Charter-House, and the Governors of Greenwich and Chelsea Hospitals. The Trustees hold their meetings at Lincoln's Inn, on Wednesday in Whitsun-week, and on the Wednesday after St Martin's day.

HARROW SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS, founded A.D. 1830, by John Sayer, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, and formerly a Senior Fellow of the College, of the annual stipend £52. 10s. The Scholars are elected by the Governors of Harrow School, and proceed to this College.

<sup>1</sup> C. Tancred, Esq. (who died August 1754) also founded four Studentships of nearly the same annual value, appropriated to Law, to be held only by Students of Lincoln's Inn, who are not required to be Members of the University.

TWO EXHIBITIONS, founded at Harrow School, by John Lyon, A.D. 1590. Each exhibitioner at present receives £10 yearly, for four years.

LECTURES.

In subjects of the Mathematical course Lectures are given to the Students of each year daily; in the Classical and Theological subjects fixed upon, twice or thrice in the week; there are also three Lectures in the week for practice in Composition and general questions in Classics.

A Course of Lectures in Moral Philosophy is given to the Junior Sophs by the Catechist each year in the Easter Term.

Lectures in Hebrew are given by the Hebrew Lecturer.

The Medical Lecturer, whose office is to direct the studies of declared 'Medical Students,' gives weekly Examinations in the subject of the Professor's Lectures, and once a year he gives a course of Lectures on Medical Jurisprudence.

The Sadlerian Lecturer gives his Course of Lectures on Algebra in the Lent Term of each year.

EXAMINATIONS, ANNUAL PRIZES, &c.

The Examination in Classics and Theology is held at the end of the Lent Term. The Mathematical Examination takes place about the division of the Easter term. After each of these examinations prizes, in books, of five and three guineas value, are given to the first and second of the Junior Sophs; and, of the same value, to the first and second of the Freshmen.

The Senior Sophs are examined at the end of the Lent Term and at the division of the Easter Term, in the Theological subjects appointed for their B.A. degree; and prizes, in books, are given to those who are placed in the first class.

There is an Examination in Moral Philosophy also, about the division of the Easter Term, for the Junior Sophs; the first on the list made in the order of merit obtains one of the exhibitions of £18 value. In 1849 awarded to A. R. Hubbard.

An Examination in Anatomy and Physiology is held at the beginning of May. To the student who displays the greatest proficiency is assigned one of the Caiian Scholarships, tenable for three years. All the Medical Students are expected to pass this Examination between their seventh term of residence and the period of taking the B.M. degree. In 1849 the first place was obtained by Burd.

The Examination in Chemistry takes place about the same time. Medical Students must pass this examination before the degree of B.M. The Student who answers best obtains the Mickleburgh Scholarship, and holds it for one year. All Students who have not entered on their sixth year are eligible to this Scholarship. Bachelors of Arts may be candidates in the next two examinations after their degree. In 1849 the Scholarship was adjudged to Martin.

The Thruston speech, upon the progress of Medicine since the time of Dr Caius, is made on May 11, at Dr Wendy's commemoration. The speaker is presented with the sum of £18; he is chosen by the Master and Fellows out of the Medical Graduates, the appointment being made in rotation according to seniority among the Doctors in Medicine. If there be none of that Degree who have not had the appointment, it is given to the Licentiate or Bachelor of Medicine who presents the best English Essay on a Medical subject proposed by the College in the preceding October.

The Wortley Speech, on some literary or philosophical subject is delivered on Feb. 23, the commemoration of Mr Wortley, by one of the Fellows on his Foundation.

The Tancred Speech, in Latin, in perpetual remembrance of the foundation, is delivered annually on October 21, by one of the the Tancred Students.

PLATE to the value of £10, the gift in 1774 of Dr Schuldham is awarded each year to one judged worthy amongst the commencing Bachelors of Arts. In 1849 awarded to Phear.

TRINITY HALL.

(FOUNDED 1350.)

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum.

Mss. HARLEY, No. 7029, p. 385.

At this College, at which the Study of Common and Civil Law is encouraged as well as that of the usual University Subjects, there are, in all, thirteen Fellowships, open to all her Majesty's subjects, wheresoever born, without restriction. Bishop BATEMAN, the founder and noble benefactor of this institution, originally intended to have founded twenty fellowships; but dying before the designed foundation was completed, (viz. A.D. 1355, at Avignon,) his legacy was only deemed sufficient for the maintenance of a Master, three Fellows, and two Scholars. The nine remaining Fellowships were founded by the following Benefactors:—Two by Simon Dalling; three by Bishop Nix; one by Robert Goodnape; one by Dr Hewke; one by Dr Mowse; and one by the College. Of the above Fellows, who are on a footing of perfect equality, it is usual that ten should be laymen, and two in holy Orders. Graduates in Arts, not of less standing than within one year of the time of incepting as M.A., and Students of three years' standing in Civil Law, are eligible.

Horatio Goodbehere, in the year 1821, left to the College, subject to a life interest, funded property producing nearly £100. per annum, for the purpose of founding a Fellowship. The Society, on coming into possession of the property in the year 1849, determined to apply these funds, augmented by the College, to the foundation of a Clerical Fellowship, subject to residence for a certain part of each term. The Goodbehere Fellow may be elected into either of the other Clerical Fellowships, his admission into such vacating the Goodbehere Fellowship; he may also be appointed to College Offices and presented to livings. Any Graduate in Arts or student in Civil Law who has performed the exercises for the LL.B. degree may be a candidate for this fellowship.

LAW STUDENTSHIPS.

Some Law Studentships of the value of £50 per annum, were established by the College in the year 1849, tenable for two or three years, as the Society may determine. Graduates in Arts and also Students of Civil Law who have kept their terms and performed the exercises requisite for the LL.B. degree, are eligible to these Studentships, provided they be bona fide prosecuting the study of the Law with a view to practising as barristers, or as advocates in Doctors' Commons. The first Student will be elected after the publication of the Lists of Honours in the various Triposes in the year 1852, and in general, there will be at least one vacancy in every succeeding year.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

There are in all fifteen Scholarships, namely,

Three of the First Class of 50 guineas a year each;

Three of the Second Class of 30 ... ..

Nine of the Third Class of 12 ... ..

These Scholarships are awarded according to merit to Undergraduates who distinguish themselves at the College Examinations in the Lent and Midsummer Terms of their first or second year, and are tenable during residence.

There is also an Exhibition, worth about £30 a year, to which the duties of Chapel Clerk are annexed, arising in part from a bequest of Sir George Oxenden, formerly Master of the College. This Exhibition is generally given away annually to one of the more distinguished of the Scholars; agreeably to the will of Sir George Oxenden, a certain preference is to be given, first, to the sons of Kentish Clergymen, secondly, to the sons of Clergymen in general.

The Scholarships were founded by the following Benefactors, and have been subsequently augmented by College grants: Two as above by Bishop Bateman; one by Simon Dalling; one by Mr Spicer; two by Bishop Nicke; one by Lawrence Maptyde; one by Gabriel Dunne; two by Dr Hervey; one by Archbishop Parker; two by Dr Bushby; one by Dr Mowse; two by Dr Allen.

Of the 12 guinea Scholarships two are founded by Dr Allen, with preference cæteris paribus—first, to founder's kin; secondly, to Scholars from the Free Grammar School at Richmond, Yorkshire; thirdly, to Scholars from any other School in Yorkshire; fourthly, to Scholars from the Norwich Diocese; and fifthly, to Scholars from the town or county of Cambridge.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Prizes are given for the best Exercises in English and Latin Composition. The subjects are proposed at the end of the Lent Term, and the exercises must be delivered in before the end of the following Michaelmas Term.

Prizes to the amount of £5. 5s. and £3. 3s. are given in Books to the two best proficient, both of the first and second year at the College Examinations.

CORPUS CHRISTI COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1351.)

The Statutes have been printed in Dr Lamb's edition of Masters' History of the College. A Copy is in the University Library. Mss. Gg. 4. 8.

THIS College was founded by the benevolence of two Societies or GUILDS in Cambridge termed "GILDA CORPORIS CHRISTI," and "GILDA BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS:" there are twelve Fellowships: eight are open to all the Queen's subjects wherever born; two are appropriated to natives of Norfolk, and two to the Norwich Scholars on Archbishop Parker's foundation. All the Fellows are required to take orders within three years after their election, and the degree of B.D. within eight years after that of M.A.

The Scholarships and Exhibitions are as follow:

* Eight on the old foundation not appropriated. These Scholarships have recently been augmented by a college grant of £15 per annum each; and are given to such students as excel in an annual examination.

Three 1567, two 1569, by Archbishop Parker; patrons, the Mayor and Aldermen of Norwich. The former are appropriated to men born at Norwich; the latter to natives of Norwich, Wymondham, or Aylsham, students of their respective schools.

§ Three, 1569—The right of nomination belongs, 1st, To the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, who are to appoint such sons of their Norfolk, Suffolk, and Lincolnshire tenants as are educated at the school of that city. 2dly, To the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, for students from Westminster School. 3rdly, To the Master and Fellows, for students from any seminary in the province of Canterbury. Value £20 a year.

§ Two, 1569, patrons, the Master of Eastbridge Hospital and the Dean of Canterbury, appropriated to natives of Kent, educated at Canterbury School.

Note.—All the Scholarships marked § were founded by Archbishop Parker, and to those with the asterisk preceding, the Master and Fellows are Patrons.

* All the Scholarships, to 1618 inclusive, vary from 1s. to 2s. 3½d. a week; and to those founded in 1567, 1569, (except that founded by Mr Meres) 1574, and 1577, nine rooms are appropriated.

§One, 1574, patrons, the Mayor, and aldermen of Norwich: appropriation the same as in the other scholarships of this patronage.

*One, 1652, by John Meres, appropriated to a native of Cambridgeshire.

Six, 1577, by Sir Nicholas Bacon, Lord Keeper: patrons, 1st, Heirs male of Sir Nicholas, with the advice of a Fellow sent by the College, and the Master of Redgrave School. 2dly, The Master and Fellows. Appropriation, 1st, To students from Redgrave School. 2dly, In default of such, to any students.

Three, 1580, by John Parker, Esq.; patrons of one, the Archbishop of Canterbury: of the other, the Master and Fellows. Appropriation, the Archbishop to appoint a native of Canterbury, from the School there; the Master and Fellows, natives of Aylsham and Wymondham, educated at their respective schools.

Four, 1695, by Roger Manners, Esq. unappropriated; patrons of three, the Master and Fellows; of the fourth, the Master only.

*Three, 1618, by Alice Caston, not appropriated; the names of Caston, Clench, Brownrig, and Amfield, to have a preference.

*One, 1636, by John Borage, value £5 a year; the name and kindred of the founder to be preferred; in default of such, a native of Norfolk or Norwich.

*One, 1659, by Edward Colman, value £20 a year; appropriated to one or more of the founder's name: in default of such, to four Scholars from Norwich and Wymondham Schools.

*Two, 1677, by Archbishop Sterne, value £10 a year each; appropriated to natives of York and Mansfield; 2dly, To natives of the York Diocese.

One, 1693, by Dr Spencer, the Master patron, not appropriated. value £20 a year with rooms.

*Three, 1700, by Samuel Chapman, value 1s. a week.

*Four, 1766, by George Sykes, value £10 a year each; appropriated to students from St Paul's School.

One, 1781, by John Stock, Esq., appropriated to the Master of St Paul's School; value £30 a year, with the accumulation during a vacancy, except £15 paid to the college; appropriated to a student from St Paul's School.

*Twelve, 1794, by Bishop Mawson, given to such students as excel in an annual examination; present value, eight of £30, four of £40 a year each, payable weekly, according to residence.

MANUSCRIPT LIBRARY.

THE valuable Manuscript Library, left by Archbishop Parker to this college, is under the following particular restrictions: Every year on the 6th of August, it is to be visited by the Masters or locum-tenentes of Trinity Hall and Caius College, with two scholars on Archbishop Parker's foundation, and if on examination of the library, twenty-five books are missing, or cannot be found within six months, the whole collection devolves to Caius. In that case, the Masters or locum-tenentes of Trinity Hall and Corpus Christi College, with two scholars on the same foundation, are the visitors; and if Caius College be guilty of the like neglect, the books to be delivered up to Trinity Hall: then the Master or locum-tenentes of Caius and Corpus Christi, with two such scholars, become the inspectors; and in case of default on the part of Trinity Hall, the whole collection reverts back to its former order.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

KING's COLLEGE.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, MSS. HARLEY, No. 7323.—A Specimen in the University Library, MSS. BAKER, Vol. XXXII. p. 219.

THIS royal foundation consists of a Provost and seventy Fellows and Scholars; the latter are supplied by a regular succession from Eton College, which was founded and endowed about the same time by King HENRY VI. The Society of Eton now consists of a Provost, seven Fellows, and seventy Scholars; and the vacancies at King's for the last twenty years have averaged under four in the year. The time of electing scholars into the royal foundation of Eton, is about the end of July or beginning of August; at which time a general examination as to their proficiency in classics takes place, before the Provost of each college, the Vice-Provost and Head Master of Eton, and two posers or examiners nominated by King's. After such examination the scholars are placed in the order of their future succession to King's, and on a vacancy in the latter, they are admitted upon that foundation; and after the expiration of three years from the day of their admission, they are chosen <sup>1</sup>Fellows, or are no longer Members of the College.

Some peculiar privileges appertain to King's. The Provost has absolute authority within the precincts, and by special composition between this Society and the University, its undergraduates are exempt from the power of the Proctors and other University Officers, within the limits of the college: and they are in no way examined by the University for their Bachelor of Arts' degree.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Dr COOKE (formerly Provost) left £6 to such scholar or scholars as shall be adjudged to have deserved well by application to their studies and general orderly behaviour.—Last year adjudged to Rogers, Gully, and Wayte.

Dr GLYNN bequeathed £20 to be equally divided, towards the end of Easter Term, between such scholars of the said college as have in the course of the year been most distinguished for learning and regularity of conduct.—Last year adjudged to Booth and C. James.

There are two £5 prizes for Latin Declamations, left by Dr James.

<sup>1</sup> This and Trinity Hall are the only colleges at which undergraduates can be elected Fellows. Here, however, they are obliged to take both Bachelor's and Master's degree in the University when of sufficient standing, or otherwise they are not entitled to the full proportion of their dividends.

There are two £5 prizes for English Declamations, given annually by the college.

There is also a prize of £5 given by the college to the best translation of an English subject into Greek Iambics.

GEORGE RICHARDS, Esq., (formerly Fellow) bequeathed to the College the annual sum of £50, "of which sum thirty pounds shall be given annually in his third year to such Scholar who shall have most distinguished himself in his own College and University in Divinity and the Classics, and twenty pounds also annually in his third year to such Scholar who shall have excelled and passed the best examination in Mathematics, particular respect being had in both cases to moral and religious conduct." The death of this munificent benefactor occurred so lately that, as yet, no Scholar has derived any advantage from his benefaction.

QUEENS' COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1446—RE-FOUNDED 1465.)

The Statutes have been printed, for the use of the Society. Copies exist in the University Library, MSS. BAKER, XXXII. p. 241, also British Museum, MSS. COLE, XLVII. p. 357.

THIS College was founded by the two Queens, MARGARET of Anjou, consort of Henry VI. (in 1448,) and ELIZABETH WIDVILLE, consort of Edward IV. (1465.)

The President must be elected by a majority of the whole existing body, on the eighth day after a vacancy, and must be (at least) a B.D. He must also be possessed of property to the amount of £20 per annum if not a Fellow at the time of his election.

There are nineteen Foundation Fellowships perfectly unrestricted. All the Fellows within four years from commencing B.A. must proceed to M.A.; those who are on the ecclesiastical foundation must, within two years from M.A., be in Holy Orders, and within nine years from M.A. proceed to B.D. Only two Fellows may remain laymen, who proceed to M.A. like the rest, and within twelve years from M.A. the one must proceed to LL.D. the other to M.D. The Vice-President and the five Seniors hold their Fellowships with property; the others recede from the Society when possessed of a real annual income stated in the oath before admission. The five senior Divines may hold livings not exceeding £20 per annum, and within twenty miles of Cambridge. On the petition of the Society, the Crown has frequently dispensed with some of the above restrictions.

A Fellowship was founded in 1694, by D. Edwards, gent. This is perfectly open, may be held by a Layman, and is tenable with any property or preferment, except ecclesiastical to a certain amount. Edwards's Fellow has no vote in the Society, and his privileges consist chiefly in a title to rooms and commons.

The Scholarships, which were consolidated some years ago, have been again consolidated and augmented by college grants; and it has been agreed by the President and Fellows that there shall in future be 15 Scholarships, tenable till B.A., two of which shall be £50 a year, two £40, and eleven £15. vacated ipso facto by non-residence of two consecutive terms.

These Scholarships are disposed as follows:

To the five Freshmen who pass the best examination at the division of the Easter Term, provided they be considered worthy of such distinction, Scholarships of £15.

To the two Junior Sophs who pass the best Examination, provided as above, Scholarships of £40.

And to the two Senior Sophs who pass the best Examination, provided as above, Scholarships of £50.

If any Students appear to deserve Scholarships of more value than those above mentioned, they shall have Scholarships augmented at the discretion of the President and Fellows.

<sup>1</sup>Two Sedgwick's Scholarships, average £15 per annum, capable of increase to £20, but subject also to diminution; (sons of poor Clergymen to be preferred). Require residence of whole terms; vacated ipso facto, by non-residence of two terms.

The Rev. Thomas Penny White, M.A. of this College, founded in 1842, an annual prize of the value of £30 to be given to the commencing Bachelor who has taken the highest degree, provided he is among the first four Wranglers, or among the first four in the Classical Tripos.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

ONE for the best Composition in Divinity, by a Bachelor of Arts, 10 guineas.—Last year adjudged to Rev. C. R. Pearson.

Two for a Latin and English Dissertation by Undergraduates, who are not Questionists, five guineas each. The latter was adjudged to R. V. Sheldon. No exercise was deemed worthy of the former—but a smaller prize was adjudged to S. W. Bourne for his Latin dissertation.

Two to the best proficient in Mathematics, of the third and second year, five guineas each.

Prizes are also given to the most deserving of the Freshmen, both in Mathematics and Classics.

ST CATHARINE'S HALL.

A Copy of the Statutes of this College is not known to be lodged in any public repository.

THIS College or Hall was founded by ROBERT WODELARKE, D.D., Chancellor of the University, and Provost of King's College, for a Master and three or more Fellows. Accordingly, the Visitors who were sent down to the University by King Edward VI. ordained that there should be then six Fellows, and that for the future there should be a greater or less number in proportion to the revenues of the College. The Fellows must be natives of England; and there cannot be more than two of the same county Fellows at the same time. Two of the Fellows at least must be in Priest's and one in Deacon's Orders. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the senior Fellow who is not in such Orders must take them in the course of a twelve-month, (unless a junior does of his own accord,) or he vacates his Fellowship.

There are also eight Bye Fellowships, founded by subsequent benefactors:—

One by Mr Frankland, which is appropriated to a person educated at Coventry School; and who is in other respects properly qualified. The Master and Fellows, who are the electors, are required by the Founder to have a careful regard to the recommendation of the Mayor and Aldermen of Coventry.

One by Mr Holway, which is called the Conduct Fellowship.

Six by Mrs Mary Ramsden, with a preference first to natives of Yorkshire, then of Lincolnshire; and in case no such candidates duly qualified offer themselves, these Fellowships are open to men of any county. Fellows on this foundation are not required to take Orders. All persons are ineligible to these Fellowships who are 24 years of age.

The Fellows on this foundation are called Skirne Fellows.

Mrs Ramsden also founded ten Scholarships, with the same preference to Yorkshire and Lincolnshire men. These Scholarships are now £35 per annum each, with chambers rent free.

Mr Frankland founded a Scholarship of £10 per annum, which is appropriated to a person educated at Tamworth School.

Mr Holway founded two of £6 per annum each, which are appropriated to persons educated at Eton, or Merchant Tailor's School.

There are also three Scholarships of £20 14s. 4d.—eight of £20—one of £12—five of £5—seven of £4—two of £3 6s. 8d.—two of £2 13s. 4d.—and two of £2 per annum each; all perfectly open.

Bishop Sherlock founded the Librarianship, worth £20 per annum, with Chambers rent free. He also considerably augmented the salary of the Master's Sizar, the present value of which is £34 per annum, with Chambers rent free. The Chapel Clerk receives £16 per annum and Commons, with Chambers rent free.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Books to the value of £5 are given on the Thursday preceding the division of Easter Term, to the best proficient in classics on Mrs Ramsden's foundation. Last year the prize was adjudged to Vernon.

There is annually a Classical and Mathematical examination of the Junior Sophs and Freshmen at the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books are adjudged to the best proficient in each year.

JESUS COLLEGE.

FOUNDED 1496.

At this College, founded by JOHN ALCOCK, Bishop of Ely, there are sixteen Foundation Fellowships, open to all her Majesty's subjects, without any restriction or appropriation whatsoever; five of the original foundation, four founded by Dr Fuller, Master of the College, and the rest by various benefactors. Six of the Fellows are required to be in Orders. On every vacancy of a Fellowship, the Master and Fellows nominate two candidates, of whom the Bishop of Ely elects one. There is one Fellowship founded by James Stanley, Bishop of Ely, to which the Bishop has an exclusive right both to nominate and appoint. The Mastership of this College is in the absolute appointment of the Bishop of Ely.

Mrs Sarah Jones, of Newport, Salop, bequeathed by her will, dated 21st February, 1825, the sum of £6000 in trust, the interest thereof to be paid to Mrs Mary Gregory during her life; and after her decease to be equally divided in three fellowships, to be founded at Jesus College, Cambridge, in memory of the Rev. Thomas Dummer Ley, late of Hingham, in the county of Norfolk, and formerly member of that College. Mrs Gregory died in August, 1837, and three Bye Fellowships, called "Ley" Fellowships, have, in conformity with Mrs Jones' bequest, been founded.

The Ley Fellows must be graduates of this University, and they cease to be Fellows upon this foundation at the expiration of 12 years from the time at which they were of sufficient standing to complete the B.A. degree.

If a Ley Fellow be elected upon the foundation of the College, the Ley Fellowship which he holds will become vacant upon his admission into the foundation Fellowship.

The following is a list of the principal Scholarships and Exhibitions, founded by different benefactors:—

Four, £10 per annum each, appropriated to natives of Nottinghamshire and Yorkshire.

Fourteen, about £30 per annum each, for clergymen's orphans of all counties in England and Wales. These Scholars must be admitted before they have completed their nineteenth year. The possessors of these Scholarships, founded by Tobias Rustat, Esq. have a classical examination annually on the Thursday in Easter week, at which time, according to their respective merits, a gratuity of each from £20 to £30 (in addition to the above sum) is given.

The Visitors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Master of Trinity, and the Master of Jesus; and in case of the non-attendance of any of these four, the Master of St John's (a).

One, £40 per annum, or thereabouts, to the son of a living clergyman, with preference to a native of Nottinghamshire or Lancashire, ceteris paribus. The possessor of this Scholarship is subject to the same examination and rules of residence as the Rustat, but receives no gratuity.

One, £15 per annum, or thereabouts, to the son of a clergyman, with preference to an orphan, equally open to all counties. Examination and rules of residence similar to the Rustat, but no gratuity.

Three, £8 per annum each, or thereabouts, open to all.

One, £2 per annum, open to all.

One, £10 per annum, or thereabouts, for a scholar from Doncaster or Arksay Free Schools.

Two, £75 per annum each, for persons educated at Seven Oaks and Tunbridge Schools.

Two, £16 per annum each, left by Dr Gatford, open to all clergymen's orphans, and tenable from the degree of B.A. to that of M.A.

One, £6 8s. 6d. per annum, for persons from Caistor, Louth, or Alford Schools, or to the natives of Lincolnshire.

One, £3 6s. 8d. per annum, to a native of Lancashire, Hertford, Cumberland, or Essex.

Two, £4 10s. per annum, each; one to the county of Anglesea or Merioneth, the other to St Peter the Poor, or St Foster, in London.

One, of £60 or two of £30 per annum, or thereabouts, to persons educated at Loughborough School.

Fifteen foundations, perfectly open, which are generally given to those who most distinguish themselves in the College examination at the division of the Easter Term. The Scholars are allowed their commons free during residence.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Books to the value of £6. 6s. for the best Latin and English Declamations.

Rev. Frederick Keller, formerly Fellow, left £20 per annum to one or more deserving Bachelors. Of this sum £10 in plate to the best proficient in Mathematics, if a Wrangler (this year adjudged to the Hon. T. C. Bruce); and £10 in plate or books to the best proficient in Classics, if in the first class of the Classical Tripos: (last year adjudged to Ds Helm.)

Rev. Edward Otter, formerly Fellow, gave the dividend of one year's Fellowship, which, increased by the college, forms a Divinity prize of £21 open every two years to Bachelors.

There is an annual examination of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen, about the division of the Easter Term, when prizes of books are given to the best proficient in Classics, and in Mathematics, in each year.

CHRIST'S COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1505.)

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, MSS. HARLEY, No. 7046, p. 155.—No. 7044, p. 61.—No. 3848, and No. 7352.

THIS College was originally founded by King HENRY VI., under the name of God's House; and consisted of a Master and three Fellows.

In 1505, Lady MARGARET, Countess of Richmond and Derby, mother of King Henry VII., changed the name, incorporated the former Society and its revenues with the present College, and endowed it liberally, to maintain a Master, twelve Fellows, and forty-seven Scholars. This foundation is for Divinity, and the Fellows are required to take Priest's orders within twelve months after they have attained the proper age. The only appropriation of these Fellowships is to the counties of England and Wales; and the restrictions are, that there shall not be two natives of the same county Fellows at the same time, and that there shall be six, and only six, of the following nine counties, viz. Northumberland, Cumberland, Durham, Westmoreland, Lancashire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, Yorkshire, and Richmond, (this cum adjacentibus the Foundress calls a county.)

King Edward VI. added another Fellow, who shares in emoluments with those on the original foundation. He may be of any county, and is not obliged to take Holy Orders.

Sir John Finch and Sir Thomas Baines founded two more Fellowships, unappropriated as to county, but with preference to the kindred of the founders; the revenues are independent of Lady Margaret's Foundation. They may be held by laymen.

These fifteen Fellows have an equal claim to the college patronage, and are allowed by the statutes to hold preferment with their Fellowships, provided it does not exceed the value of ten marks, after the deductions found in the Liber Regis.

The Scholarships founded by Lady Margaret are now augmented in value to 15s. weekly during residence. There cannot be more than three Scholars of the same county at the same time.

King Edward the Sixth founded three additional Scholarships.

Besides these, various other Scholarships and Exhibitions have been founded by private benefactors; the principal of them are the following, viz.

Two, founded by Sir John Finch and Sir Thomas Baines, with reference to the kindred of the founders, about £10 per annum each.

Six, founded by Sir Walter Mildmay, £2 per annum each.

Three, founded by the Rev. T. Wilson, appropriated to Scholars from Kirkby Lonsdale School, Westmoreland, about £20 per annum each.

Three, founded by Bishop Otway, appropriated to Scholars from Kirkby Lonsdale School aforesaid, or in default of such, to Scholars from Sedbergh School, Yorkshire, £7 per annum each.

One, founded by Dr Patynson, with preference to a native of Northumberland, or in default of such, to a native of the diocese of Durham. Of the same value as the foundation Scholarships.

Eight, founded by the Rev. R. Carr, appropriated to Scholars from Giggleswick School, Yorkshire, £5 per annum each.

Three, founded by Mr Petyt, with preference to Scholars from Skipton School, in Craven, Yorkshire, £6. 13s. 4d. per annum each.

Two, founded by the Rev. R. Risley, with preference to natives of Lancashire, £1 per annum each.

One, founded by the Rev. R. Risley, with preference to the kindred of the founder, secondly, to the county of Huntingdon, about £25 per annum.

One, founded by Mr Broadbanke, to a native of the town of Huntingdon, £15 per annum.

Four, founded by Dr Seth Ward, Bishop of Salisbury, with preference to natives of Hertfordshire, educated at Buntingford School, £12 per annum each.

One, founded by Dr Plume, with preference to a Scholar from Maldon School, or secondly, from Chelmsford School, or thirdly, from Brentford School, Essex, £5 per annum.

Two, founded by Lady Drury, with preference to Scholars from Scarning, Holt, Swaffham, or Norwich Schools, about £30 per annum each.

One, founded by the Rev. C. Clarke, with preference to a native of Norfolk, educated at Norwich School, £10 per annum.

One, founded by Mr Rawlings, with preference to a native, first of Suffolk, secondly of Norfolk, £3 per annum.

One, founded by Sir Maurice Berkeley, appropriated to a native of Gloucestershire. Of the same value as the Foundation Scholarships.

One, founded by Mr Harvey, with preference to a native of Bedfordshire, £5 per annum.

One, founded by C. Tancred, Esq. with preference to a native of Newmarket, secondly of the county of Cambridge, about £35 per annum.

Most of these appropriated Scholarships are tenable with the Foundation Scholarships.

Mr Tancred also founded four Divinity Studentships<sup>1</sup>, which now amount to £107 8s. per annum each, and are tenable till M.A. The present possessors are, Ds Glennie, Ds Cobb, Tracy, and Young.

At the division of the Easter Term there is an annual examination of the Senior Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen. A set of books, of the value of three guineas, is given to each of the three Undergraduates who are the best proficient of their respective years. A prize of books, of the value of two guineas, is given to the second in each year. The Master and Fellows are enabled, by means of unclaimed Exhibitions, to bestow considerable rewards<sup>1</sup> on the most deserving Undergraduates in each year. There is also a voluntary classical examination of those who are in their second and third years, at the division of the Easter Term; at which prizes of books are awarded to the first and second in each year, who are also, if sufficiently distinguished, recommended to the college, for additional pecuniary reward.

ST JOHN'S COLLEGE.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, (Mss. HARLEY, No. 7050, printed in the 5th Report of the House of Commons on Education, p. 404) and in the University Library, (Mss. BAKER, Vol. XXIX. p. 1).

THIS College was founded by Lady MARGARET, Countess of Richmond and Derby, mother of King Henry VII. and Foundress of Christ's College. The original endowment was for fifty Fellows; but part of the foundation estates having been seized by King Henry VIII. the funds were found to be sufficient for thirty-two only. These Fellowships are (by Letters Patent from George IV.) now open to natives of England and Wales, without any restriction or appropriation whatsoever; one only excepted, which is in the appointment of the Bishop of Ely: but the Bishop is required, agreeably to an arrangement between James Stanley, Bishop of Ely, and the Executors of the Countess of Richmond, to elect according to the statutes in every respect. In this case, the Master is Visitor to the Bishop.

There are also twenty-one Fellowships founded by different benefactors, which have all the privileges of the former, and give an equal claim to the College patronage.

Candidates for Fellowships must be B.A. at least; and no person is superannuated, provided he has proceeded regularly to his degrees. This being a Divinity college, all the Fellows are obliged to be in Priest's Orders within six years from the degree of M.A. except four, who are allowed by the Master and Seniors to remain Laymen; two for the practice of Physic, and two for Law. The rest must proceed to the degree of B.D. at the regular time. The electors are, the Master and eight Senior resident Fellows, in whom is vested the entire management of all college concerns. The day of election is the second Monday after Mid-lent Sunday.

The following are the appropriated Fellowships, with their founders:

Four by Mr Ashton; two appropriated to the county of Lancaster or Diocese of Chester; one to the county or Diocese of York; and one to the Bishopric or Diocese of Durham.

One by Mr Bailey, which was augmented by his executor, to the parish of Tamworth, or to the county of Stafford or Derby, or the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry. The person elected must be a Priest at 24 years of age, or within twelve months after.

Two by Mr Beresford, to the name and kin of the founder; then to the parishes of Chesterfield, Wirksworth, and Ashbourne, Derbyshire; or Alconfield, Staffordshire; and next to the counties; and for default of such, to the most apt and able within the University, after the form of the statutes of the college.

One by Sir M. Constable, to a priest of the county of York.

One by Bishop Dee, to his name and kin from Peterborough or Merchant Tailors' School.

One by Dr Fell, to Furness Fell, Lancashire.

Two by Mr Gregson, one to the county of Lancaster, and one to the county of Norfolk.

Two by Dr Lupton, and one by Mr Hebblethwaite, to scholars on their foundation from the Free Grammar School of Sedbergh, Yorkshire.

Two by Dr Keyton, to the choristers of Southwell, Notts.

One by Lady Rokeby, to Beverley, or the county of York. The person elected must be in Priest's Orders within six months after election.

One by Mr Halytreholm, to Beverley, or any place in the county of York adjacent to the same. The Fellow must be in Priest's Orders within twelve months from the time of election.

One by Mr Simpson to Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmoreland, or Richmond, Yorkshire.

One by Dr Thimbleby, to the county of Cambridge.

To most of the preceding appropriations, however, is added the following, or a similar limitation:—"If any such person in learning and manners be found, and virtuous, and disposed to learning," &c. and in default of these qualifications, then the said Fellows to be chosen of such persons "as be most singular in manners and learning, of what county soever they be, and be then abiding in the said college and University."

In addition to the preceding Fellowships there are three founded by Mr Platt, which have been increased in number by the college; open to all candidates, but perfectly distinct from the rest. These Fellows are not entitled to the same privileges as the others; they cannot hold any college office, or succeed to Foundation Fellowships; or be presented to any Living in the College Patronage, except those acquired by the bequests of the Rev. W. Winthrop, B.D. and the Rev. J. Palmer, B.D., formerly Fellows of the College.

A Fellowship, tenable for ten years, for a B.A. who must take the degree of M.A. at the usual time, and a Scholarship for the most deserving of the Commencing Bachelors of Arts, tenable for one year, have recently been founded by the Rev. James Webster, B.D., who left funds especially appropriated to their maintenance.

All livings under £30 in the King's books are tenable with College Preacherships, which are thirteen in number.

A Sermon is preached by one of the Fellows every year at Hatfield, on the second Sunday after the Feast of St Michael, and at Burleigh on the Sunday after St Luke's day.

SCHOLARSHIPS, EXHIBITIONS, &amp;c.

THE number of Scholarships at this College is one hundred and fourteen, twenty-seven of which were founded by Lady Margaret. Four founded by Mr Platt have been since increased by the college to nine; and are tenable, like the Fellowships founded by him, by candidates born in any county. Those founded by the Duchess of Somerset have been augmented by the Society to sixteen; five of which are appropriated to Scholars from Hereford School, with preference to natives of Somersetshire, Wilts, and Herefordshire; or to natives of the three said counties, though of any other School. The rest are appropriated to those educated at Marlborough, Hereford, or Manchester Schools.

The remaining Scholarships were founded by various benefactors.

There is also a considerable number of Exhibitions of different value, the principal of which are the following:—

One, about £100 and two £15 per annum each, founded by Mr Nadin, for students in Divinity; founder's kin, or men born in the province of Canterbury.

One, £12 per annum, left by Mrs Jones, to her kindred, or natives of Shropshire.

Two, about £10 per annum each, founded by Mr Robins, to founder's kin, or men born in Kent, with preference to scholars from Sutton Valence School.

Two, £20 per annum each, for scholars from Grantham School, Lincolnshire.

Four, about £9 per annum each, left by Mr Hewytt, for scholars from Linton School, Yorkshire.

Two, about £10 per annum each, by Dr Gower, for Clergymen's sons, with preference to those educated at St Paul's, London, or the Free School, Dorchester.

Four, about £20 per annum each, by Archdeacon Johnson, for scholars educated at Oakham, or Uppingham Schools.

Thirty unrestricted, about £20 per annum each, left by Sir Ralph Hare, Knight of the Bath.

Six, about £8 per annum each, left by Mr Baker, with preference to founder's kin.

Four, about £14 per annum each, for scholars from Shrewsbury School.

Three, about 7s. per week during residence, by Mr Mount Stephen, with preference to scholars from Peterborough School.

Four, £70 per annum each, for seven years, for scholars from Shrewsbury School. Electors, the Trustees of that School.

One, of £4 per annum, payable by the Fishmongers' Company, who generally considerably augment this exhibition.

Mr Wright left about £120 per annum, to be disposed of at the discretion of the Master and four Seniors.

Sir Isaac Pennington directed by his Will that good Exhibitions should be given to students born in the parishes of Hawkshead and Colton. Their number and value are at the discretion of the Master and Seniors.

The Very Rev. Dr Wood, late Dean of Ely, and Master of the College, founded nine Exhibitions of £40 per annum each. The Exhibitioners are to be chosen annually at Midsummer, from those students of the College, (not being either Bachelors of Arts, or of standing sufficient for that degree), "who are most in want of pecuniary assistance, and who are at the same time most distinguished for their regularity of conduct, industry, and learning."

An Exhibition, called the St John Port Latin Exhibition, value £50 per annum, has been founded for the best proficient in Classical learning among the Freshmen, whose names shall have been entered on the College boards before the end of the Easter Term next preceding their residence. The Examination takes place annually in the early part of the Michaelmas Term.

The Sizars at this College are chosen by an Examination, which takes place in the June previous to their commencing residence. The Subjects are the Elements of Geometry, Arithmetic and Algebra, and a few Classical Authors fixed upon in the preceding January.

There are nine Sizars, called Proper Sizars, on Dr Dowman's Foundation, who have their Commons free, and usually hold Exhibitions. They are chosen from the other Sizars, (after a residence of, at least, three terms,) by the Master and Seniors, preference being usually given to those who have ranked high in the classes at the general examinations, and by their conduct have obtained the approbation of the College.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Five pounds to the best proficient in Moral Philosophy, among the commencing Bachelors of Arts, whose names have appeared in the list of honours. The examination, and decision of the prize, are usually before the publication of the first Tripos.

Those who are in the first class of the two general College examinations, one about the 16th of December, the other about the 1st of June, are entitled to a prize of books.

Those whose Themes, Verses, and Declamations, are thought deserving of notice, receive a similar reward.

There is also a Voluntary Classical Examination of those who are in their second and third years, at the beginning of the Easter Term; and such as distinguish themselves in this, and the two general Examinations of the same year, receive additional prizes of books.

About £150 is allotted annually for the above purposes.

The Rev. W. Wilson, B.D. formerly Fellow, has given prizes of books to the best readers of the Lessons in Chapel, whose general good conduct entitles them to the approbation of the College.

MAGDALENE COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1519.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the British Museum.

MSS. SLOANE, No. 3644—10.

IN this College, founded by THOMAS, Baron AUDLEY of Walden, there are four Foundation and Thirteen Bye Fellowships, which (two excepted) are equally unrestricted as to counties. All the Fellows are required to take Orders within three years after election "si ita Magistro videatur bonum."

The foundation Fellowships were left by Lord Audley. The Bye Fellowships were founded by the following benefactors:—

Two by Mr Smith, and an estate at Longstanton, Cambridgeshire, left for their maintenance; the Fellows are obliged, by the will of the founder, to proceed to the degree of B.D. at the regular time.

Two by Dr Goch, may be held by laymen, if the Master pleases.

Two by Mr Dennis, ditto.

Two by Sir Christopher Wray, ditto.

One by Lady Ann Wray, ditto.

One by Mr Spendluffe, tenable for five years only.

One by Dr Millington, appropriated to Shrewsbury School.

One, a Travelling Fellowship, left by the Rev. Drue Drury, worth upwards of £200 per annum, but tenable for only nine years, and appropriated to the county of Norfolk. The Master has the sole appointment to this Fellowship, and the person must either be in Holy Orders, or designed for such, and must travel on the Continent the greater part of the time that he holds this Fellowship.

One by the Countess of Warwick.

Mrs Margaret Dongworth, by a legacy, augmented four of the smallest Bye Fellowships.

The Mastership of this College is in the gift of the possessor of the estate at Audley End.

The following Scholarships were founded by the undermentioned benefactors.

In default of Shrewsbury men, the Scholarships on Dr Millington's foundation are open.

The annual Pepysian Benefaction, value £50, is in the Master's gift.

The foundation estate of Lord Audley consists of the impropriate parsonage of St Catherine Cree Church, in London; and also a considerable part of the city, anciently called Covent Garden Christ Church.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Books to the amount of £2. 12s. 6d. are given to the best proficients in each of the three years, at the annual examination in Classics and Mathematics.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Copies of the old Statutes are in the British Museum, Mss. SLOANE, No. 659.—(Printed in the 5th Report of the House of Commons on Education, p. 363.) Mss. HARLEY, No. 3890; and in the University Library, Mss. BAKER, Vol. xxix. p. 131. 179.—Vol. xxxi. p. 277. Copies of the Statutes as confirmed by Letters Patent of the 7th of Queen Victoria, are given to every Fellow of the College on his Election.

THIS noble and magnificent College, the Mastership of which is in the appointment of the Crown, was originally endowed by King HENRY VIII. and afterwards augmented by his daughter Queen MARY, for the maintenance of a Master, sixty Fellows, and sixty-nine Scholars.

The government of the College is vested in the Master and the eight senior Fellows; and to such of these as are absent the resident Fellows next in seniority succeed as deputies, without any express appointment.

The Fellows of this Society are chosen from the Scholars, ineligible if M.A., or of sufficient standing to take that degree: there is no appropriation whatsoever: all are required to go into Priest's Orders within seven years after they commence Masters of Arts, except two, who are permitted by the Master to remain Laymen. The one is supposed to study Law, the other Physic. The Scholarships are open to men of any county, but two or three are usually filled up annually by Scholars chosen from Westminster School; and one of £50 per annum, founded by Mr Newman, for a native of Kent and Cambridgeshire alternately, at present held by Clement Francis Cobb, a native of Kent.

Of the value and number of the Exhibitions, the following is a statement.<sup>1</sup>

† Four, Dr Lewis, £8. 6s. per annum each, to four Scholars who are natives of North Wales.

One, Mr Elves, £6 for a Scholar appointed by the Master.

Five, Mr Perry, £13 per annum each, to Scholars from St Paul's School, London.—Carver, Suter, Sleaf, C. M. Moore, and C. J. Clay.

One, Rev. R. B. Podmore, value about £27, for the name and kindred of the founder. In default of such to a native of the county of Salop, educated for four years at least at the Grammar School of Shrewsbury.—J. L. Warren.

Three, Mr Jeston, £6. 13s. 4d. each for poor Scholars.—J. Gill, Standen, and Hammond.

†Two, Lady Verney, (estate at S. Littleton,) for Scholars from Cranbrook, or Warwick School.

Lady Campden founded several exhibitions from St Paul's School to Trinity College, some of which are of £100 per annum, and others of £70 per annum: they are selected by examination from the Foundation Scholars of St Paul's School.

There are sixteen Sizars upon the foundation, who are entitled to commons, rooms, and other emoluments, and various consolidated benefactions to the amount of £136 are divided among them. Also all Noblemen pay two guineas and Fellow-Commoners one guinea each per quarter for the same purpose.

The Sub-sizars succeed to the Sizars in the order of their places at the annual Examination.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Dr Paris left a prize of £4 for the best Latin Declamation. The successful student delivers, on a day appointed in the month of December, a panegyric upon some illustrious character. A second Latin Declamation prize has been instituted by the College.—These prizes were last year adjudged to Hort and Beamont.

Dr Hooper left three silver goblets as prizes, one of £20 the other two of £10 value each, for the three best English Declamations, upon subjects relating to the History of England. The person who gains the first prize delivers on the Commemoration-day another Declamation on a general subject. Last year adjudged to Mackenzie, Colt, and Hon. Julian Fane.

Any Junior Bachelor of Arts who writes the best Essay on the conduct and character of King William III. is entitled to a prize of £10 left by Mr Greaves of Fulbourn.—Last year adjudged to Carver.

Three Prizes are given by the College, for the best compositions in Latin Verse, in Lyrical, Heroic, and Elegiac metres: a subject is proposed at the beginning of each term, and a prize is awarded to the author of the best Exercise in each subject. An additional prize is awarded if there be a second Exercise of especial merit on any of the subjects.—Last year adjudged, Alcaics, Hammond—Hexameters, Hammond and E. W. Benson—Elegiacs, Lightfoot. This year, Alcaics, R. Burn.

Dr Walker left a rent-charge of £10 for one or more poor Scholars, who shall appear to the Master, Vice-Master, and Senior Dean, most deserving at the time of taking the Bachelor's degree.—This year adjudged to Potter.

The best reader in Chapel receives a prize of £4, the second ditto a prize of £2, at the discretion of the Senior Dean.—Last year adjudged to Beamont and C. B. Lock.

A prize has been instituted by the College for the best English Essay, by a Senior Soph, on some Literary, Moral, or Antiquarian subject.—Last year adjudged to Mackenzie.

Archdeacon Wrangham in the year 1842 founded a Prize to be given to one of the commencing Bachelors of Arts, who should have been in the first Class at each of the three annual College Examinations, and also in the first Class of the Mathematical and Classical Triposes. Prizemen last year, Thrupp and Headlam.

The Rev. Peter Leigh, in the year 1849, gave £515, 3 per cent. Consols, as an augmentation of this prize.

The Rev. E. Yeats founded two Prizes of ten guineas each, to be given in Books; one to the Scholar on the Foundation who shall stand highest on the Mathematical Tripos; the other to the Scholar who in the opinion of the Master, Vice-Master, Deans, and Head Lecturer, shall have most distinguished himself for general regularity of conduct.—Prizemen this year, 1. H. W. Watson. 2. G. F. Prescott.

The friends of the late Archdeacon Dealtry in the year 1850 founded two prizes of fifteen guineas each, to be called the Dealtry Prizes, and given to the Senior and Junior Sophs who shall pass the best examination in the Greek Testament, and also be placed in the First Class.

There is an Examination of all the Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen in the College hall immediately after the division of the Easter Term. The Junior Sophs are also examined at the end of the Michaelmas Term. The persons examined are arranged in classes according to their respective merits; and those who are in the first class of each year (of the Junior Sophs, those who are in the first class in both their examinations) receive a prize of books, which are distributed on the Commemoration-day. Thirty-five pounds is likewise given in Books to a number of the Senior Sophs, not exceeding five; and twenty-five pounds to a number of Junior Sophs, not exceeding five, who shall pass the best Examination in the Greek Testament. The examiners are, the Head-Lecturer, the Greek, Latin, Greek Grammar, and Mathematical Lecturers, and the four Sub-Lecturers. The following are the respective first classes, as settled at the last Examination. The names are arranged alphabetically:—

EMMANUEL COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1584.)

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum.

MSS. SLOANE, No. 1739.

THIS College was founded by Sir WALTER MILDMAI, Chancellor of the Exchequer and Privy Counsellor in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. The number of Foundation Fellowships is twelve; besides one founded by Mr Gillingham, the possessor of which receives a dividend arising from a distinct estate, but is in most other respects on an equality with the Foundation Fellows. These thirteen Fellowships are (by a recent alteration of the Statutes) open to Englishmen of all counties, without any restriction whatever; and a person becomes eligible to them on proceeding to the degree of B.A. All the Fellows are obliged to proceed to the degrees of M.A. and B.D. as soon as they are of sufficient standing. The four Seniors are obliged to take Priest's Orders.

Beside these thirteen there are two on Sir Wolstan Dixie's foundation, who are obliged to proceed to their degrees equally with those on the original foundation, but they have no vote in any college affairs, nor any claim to the offices or dividends of the college. Candidates for these Fellowships must have taken the degree of B.A. and must be related to the Founder, or have been educated at Market-Bosworth School in Leicestershire. The heirs of the founder nominate, and the College admits the nomination. There are likewise four Scholarships of Sir W. Dixie's foundation of £10 per annum, subject to the same restrictions.

The Foundation Scholarships are open to Englishmen of all counties; and the election to them takes place at the general Examination at the end of the Easter term. The Scholars receive upwards of Twenty Guineas a year in addition to the payment of a guinea a week during residence<sup>1</sup>. Besides these there are many Scholarships and Exhibitions, founded by various benefactors, to be given to the candidates most distinguished for learning and exemplary conduct.

Five by Dr Thorpe, of £30 per annum, with a preference, cæteris paribus, to the sons of orthodox clergymen.

One by Mr Hubbard, of £12 per annum, to the best of Dr Thorpe's scholars.

Ten by Mr Ash, of £10 per annum.

Four by Archdeacon Johnson, of £24 per annum, with a preference to candidates from Oakham and Uppingham Schools.

One by Dr Smith, of £16 per annum, with a preference to Durham and Newcastle Schools.

Two by Mr Richards of £12 per annum, with a preference to Christ's Hospital. The Scholars receive an allowance towards the expense of their B.A. and M.A. degrees.

Four by Dr Whichcot, of 4s. per week during residence, who are entitled to the same privileges as those of the foundation.

One by Sir Busick Harwood, of £10 per annum, with a preference to a medical student.

Two by Lady Romney, of £12 per annum each.

Two by the Rev. J. Brown, of 10s. per week during residence.

There are likewise exhibitions founded by the Rev. H. Aspinall, Rev. W. Branthwaite, Mr Hobbs, Lady G. Mildmaye, Mr J. Wells, Mrs Titley, &c., which, in addition to the former, are given to the most deserving candidates.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

At the division of the Easter Term there is a general Examination of the Undergraduates, when a prize of Books is given to the best proficient in each year.

PRIZEMEN, 1849.

First Year.	Second Year.	Third Year.

SIDNEY SUSSEX COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1598.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the British Museum.

Mss. COLE, XLVI. p. 193.

AT this College, founded by Lady FRANCES SIDNEY, Countess of Sussex, there are nine Foundation Fellowships, all open to the Natives of any part of her Majesty's dominions. Besides the Foundation Fellowships, there are two founded by Mr Peter Blundell, appropriated to his scholars of this College; and one Fellowship founded by Leonard Smith, the nomination of which is vested in the Warden and Company of Fishmongers. The Blundell Fellowships are tenable for only ten years after the degree of M.A., but in other respects the Fellows have the same privileges, authority, &c. as the Foundation Fellows.

A Mathematical Lectureship, present value £170 per annum, was founded by Mr Taylor. The Lectureship is not tenable with a Fellowship, but may be held by a layman.

This is a Divinity College, and all the Fellows of every description are obliged to take Orders within three years from the time of their election, and the degree of Bachelor in Divinity, at the regular period prescribed by the University Statutes.<sup>1</sup>

No Fellow of this College derives any benefit from his Fellowship unless he be a Master of Arts complete.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

TWENTY Foundation Scholarships, perfectly open, value 7s. each per week during residence.

Two Scholarships founded by Mr Peter Blundell, appropriated to Scholars from Tiverton School.

Two Scholarships founded by Dr Micklethwaite, of 7s. each per week during residence.

Two Scholarships founded by Mr Edward Montagu, 4s. each per week during residence.

EXHIBITIONS.

ARCHDEACON Johnson left four Exhibitions, now about £24 per annum each, with preference to those educated at the Schools of Oakham or Uppingham, in Rutland.

Mr Lovett founded two Exhibitions for Clergymen's sons, now above £40 per annum each. Preference is given to Candidates who have been three years at Grantham or Oakham School.

Mr Barcroft left two Exhibitions for Clergymen's sons, value £12 each per annum.

The College has also two Exhibitions, value £12 each per annum, from the Company of Haberdashers.

Six Mathematical Exhibitions have been lately established on the foundation of Mr Taylor. The yearly value of each is £50, at least, with rooms in College rent free. The Exhibitions, as they become vacant, are given to those Undergraduates of the College who distinguish themselves in Mathematics at the annual College Examination at Midsummer.

If an Exhibitioner take a Wrangler's degree on the Mathematical Tripos, his exhibition is tenable till he is of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.

PRESENT EXHIBITIONERS.

Cargill, B.A. 1847.

Scott, B.A. 1848.

Cole, B.A. 1849.

TAYLOR'S EXHIBITIONER.

There are also several benefactions appropriated to Students from certain schools in Yorkshire and Bedfordshire.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

A PRIZE of £10 for the best proficient in Mathematics at the time of taking the degree of B.A., provided his name appear on the first Tripos. This year adjudged to Smart.

There are two examinations in each academical year; the first takes place at the end of the Michaelmas Term, and the other immediately before the division of the Easter Term.

At these examinations prizes are adjudged to those who distinguish themselves in Divinity, Classics, Mathematics, and General Physics.

There are likewise prizes for the best Latin and English Declarations, the best Latin Theme, and for the best Reader in Chapel.

DOWNING COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED SEPT. 22, 1800.)

The Charter and Statutes are printed.

THIS College will consist of a Master, two Professors (one of the Laws of England, and one of Medicine), sixteen Fellows, (two of which only are Clerical), and six Scholars. The objects of the foundation are stated in the Charter to be students in Law, Physic, and other useful arts and learning. At present only the Master, Professors, and three Fellows, are appointed, for the purpose of taking possession of the estates, administering the revenues, superintending the building of the College, and for the other necessary purposes. The appointment of the remaining Fellows is reserved until after the erection of the buildings necessary for the College.

The Scholars will also be elected after that period; but not more than two in each year. There are also two Chaplains, nominated by the Master.

The Master is elected by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Masters of St John's and Clare Hall, from among those who are or have been Professors or Fellows. The electors to the Professorships are the same as to the Mastership, with the addition of the Master.

The Professor of Law must be, at the time of his election, LL.D., M.A., or LL.B., of Cambridge or Oxford, of ten years' standing from matriculation, and a Barrister-at-Law. The Professor of Medicine must be M.A. licensed to practise Physic for two years, or M.D. or M.B. of Cambridge or Oxford, or a Member of a Scotch University of seven years' standing, and twenty-five years of age, and who shall have attended the medical lectures in one of the Scotch Universities for four years. The Professors are bound to read a course of lectures in their respective faculties, on the usual terms upon which public lectures are given in the University. The Professorships are not vacated by marriage, or by the possession of any property, and the Professors are capable of holding any of the lay offices in the College.

The electors to the Fellowships are, the Master, Professors, and Fellows of the degree of M.A. After the building of the College is completed, the election will be annually on the 21st of February. All graduates of Cambridge or Oxford are eligible; but after the completion of the College, Lay Fellows must be under the age of 24, and Clerical Fellows under 30, and above 23, at the time of election. The only restriction is, that there shall never be eight Fellows natives of the same county at one time. While the College remains uncompleted, the elections to Fellowships are at uncertain times, depending upon the vacancies, and not subject to the conditions of the Statutes.

The Clerical Fellowships will be tenable for life; and subject to residence for a certain part of each term. The Lay Fellowships continue only for twelve years, and are not subject to any residence. Every Lay Fellow must declare either for Law or Physic. Those who declare for Law must be called to the bar within eight years after their election; and the Medical Fellows must take the degree of M.D. within two years after they are of sufficient standing. A Lay Fellow may also take orders after six years, without thereby vacating his Fellowship. Under certain circumstances, the four electors to the Mastership have a power to suspend the vacancy of a lay Fellowship; but this power is limited to two Fellows living at any one time.

The sole founder of this College was SIR GEORGE DOWNING, Bart.,<sup>1</sup> of Gamlingay Park, in this county; who, by a Will, dated 20th December, 1717, devised his estates in the counties of Cambridge, Bedford, and Suffolk, first to Sir Jacob Gerrard Downing, and afterwards to other relations in succession, and in failure thereof, to build and found a College in this University, upon a plan to be approved by the two Archbishops and the Masters of St John's and Clare Hall. This direction was the reason for giving them the power which they possess in elections and other matters, by the Charter and Statutes.

Sir George died in 1749, and Sir Jacob in 1764, and (the other devisees having previously died without issue) upon this event the foundation ought immediately to have been carried into execution. But the estates were in the possession of Lady Downing, and afterwards of her devisees, without any real title; and when the University sued in Chancery for the establishment of the College, the party in possession resisted the suit in that court. In 1769, a decree was obtained in favour of the foundation.

The persons named as trustees in the Founder's Will having died in his lifetime, the execution of the trusts devolved upon the heirs at law; who after combating a long series of opposition and litigation, and overcoming obstacles of various descriptions, preferred a petition to the Crown for a Charter; and at length, in 1800, the Privy Council decided to recommend the foundation to his Majesty.

On the 22nd of September, 1800, the Great Seal was affixed to the Charter by Lord Loughborough. By this Charter the College is incorporated, with all the privileges belonging to any College in the University, and endowed with the estate devised by the founder, with power to hold landed property (in addition thereto) to the value of £1500 per annum.

The Charter directs Statutes to be framed for the government of the College, which was done in July 1805, and shortly afterwards the stipends of the members began to be paid.

By the Statutes, no beneficial leases of the College estates are allowed, nor any fine to be taken for a grant or renewal. It is also provided that no new foundation shall be ever engrafted on this College, which shall be inconsistent with the Charter and Statutes. But the College may accept any additions to their property in augmentation of the number or value of their present appointments, or to be applied in any other manner consistent with their present constitution.

There is also power given to the four electors and the Master to alter the Statutes, on application by a certain portion of the College.

The members appointed in the Charter were, Francis Annesley, LL.D. Master: Edward Christian, M.A. and Barrister, Law Professor; Busick Harwood, M.D. Professor of Medicine; John Lens, Sergeant at Law, and M.A., William Meeke, Barrister, and M.A., and William Frere, B.A., Fellows.

The late Mr John Bowtell, of this town, who gave by his Will a considerable property to charitable uses, bequeathed to Downing College a collection of books, manuscripts, fossils and antiquities, with a request that the book-cases containing them might be placed in the college library. Among the manuscripts is a History of the Topography and Antiquities of this town, prepared for publication by Mr Bowtell.

A piece of land nearly thirty acres having been purchased for the site, and for grounds and walks, on the 18th of May, 1807, the first stone was laid; since which time the building has proceeded at intervals, at the expense of above £60,000. In 1821, buildings sufficient for opening the College, and comprising nearly two sides of a large court, were completed; and in May, 1821, undergraduates were admitted to reside and keep Terms.

THURSDAY, January 3, 1850. 9...12.

1. THE opposite sides and angles of parallelograms are equal to one another, and the diameter bisects them, that is, divides them into two equal parts.

If the opposite sides, or the opposite angles of any quadrilateral figure be equal, or if its diagonals bisect one another, the quadrilateral is a parallelogram.

2. Describe a square which shall be equal to a given rectangle.

Given a square and one side of a rectangle which is equal to the square, find the other side.

3. In a circle, the angle in a semicircle is a right angle; the angle in a segment greater than a semicircle is less than a right angle; and the angle in a segment less than a semicircle is greater than a right angle.

The greatest rectangle that can be inscribed in a circle is a square.

4. Cut off a segment from a given circle which shall contain an angle equal to a given rectilineal angle.

Divide a circle into two segments such that the angle in one of them shall be five times the angle in the other.

5. Describe an isosceles triangle, having each of the angles at the base double of the third angle.

Shew that the base of the triangle is equal to the side of a regular pentagon inscribed in the smaller circle of the figure.

6. Find a third proportional to two given straight lines.

$AB$  is a diameter, and  $P$  any point in the circumference of a circle;  $AP$  and  $BP$  are joined and produced if necessary: if from any point  $C$  of  $AB$  a perpendicular be drawn to  $AB$  meeting  $AP$  and  $BP$  in points  $D$  and  $E$ respectively, and the circumference of the circle in a point  $F$ , shew that  $CD$  is a third proportional to  $CE$  and  $CF$ .

7. If two straight lines be at right angles to the same plane, they shall be parallel to one another.

8. If a line be drawn bisecting the angle between the focal distance of any point of a parabola and a perpendicular from that point upon the directrix, every point of the line will lie outside the parabola.

9. The perpendiculars from the foci on the tangent of an ellipse intersect the tangent in the circumference of a circle having the axis major as diameter.

Employ this proposition to find the locus of the intersection of a pair of tangents at right angles to each other.

10. The rectangle under the abscissæ of any diameter of an ellipse is to the square of the semiordinate, as the square of the diameter is to the square of the conjugate. ( $PV \cdot VG : QV^2 :: CP^2 : CD^2$ ).

11. In the hyperbola the rectangle under the lines intercepted between the centre and the intersections of the axis with the ordinate and tangent respectively is equal to the square of the semiaxis major. ( $CN \cdot CT = AC^2$ ).

Through  $N$  draw  $NQ$  parallel to  $AP$  to meet  $CP$  in  $Q$ ; prove that  $AQ$  is parallel to the tangent at  $P$ .

12. If a point  $K$  be taken in the major axis of the hyperbola such that  $CK$  is a third proportional to  $CS$  and  $CA$ , and a perpendicular to the axis be drawn through  $K$ , the distance of any point in the curve from this line will bear a constant ratio to its distance from the point  $S$ .

13. If a right cone be cut by a plane, which is parallel to a line in the surface, and perpendicular to the plane containing that line and the axis, the section is a parabola.

What is the section when the cutting plane is parallel to a generating line but not perpendicular to the plane containing the axis and that line?

14. Find the diameter of curvature at any point of an ellipse.

If an ellipse, a parabola, and a hyperbola have a common tangent and the same curvature at the vertex, the ellipse will lie entirely within the parabola and the parabola entirely within the hyperbola.

---

THURSDAY, January 3, 1850. 1½...4.

1. EXPLAIN how numbers are represented in the decimal notation.

From the number represented by 5063 subtract that represented by 3297, explaining every part of the process; and thence infer the general rule.

2. Shew how to find the least whole number which is accurately divisible by each of two given whole numbers.

Find the least number of ounces of standard gold that can be coined into an exact number of half-sovereigns; standard gold being coined at the rate of £3. 17s. 10½d. to an ounce.

3. If a quantity vary directly as  $a$  when  $b$  is invariable, and inversely as  $b$  when  $a$  is invariable; prove that it will vary as  $\frac{a}{b}$  when both  $a$  and  $b$  are variable.

If 5 men and 7 boys can reap a field of corn of 125 acres in 15 days; in how many days will 10 men and 3 boys reap a field of corn of 75 acres, each boy's work being  $\frac{1}{3}$  of a man's?

4. If four quantities be proportionals according to Euclid's definition, shew that they will be proportionals according to the algebraic definition.

If  $a : a' = b : b' = c : c' = \&c.$  shew that $$a : a' = a\alpha + b\beta + c\gamma + \dots : a'\alpha + b'\beta + c'\gamma + \dots$$

$\alpha, \beta, \gamma, \dots$  being any quantities.

5. A mixture of soda and potass, dissolved in 2540 grains of water, took up 980 grains of aqueous sulphuric acid, and the weight of the compound solution was 4285 grains. Find how much potass, and how much soda the mixture contained, assuming that aqueous sulphuric acid unites with soda in the proportion of 49 grains to 32, and with potass in the proportion of 49 to 48.

6. Solve the equations:

$$(1) \quad m \left( \frac{x+a}{x+b} \right) + n \left( \frac{x+b}{x+a} \right) = m+n.$$

$$(2) \quad x^2 + 2ax + b^2 = 0.$$

$$(3) \quad \begin{cases} a(y+z) - yz = 0, \\ b(z+x) - zx = 0, \\ c(x+y) - xy = 0. \end{cases}$$

7. Find the sum of a series of quantities in geometrical progression, and apply the result to find a common fraction equivalent to a recurring decimal fraction.

If  $a$  be the first, and  $l$  the last of a series of  $n$  quantities in geometrical progression, prove that the continued product of the terms of the series is  $(al)^2$ .

8. Define the tangent of an angle, and trace its changes of sign and magnitude through the four quadrants.

Find when  $\sin A$  and  $\text{vers } A$  will have the same sign.

9. Prove the following formulæ:

$$(a) \quad \sin(A+B) = \sin A \cos B + \sin B \cos A.$$

$$(b) \quad \sin 2A = 2 \sin A \cos A.$$

$$(c) \quad \cos 3A = 4 \cos^3 A - 3 \cos A.$$

Find  $\cos 30^\circ$ , and  $\sin 63^\circ$ .

10. Shew that in general it will be possible to determine two triangles in which two sides and the angle opposite to the less are of given magnitudes.

If  $a, b, B$  be given, and  $a > b$ , and if  $c, c'$  be the two values found for the third side of the triangle, then

$$c^2 - 2cc' \cos 2B + c'^2 = 4b^2 \cos^2 B.$$

11. If  $a, b, c$  be the sides of a triangle, prove that its area is equal to

$$\frac{1}{4} \sqrt{2b^2c^2 + 2c^2a^2 + 2a^2b^2 - a^4 - b^4 - c^4}.$$

Apply this expression to find the area when the angle opposite to  $c$  is a right angle.

12. If  $A + B + C = 180^\circ$ , prove that  $\tan A + \tan B + \tan C = \tan A \tan B \tan C$ .

If  $\alpha, \beta, \gamma$  denote the distances from the angular points of a triangle to the points of contact of the inscribed circle, shew that the radius of the circle is equal to  $\left( \frac{\alpha\beta\gamma}{\alpha+\beta+\gamma} \right)^{\frac{1}{2}}$ .

13. A tower 51 feet high has a mark at the height of 25 feet from the ground; find at what distance the two parts subtend equal angles to an eye at the height of 5 feet from the ground.

14. Define a logarithm, and shew how to deduce the logarithm of a number to base  $b$  from its logarithm to base  $a$ .

FRIDAY, January 4, 1850. 9...12.

1. ASSUMING that the diagonal of a parallelogram represents the direction of the resultant of two forces acting at a point, the magnitudes and directions of the forces being represented by the sides of the parallelogram, shew that the diagonal will also represent the magnitude of the resultant.

2. If three forces which act in a plane keep a rigid body at rest; prove that their lines of action either are parallel, or pass through a point, and in both cases shew that any two of the forces are inversely proportional to the perpendiculars drawn on their respective lines of action from any point in the line of action of the third.

An uniform heavy rod of given length is to be supported in a given position, with its upper end resting at a given point against a smooth vertical wall, by means of a fine thread attached to the lower end of the rod and to a point in the wall. Find by a geometrical construction the point in the wall to which the string must be attached.

3. Find the ratio of the power to the weight necessary for equilibrium on the wheel and axle.

If the axis about which the machine turns, coincide with that of the axle, but not with the axis of the wheel, find the greatest and least ratios of the power and weight necessary for equilibrium, neglecting the weight of the machine.

4. Define the centre of gravity of a heavy body, and prove that a body can have but one centre of gravity.

Find the centre of gravity of a plane triangle.

5. Five pieces of an uniform chain are hung at equidistant points along a rigid rod without a weight, and their lower ends are in a straight line passing through one end of the rod; find the centre of gravity of the system.

Also shew that if the system balance about a point of the rod in one position, it will balance about it in any position.

6. Find the ratio of the power to the weight necessary for equilibrium on an inclined plane, when the power acts along the plane.

If the inclined plane be the upper surface of a wedge whose under surface rests on a smooth horizontal table, find the horizontal force which must act on the wedge to keep it at rest.

7. In the system of pulleys in which the strings are parallel and each pulley hangs by a separate string, find the ratio of the power to the weight necessary for equilibrium on the principle that any motion of  $P$  along its line of action : resulting motion of  $W :: W : P$ .

8. Explain clearly on what conventions with respect to units the equation  $P = Mf$  is true, where  $f$  expresses the accelerating effect of a force whose statical measure is  $P$ .

A body weighing 10 lbs. is moved by a constant force which generates in a second a velocity of 1 foot per second; find what weight the force would support.

9. Shew that in uniformly accelerated motion  $s = \frac{1}{2}ft^2$ .

A body falling in vacuo, under the action of gravity, is observed to fall through 144.9 feet and 177.1 feet in two successive seconds; determine the accelerating force of gravity, and the time from the beginning of the motion.

10. Given the velocities of two bodies of which the masses are  $M$ ,  $M'$  and the elasticity  $e$ ; find the velocity of each body after a direct collision.

Three equal balls are moving in the same direction with velocities which are proportional to 3, 2, 1, and the distances between them were at a given time the same; shew that after impact the velocities will continue to be in arithmetical progression.

11. Prove that if a heavy body fall down a smooth curve, the velocity at any point will be that due to the vertical height through which it has fallen.

Shew how to place a plane of given length in order that a body may acquire a given velocity by falling down it.

12. Find the curve described by a body projected in vacuo with a given velocity and in a given direction, explaining the application of the second law of motion to the problem.

A smooth tube of uniform bore is bent into the form of a circular arc greater than a semicircle and placed in a vertical plane with its open ends upwards and in the same horizontal line. Find the velocity with which a ball that fits the tube must be projected along the interior from the lowest point, in order that it may pass out at one end and re-enter at the other.

13. If a particle oscillate in a cycloid, the time of an oscillation will be independent of the arc of vibration.

A seconds pendulum was too long on a given day by a small quantity  $\alpha$ , it was then over-corrected so as to be too short by  $\alpha$  during the next day: shew that the number of minutes gained in the two days was  $1080 \frac{\alpha^2}{L^2}$  nearly, if  $L$  be the length of the seconds pendulum.

FRIDAY, January 4, 1850. 1½...4.

1. Find the pressure referred to a unit of area at any depth below the surface of a heavy incompressible fluid.

If from every point in the vertical side of a rectangular vessel containing fluid a horizontal line be drawn proportional to the pressure at that point; find the locus of the extremities of such lines; and thence deduce the amount of the whole pressure upon one of the vertical sides of a cube filled with fluid, and the point of application of the resultant of the pressures.

2. Determine the conditions of equilibrium of a floating body.

3. Define specific gravity.

Given weights of substances of known specific gravity are compounded; find the specific gravity of the compound.

Eleven ounces of gold (sp. gr. 19.3) are mixed with one ounce of copper (sp. gr. 8.8), find the specific gravity of the compound, supposing its volume to be the sum of the volumes of the two metals.

4. Describe the Barometer.

Shew how the common barometer, which consists of a tube plunged into a cylindrical vessel, may be graduated so that the graduation may give correctly the pressure of the atmosphere.

5. Describe Nicholson's hydrometer.

Given two weights which cause the instrument to sink to a certain depth in two fluids, find the weight which will make it sink to the same depth in a mixture of known volumes of the two fluids.

6. Give the experiment from which it is inferred that the pressure of air at a given temperature varies inversely as the space it occupies.

If the temperature vary, what relation exists between the pressure, the volume, and the temperature?

A given quantity of air under the pressure of  $m$  pounds to the square inch occupies  $n$  cubic inches when the temperature is  $t$ , find how many cubic inches it will occupy under the pressure of  $m'$  pounds to the square inch when the temperature is  $t'$ .

7. Shew how to graduate a thermometer, and to compare the scales of two differently graduated thermometers.

The number which expresses a certain temperature on the centigrade scale is equal to the sum of the numbers which express the same temperature on Fahrenheit's and Reaumur's respectively; find the numbers.

8. A luminous point is placed between two plane-mirrors inclined to each other at a given angle; find the position of the images, and shew that their number is limited.

9. Diverging rays are incident directly upon a concave refracting surface; find the position of the geometrical focus.

Trace the corresponding positions of the conjugate foci, and find where the distance between them is the greatest, when they are between the centre and the surface.

10. A ray of light is refracted through a prism in a plane perpendicular to its edge; find the deviation produced by the refraction.

A speck is situated just within a glass sphere; shew how much of the surface of the sphere must be covered in order that the speck may be invisible at all points outside the sphere on a line drawn from the speck through the centre.

11. Point out the distinction between a real and a virtual image.

A plane mirror is placed perpendicular to the axis of a concave spherical reflector, nearer to the principal focus than to the face, and between them; rays from a very distant object fall directly upon the spherical mirror; trace the pencil by which an eye will see the image formed after two reflexions at each mirror.

12. When an object is viewed through a convex lens, shew that there are circumstances under which the image may be erect or inverted, magnified or diminished.

13. What advantages are attained by the use of a telescope, and how are these advantages limited in practice? Describe the common astronomical telescope.

14. Trace a pencil of rays through Newton's telescope.

Shew that the magnifying power is equal to the ratio of the diameter of a direct pencil which fills the object mirror to the diameter of the pencil which emerges from the eye-glass.

SATURDAY, January 5, 1850. 9...12.

1. ENUNCIATE and prove Newton's second Lemma.

Hence shew that two quantities may vanish in an infinite ratio to each other.

2. State and prove the seventh Lemma.

Define a subtense, and explain the bearing of your definition upon the proof of the Lemma.

3. If a body move in free space under the action of a central force, the velocity at any point of the orbit varies inversely as the perpendicular let fall from the centre upon the tangent.

If lines, proportional to the Earth's velocity, and always parallel to the direction of its motion, be drawn from a fixed point, shew that the extremities of these lines will trace out a circle.

4. Having given the velocities at any points whatever of a curve which a body describes under the action of forces tending to a common centre; find that centre.

5. A body describes an ellipse, find the law of the centripetal force which tends to the centre of the ellipse.

6. If several bodies revolve about a common centre, and the centripetal force vary inversely as the square of the distance from the centre, the latera recta of the orbits are to each other in the duplicate ratio of the areas which the radii drawn from the bodies to the centre describe in the same time.

7. Given that the centripetal force varies inversely as the square of the distance, and that the absolute force is known; determine the curve which a body describes after being projected from a given point with a given velocity and in a given direction.

The problem is to be solved for one case only.

8. Describe, in their chief features, the apparent motions of the fixed stars and of the Sun; and, supposing these appearances to arise solely from the motion of the Earth, deduce the nature of the Earth's motion.

9. Define the equator and ecliptic; and explain how the position of a heavenly body is determined (1) by declination and right ascension; (2) by latitude and longitude.

10. Describe accurately the errors of adjustment to which a transit instrument is liable; and, in the case of each error, mention the positions of the heavenly bodies whose observed times of transit are least (or not at all) affected by it.

11. Explain how the meridian altitude of a heavenly body is determined by a double observation with the mural circle.

When the meridian altitude of a heavenly body is known, what other elements are required in order to determine its position among the fixed stars?

12. Account for the changes in the Moon's phases.

Shew that the full Moon remains above the horizon of a place during nearly the whole of the night.

Explain the cause of a lunar eclipse.

13. Define sidereal, solar, and mean solar time. Define also the equation of time.

If the Earth's orbit were circular, find when the equation of time would change sign from positive to negative, and when from negative to positive.

14. Explain the nature of aberration, and its effect on the apparent positions of the fixed stars.

Shew that, at any given time, all stars which lie in a certain great circle have no aberration in right ascension. Also give a geometrical construction for finding stars that have no aberration in declination at a given time; and prove that the locus of such stars becomes a great circle twice a year.

SATURDAY, January 5, 1850. 1...4.

1. A NUMBER of persons were engaged to do a piece of work which would have occupied them  $m$  hours if they had commenced at the same time, but instead of doing so they commenced at equal intervals and then continued to work till the whole was finished; the payment being proportional to the work done by each, the first comer received  $r$  times as much as the last; find the time occupied.

2. If  $ABCD$  be a parallelogram and  $P, Q$  two points in a line parallel to  $AB$ , and if  $PA, QB$  meet in  $R$  and  $PD, QC$  in  $S$ , prove that  $RS$  is parallel to  $AD$ .

3. Two sides of a triangle whose perimeter is constant are given in position; shew that the third side always touches a certain circle.

4. Shew that the product of the terms of an arithmetical progression is greater than  $(al)^{\frac{n}{2}}$ ; and that the sum of the terms of a geometrical progression is less than  $(a+l)^{\frac{n}{2}}$ ; where in both cases  $a, l$  and  $n$  denote the first and last terms and the number of terms respectively.

5. If from any point  $P$  of a circle  $PC$  be drawn to the centre  $C$  and a chord  $PQ$  be drawn parallel to the diameter  $ACB$  and bisected in  $R$ , shew that the locus of the intersection of  $CP$  and  $AR$  is a parabola.

6. From  $P$  a point in an ellipse lines are drawn to  $A, B$  the extremities of the major-axis, and from  $A, B$  lines are drawn perpendicular to  $AP, BP$ ; shew that the locus of their intersection will be another ellipse, and find its axes.

7. If two ellipses, having the same major axes, can be inscribed in a parallelogram, the foci of the ellipses will lie in the corners of an equiangular parallelogram.

8. If from the extremities of any diameter of an equilateral hyperbola lines be drawn to any point in the curve, they will be equally inclined to the asymptotes.

9. A person wishing to ascertain the distances between three inaccessible objects  $A, B, C$  places himself in a line with  $A$  and  $B$ ; he then measures the distances along which he must walk in a direction at right angles to  $AB$ , until  $A, C$  and  $B, C$  respectively are in a line with him, and also observes in those positions their angular bearings; shew how he can find the distances between  $A, B, C$ .

10. A heavy body is supported in a given position by means of a string which is fastened to two given points in the body, and then passes over a smooth peg; find the length of the string.

11. Two spheres are supported by strings attached to a given point and rest against one another; find the tensions of the strings.

12. Shew that it is possible to project a ball on a smooth billiard-table from a given point in an infinite number of directions so as after striking all the sides in order once or oftener to hit another given point; but that this number is limited if it have to return to the point from which it was projected.

13. A cone of given weight  $W$  is placed with its base on a smooth inclined plane and supported by a weight  $W'$  which hangs by a string fastened to the vertex of the cone and passing over a pulley in the inclined plane at the same height as the vertex. Find the angle of the cone when the ratio of the weights is such that a small increase of  $W'$  would cause the cone to turn about the highest point of the base, as well as slide.

14. A conical vessel containing a given quantity of fluid has its axis vertical, and another cone with the same vertical angle is placed to float in the fluid with its vertex downwards; find how much the fluid will rise in consequence.

15. A hollow cylinder containing air is fitted with an air-tight piston which when the cylinder is placed vertically is at a given height above the base; the cylinder being now inverted and placed vertically in a fluid sinks partly below the surface; find the position of equilibrium.

16. If a luminous point be seen after reflexion at a plane mirror by an eye in a given position, there is a certain space within which the image of the point can never be situated, however the position of the plane mirror be changed; find this space.

17. If  $\alpha$  be the angle which every diameter of a circular disc subtends at a luminous point, shew that the ratio of the light which falls on the disc to the whole light emitted is as  $\sin^2 \frac{\alpha}{4} : 1$ .

18. If any number of particles be moving in an ellipse about a force in the centre, and the force suddenly cease to act, shew that after the lapse of  $\left(\frac{1}{2\pi}\right)^{\text{th}}$  part of the period of a complete revolution all the particles will be in a similar, concentric and similarly situated ellipse.

19. Prove that all stars which rise at the same instant at a place within certain limits of latitude will, after a certain interval, lie in a vertical great circle; and determine those limits.

20. Shew how to find the days of the year on which the light of the sun reflected by a given window which has a south aspect will be thrown into some one of the lower windows of an opposite range of buildings.

21. Two perfectly elastic balls are moving in concentric circular tubes in opposite directions and with velocities proportional to the radii: at an instant when they are in the same diameter and on opposite sides of the centre the tubes are removed and the balls move in ellipses under the action of a force of attraction in the common centre of the circles varying inversely as the square of the distance. After one has performed in its orbit a complete revolution and the other a revolution and a half, a direct collision takes place between the balls and they interchange orbits; find the relation between the radii of the circles and between the masses of the balls.

MONDAY, January 14, 1850. 9...12.

1. A COUPLE will balance an opposite couple of equal moment, if it be situated in the same plane.

2. A rigid body acted on by no forces except its weight and the reaction of smooth immoveable surfaces, or rods, or of strings without weight, will be in equilibrium, if placed so that the height of its centre of gravity above a horizontal plane is a maximum or minimum.

Apply this property to find the position of equilibrium of a uniform beam, one end of which is fixed to a ring that slides along a smooth vertical rod, and the other suspended from a fixed point by a string without weight.

3. Unequal weights are attached to the ends of a string stretched on a rough curve which is placed in a vertical plane. Determine the condition of equilibrium.

A man holds one end of a flexible rope, the other end of which is attached to a heavy body in motion. Explain the advantage of winding the rope a few times round a fixed cylinder before employing it to check the motion.

4. If  $M$  be the mass of a particle,  $x, y$  the co-ordinates which determine its position at the time  $t$ , and  $X, Y$  the components of the forces which act upon the particle parallel to the co-ordinate axes; establish the truth of the equations

$$M \frac{d^2 x}{dt^2} = X, \quad M \frac{d^2 y}{dt^2} = Y.$$

Shew that the direction of the motion at any instant will generally be different from the direction of acceleration, unless the particle move in a straight line.

5. Find the differential equation of the path described by a particle under the action of a central force.

Integrate the equation when the force varies inversely as the square of the distance, and when the particle moves in an ellipse find the relations between the arbitrary constants introduced by integration, and the elements of the orbit.

6. Shew (1) that the motion of translation of a rigid body is the same as it would be if its mass were collected at its centre of gravity, and all the forces were applied at that point in their proper directions; and (2) that the motion of rotation about the centre of gravity is the same as it would be if the centre of gravity were fixed.

7. Describe Huyghens' eye-piece, and if the focal length of the object-glass of a telescope be given, find the position of the eye-piece in order that a distant object may be distinctly seen.

8. Find a formula for determining the centre of pressure of a plane immersed in a liquid.

One edge of a cube is in the surface of a liquid and its upper face depressed below it; find the centre of pressure of the lower face.

9. Prove that a mass of incompressible fluid, each particle of which is attracted to any number of centres by forces which are functions of the distance, may always be so arranged as to be in equilibrium.

10. State the law which determines the elastic force of a mixture of air and vapour.

The volume of a quantity of air, when dry and under a given pressure and temperature, is given; find its volume when saturated with vapour if the pressure and temperature be the same as before, the maximum tension of the vapour for the given temperature being known.

Shew that the elastic force of the vapour in the atmosphere at any time may be known from the dew-point.

11. What is meant by the discordance of zenith points which are determined by double observations with the mural circle, and to what cause may it probably be referred?

Two telescopes fixed in the meridian, one to the north, and the other to the south of a mural circle, at the same elevation as its axis of motion, are so adjusted that the image of the intersection of the cross-wires of one would (if the circle were removed) be seen in coincidence with the intersection of the cross-wires of the other; shew how the error of collimation, and the flexure of the tube of the mural circle may be determined.

12. Describe fully the practical method of determining the error and rate of a clock. Explain the principle of this method, pointing out the reason why we must not employ stars near the pole for the purpose.

13. Find the time of the year when the twilight is shortest.

MONDAY, January 14, 1850.  $1\frac{1}{2} \dots 4$ .

1. EXPAND a numerical quantity in a series of ascending powers of its Napierian logarithm.

Shew that the base of Napier's system of logarithms is an incommensurable quantity.

2. Find an expression for the amount of a given sum of money which has accumulated during a given number of years at a given rate of compound interest.

If a sum of money, at a given rate of compound interest, accumulate to  $p$ -fold its original value in  $n$  years, and to  $p'$ -fold its original value in  $n'$  years; prove that  $n' = n \log_p p'$ .

3. When is one number said to be prime to another?

Express the number of numbers less than a given number which are prime to it, in terms of the given number and its prime factors.

Shew that the sum of these numbers is equal to half the product of the number of them into the given number.

4. Prove the formula

$$\frac{\pi}{4} = 4 \tan^{-1} \frac{1}{5} - \tan^{-1} \frac{1}{70} + \tan^{-1} \frac{1}{99}$$

where  $\pi$  is the circular measure of two right angles, and apply it to find the value of  $\pi$  to 5 places of decimals.

5. Divide  $x^n + p_1 x^{n-1} + p_2 x^{n-2} + \dots + p_n$  by  $x - h$ , stating the law of formation of the quotient. If this quotient be divided by  $x - h$ , and the next quotient by  $x - h$ , and so on until  $x$  disappears from the quotient, and if the remainders be  $H_0, H_1, \dots, H_{n-1}$ , prove that will have its roots less by  $h$  than the roots of  $x^n + p_1 x^{n-1} + \dots + p_n = 0$ .

$$x^n + H_{n-1} x^{n-1} + H_{n-2} x^{n-2} + \dots + H_1 x + H_0 = 0$$

6. If an equation have equal roots, shew how to find them.

What relation must exist among the coefficients of the equation

$$x^3 + px^2 + qx + r = 0$$

in order that it may have two equal roots?

7. Resolve  $x^{2n} - 2 \cos \theta x^n + 1$  into its quadratic factors.

Hence prove that

and point out at what part of the proof  $\theta$  is assumed to be the circular measure of the angle.

8. Find the polar equation of a straight line in terms of the perpendicular upon it from the pole and the angle which this perpendicular makes with the initial line.

Thence deduce the polar equation of the locus of the intersection of a perpendicular from a fixed point upon a line passing through another fixed point.

9. Find the equation of the tangent at any point of a circle.

If from any given point outside the circle a pair of tangents be drawn, find the equation of the circle which passes through the points of contact and the given point.

10. Determine when the general equation of the second degree represents two intersecting straight lines, or only a single point.

11. Given the equations of two straight lines in space, find the cosine of the angle between them.

Find the condition that the line  $\left(\frac{x}{l} = \frac{y}{m} = \frac{z}{n}\right)$  may be perpendicular to the plane  $(Ax + By + Cz = D)$ : supposing a line to be perpendicular to a plane when it is perpendicular to every line in that plane.

12. Given the equation of a plane  $x = p$ , deduce by the transformation of co-ordinates the equation  $\frac{x}{a} + \frac{y}{b} + \frac{z}{c} = 1$ , finding the angles through which the axes are turned in terms of  $a$ ,  $b$ , and  $c$ .

13. Find the distance between two points in space whose co-ordinates are given relative to a system of rectangular axes. Deduce the necessary conventions, as to the signs of the co-ordinates, in order that the expression of the distance may hold good for all positions of the points.

If  $(r, \theta, \phi)$   $(r', \theta', \phi')$  denote the polar co-ordinates of the points; shew that the rectilinear distance between them is

$$= \sqrt{r^2 + r'^2 - 2rr'(\cos \theta \cos \theta' + \sin \theta \sin \theta' \cos \phi - \phi')}.$$

Hence deduce the fundamental formula in Spherical Trigonometry; and explain the advantage (as to generality) of thus deducing it.

14. In a spherical triangle, the sides of which are denoted by  $a$ ,  $b$ ,  $c$  and the angles respectively opposite to them by  $A$ ,  $B$ ,  $C$ , having given two angles ( $A$  and  $B$ ) and the side ( $c$ ) adjacent to them; prove Napier's analogies for finding the other sides, viz.

$$\begin{aligned} \sin \frac{A+B}{2} : \sin \frac{A-B}{2} &= \tan \frac{c}{2} : \tan \frac{a-b}{2}, \\ \cos \frac{A+B}{2} : \cos \frac{A-B}{2} &= \tan \frac{c}{2} : \tan \frac{a+b}{2}. \end{aligned}$$

TUESDAY, January 15, 1850. 9...12.

1. If through the angles of a square four straight lines be drawn externally making the same angle  $\alpha$  with the successive sides so as to form another square, find its area.

2. If at a given point two circles intersect and their centres lie upon two lines at right angles to each other through the point; prove that, whatever be the magnitude of the circles, their common tangents will always meet in one of two straight lines which pass through the given point.

3. Prove that the sum of the fractions which are intermediate in magnitude to any two numbers  $m$  and  $n$  and have 3 for a denominator is  $n^2 - m^2$ .

4. Shew that

$$2 \tan^{-1} \left\{ \tan^{\frac{1}{2}} (45 - \alpha) \tan^{\frac{\beta}{2}} \right\} = \cos^{-1} \left( \frac{\tan \alpha + \cos \beta}{1 + \tan \alpha \cos \beta} \right),$$

if  $\alpha$  be  $< 45^\circ$ .

5. There are a number of counters in a bag of which one is marked 1, two 2, &c. up to  $r$  marked  $r$ ; a person draws a counter at random, for which he is to receive as many shillings as the number marked on it; find the value of his expectation.

6. A right cone is cut obliquely and then placed with its section on a horizontal plane, prove that, when the angle of the cone is less than  $\sin^{-1} \frac{1}{2}$ , there will be two sections for which the equilibrium is neutral and for intermediate sections the cone will fall over.

7. The three corners of a triangle are kept on a circle by three rings capable of sliding along the circle, and the circle is inclined to the horizon at a given angle; find the positions of equilibrium.

8. A paraboloid of revolution with its axis vertical contains a quantity of water into which is sunk a heavy sphere, and the water is just sufficient to cover the sphere; find the form of the paraboloid that the quantity of water with which this can be done may be the least possible.

9. A number  $n$  of equal confocal parabolas are ranged all round the focus at equal angular intervals; shew that the product of the distances of all the points of intersection from the focus is  $\frac{l^n (n-1)}{n^n}$ ,  $l$  being the latus rectum.

10. The locus of the points from which a circle is projected into a circle upon a plane inclined at a finite angle to the given circle is an equilateral hyperbola.

11. Three equal cylinders are placed in contact upon a horizontal plane, sufficiently rough to prevent sliding; find how much water must be poured into the space between the cylinders, in order to disturb the equilibrium.

12. A heavy rod whose weight is  $W$  rests upon a fulcrum at its middle point when loaded at one end with a weight  $W'$ , the density at any point of the rod at the distance  $x$  from a certain point in it varies as  $\sin \frac{\pi x}{a}$ ,  $a$  being the length of the rod; find the ratio of  $W$  to  $W'$ , and determine at which point the density is zero when this ratio is the greatest possible.

13. A heavy particle is fastened by two equal strings of given length to two points in a horizontal line and then whirled round in a vertical plane; the velocity is such that if one of the strings break when the particle is either at its lowest point or half-way between its highest and lowest points, the particle will still continue to describe a circle: find the least distance between the points to which the strings are fastened that this may be possible.

14. If a circle be described touching a curve at any point  $(r, \theta)$  and passing through the pole; shew that the equation to the circle will be

15. If a string be wrapped round a glass prism whose section is an equilateral triangle so as to be always inclined at the same angle to the axis of the prism, the portions of the string seen by internal reflexion will appear to be parallel to the portions seen directly.

16. A rectangular box at the bottom of which is a plane mirror contains an unknown quantity of water; from the angle at which a ray of light must enter through one of two small holes in the lid in order that after refraction and reflexion it may emerge at the other; determine the height of the water in the box.

17. A certain territory is bounded by two meridian circles and by two parallels of latitude which differ in longitude and latitude respectively by one degree, and is known to lie within certain limits of latitude; find the probable superficial area.

18. If  $P$  be the perimeter of a closed curve described about a centre of force,  $\tau$  the time of revolution,  $h$  twice the area described in an unit of time, and  $\rho$  the radius of curvature at the time  $t$ , prove that  $P = h \int_0^\tau \frac{dt}{\rho}$ .

19. A parallelogram whose centre is fixed is rotating with a given angular velocity about one of its principal axes in its plane; find how it must be struck that after the blow it may rotate with the same angular velocity about the other.

20. All space being supposed filled with an elastic fluid whose volume at a given density is known, the particles of which are attracted to a given point by a force varying as the distance, find the pressure on a circular disc placed with its centre at the centre of force.

21. If a rod be fixed into a vertical wall which faces the south and the shadow of it be cast upon the wall by the sun, find the curve upon which the shadow of the end of the rod will be situated every day at mean noon, the sun being supposed to move uniformly in the ecliptic with his mean motion.

22. If  $f(x-a, y-b, z-c)$  be homogeneous with respect to  $x-a, y-b, z-c$ ; then  $f(x-a, y-b, z-c)=0$  is the equation of a cone whose vertex is  $(a, b, c)$ ; if the cone pass into a cylinder by  $a, b, c$  becoming infinite, shew algebraically that the limiting form of the above equation is

$$\phi(mx + ny + pz + q, m'x + n'y + p'z + q') = 0.$$

TUESDAY, January 15, 1850. 1½...4.

1. If a very small pencil of light, consisting of parallel rays, fall obliquely on a convex spherical mirror; find the form of the reflected pencil, and determine the distances of the focal lines from the point of incidence.

2. Explain how the eye-glasses and object-glasses of common refracting telescopes are rendered (to a certain extent) achromatic, stating the circumstance which renders an achromatic combination possible.

Investigate the condition of achromatism of a compound eye-glass consisting of two lenses of the same material separated from one another by a given distance.

3. Investigate the conditions necessary and sufficient for the equilibrium of a rigid body acted upon by any number of forces in any directions in space.

Modify these conditions so as to make them apply to the case of a rigid body capable only of moving about a fixed axis, and of sliding freely along that axis.

4. Determine the moon's parallax by observations made in the plane of the meridian.

Why are observations made out of the plane of the meridian of less value for this purpose than observations made in that plane?

5. Shew how the mean motion of the apsidal line of the earth's orbit is accurately determined.

6. Describe and account for the inequality in the moon's longitude, which is called the variation.

7. A particle attracted towards a fixed point arrives at the point in equal times from all initial positions of rest; find the law of the attractive force.

8. State the quality of perfect fluidity which the equation of continuity expresses, and investigate the equation.

9. Find the velocity with which a small disturbance is propagated along a column of air of initial uniform density, enclosed in a cylindrical tube, all the particles of air in a transverse section at any instant having equal motions; assuming that the effect of the heat developed at any point is to make the elasticity vary according to a higher power of the density than the first.

Explain the terms—pitch—intensity—and quality—as applied to a musical note; and distinguish between a musical note and a noise.

10. In the expression for the moon's longitude there is a term of the second order

$$\frac{15}{4} m e \sin \{(1-2m) p t - 2\beta + \alpha\},$$ where  $e$  is the mean eccentricity and  $\alpha$  the mean longitude of the perihelion of the moon's orbit,  $\beta$  the mean longitude of the sun when the moon's longitude was zero,  $p$  the mean motion of the moon, and  $m$  the ratio of the mean motions of the sun and moon. Determine the change in the position of the axis, and in the eccentricity of the moon's orbit produced by this term.

WEDNESDAY, January 16, 1850. 9...12.

✓ 1. If  $a, b, c$  be in harmonic progression, shew that

$$\frac{1}{a} + \frac{1}{c} + \frac{1}{a-b} + \frac{1}{c-b} = 0.$$

2. If there be  $z$  counters, of which  $z_m$  are marked  $m$ ;  $z_n$   $n$ , &c., with or without other marks;  $z_{m,n}$   $m, n$ , with or without other marks;  $z_{m,n,p,q}$ ... marked  $m, n, p, q$ ...; the number unmarked is  $z - \Sigma z_m + \Sigma z_{m,n} - \Sigma z_{m,n,p} + \dots$ ,  $\Sigma$  involving all combinations.

3. Prove that  $y = nx + \frac{1}{x} + \frac{1}{x} + \frac{1}{x} \dots$  ad inf. is the equation of a hyperbola. Find the position and magnitude of the axes, and write down the equation of the conjugate hyperbola under the same form.

4. From a point  $O$  are drawn two lines to touch a parabola in the points  $P$  and  $Q$ ; another line touches the parabola in  $R$  and intersects  $OP$ ,  $OQ$  in  $S$ ,  $T$ ; if  $V$  be the intersection of the lines joining  $PT$ ,  $QS$  crosswise,  $O, R, V$  are in the same straight line.

5. A series of circles pass through a given point  $O$ , have their centres in a line  $OA$ , and meet another line  $AB$ . From  $M, N$  the points in which one of the circles meets the lines  $OA, AB$  are drawn parallels to  $AB, OA$  intersecting in  $P$ . Shew that the locus of  $P$  is a hyperbola which becomes a parabola when the two lines are at right angles.

6. If from the focus of a parabola lines be drawn to meet the tangents at a constant angle, the locus of the points of intersection will be that tangent to the parabola whose inclination to the axis is equal to the given angle. Prove this in any manner and shew that, if  $m$  be eliminated between  $y = mx + \frac{a}{m}$  and  $y = \frac{m+t}{1-mt} (x-a)$ , the result contains a factor which answers to the locus. Also explain briefly the origin and signification of the other factors.

ed 7. Within the evolute of an ellipse is inscribed a similar ellipse; within its evolute another similar ellipse, and so on ad inf.; shew that the sum of all the areas  $= \frac{\pi}{4} \frac{(a^2 + b^2)^2}{ab}$ .

8. Three equal smooth spheres are placed together on a horizontal plane and kept in contact by a string passed round them in the plane of their centres. A cone of given weight and vertical angle is placed between them so that its axis is vertical; find the tension of the string, and, if the string be suddenly cut, find when the cone will strike the plane.

9. A smooth cylinder is supported in a position of equilibrium by a string which is wound  $m$  times round it and then has its extremities attached to two points in the same horizontal line. The position of equilibrium being that in which the coils are separate, shew how it is determined and how to find the length of string in contact with the cylinder.

10.  $A$  and  $B$  being two fixed points and  $P$  a point such that  $AP = \mu \cdot BP$ , the locus of  $P$  is a circle. Shew from this property how to construct a lens of common glass such that a direct pencil incident from a determinate point will be refracted without aberration.

11. If a parabola roll upon a line, the focus will trace out a catenary.

12. Portions are cut from an ellipsoid by planes which are parallel and equidistant from the centre; if  $\omega$  be the length of a perpendicular from the centre upon either plane, and  $\alpha, \beta, \gamma$  the angles which it makes with the axes, shew that the remainder will rest when placed with a section on a horizontal plane, if

$$\frac{1}{\omega^2} = \text{or} > \frac{\cos^2 \alpha}{a^2} + \frac{\cos^2 \beta}{b^2} + \frac{\cos^2 \gamma}{c^2},$$

$a, b, c$  being the axes of the ellipsoid; and express the condition that  $m$  such solids, when placed on each other with their sections coincident, and their centres in a line inclined to the vertical, shall not fall over.

13. An uniform rod is placed with its middle point against a rough circle in whose centre resides a force attracting inversely as the square of the distance; if the rod be slightly disturbed from the position of equilibrium, find the time of a small oscillation.

14. Two equal particles of mass  $m$  are fixed at the extremities of the axis of a prolate spheroid, of which the mass is  $M$ , the eccentricity of the generating ellipse being  $e$ . The spheroid is struck by a couple and then left to move freely; shew that throughout the motion it will constantly have contact with a single plane, if

$$m = \frac{1}{1-e} \cdot M e^2.$$

15. If from a point  $O$  be drawn any two lines to the polar plane of  $O$  in a surface of the second order and meet the plane in  $A$  and  $B$ , and if the central conjugate plane of  $OA$  meet  $OB$  in  $C$ , and the central conjugate plane of  $OB$  meet  $OA$  in  $D$ ,  $CD$  is parallel to  $AB$ .

16. A plane moves so as always to cut off from an ellipsoid the same volume; shew that it will in every position touch a similar and concentric ellipsoid.

17. Find the forms of the curve whose equation is  $xy^3 = m^2(x^2 + y^2 - a^2)$  according as  $m^2$  is  $>$ ,  $=$ , or  $< \frac{3\sqrt{3}}{4} \cdot a^2$ .

18. A hollow cylinder is filled with inelastic fluid and made to revolve about a vertical axis attached to the centre of its upper plane face with a velocity sufficient to retain it at the same inclination to the axis. Find at what point of the face a hole might be bored without loss of any fluid.

19. A mass of inelastic fluid is contained between three co-ordinate planes, each of which attracts with a force which  $\propto$  (dist.) and the absolute forces of attraction  $\mu_1, \mu_2, \mu_3$  are in harmonic progression. Half an ellipsoid is fixed with its plane face against one of the co-ordinate planes and its surface touching the other planes; its axes being parallel to the co-ordinate axes and proportional to  $\frac{1}{\sqrt{\mu_1}}, \frac{1}{\sqrt{\mu_2}}, \frac{1}{\sqrt{\mu_3}}$ . If there be not sufficient fluid quite to cover the ellipsoid, the uncovered part will be bounded by a semi-circle.

20. If  $F(xyz) = 0$  be the equation of a system of curves, where  $c$  is a variable parameter and  $\phi(xy) = 0$  the equation of the envelope of the system; shew that  $\phi(xy) = 0$  is the equation of a cylinder whose intersection with the surface  $F(xyz) = 0$  is the locus of points which in sections parallel to the planes of  $yz, xz$  have their tangents parallel to the axis of  $z$ .

Ex. The cone whose equation is  $x^2 + y^2 + z^2 = (lx + my + nz)^2$  is cut by planes parallel to the planes of  $xz$  and  $yz$ ; find the loci of the extremities of the diameters of the sections which are conjugate to the vertical diameter.

21. A small arc of a hoop is removed and replaced by two small straight lines, tangents to the circle at the ends of the arc, their mass being so disposed that the centre of gravity remains still at the centre of the hoop. If the hoop be now rolled along a horizontal plane sufficiently rough to prevent sliding with an angular velocity  $\omega$  not great enough to make it leap, shew that motion will never cease unless be a whole number; where  $a$  is the radius of the hoop,  $k$  its radius of gyration, and  $2\alpha$  the angle subtended by the arc removed.

22. Shew that

$$\int_0^{\frac{\pi}{2}} \tan^{\frac{1}{2}} x \log (\tan x) dx = \frac{\pi^2}{6},$$

and that

$$\int_{-a}^{+a} \frac{\sqrt{a^2 - x^2}}{\sin 2\epsilon - x} dx = \pi a \tan \epsilon \text{ or } \pi a \cot \epsilon,$$

according as  $\epsilon$  is  $<$  or  $> \frac{\pi}{4}$ .

23. Two similar homogeneous cords are similarly stretched, and one of them loaded at its middle point with a small weight  $\mu$ ; shew that the fundamental note of the loaded cord will be higher than that of the other, and that if  $t$  denote the time of vibration of the loaded cord for any possible note, the values of  $t$  are given by the equation where  $l$  is the length of the cord,  $\epsilon$  the mass of an unit of length, and  $\tau$  its tension.

Under what initial circumstances will both strings sound the same note?

WEDNESDAY, January 16, 1850. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ...4.

1. DEFINE what is meant by the limit of a function, and give illustrations. Find the limit to which the function  $\frac{\log_a(1+x)}{x}$  approaches, as  $x$  approaches the limit zero.

2. If  $F(x)$  be a real function of  $x$ , which together with its derivatives remains continuous between the limits  $a$  and  $a+h$ , and if  $F(x)$  and its derivatives as far as the  $(n-1)^{\text{th}}$  vanish when  $x=a$ , shew that if  $\theta$  denote a number less than unity.

$$F(a+h) = \frac{h^n}{1.2.3.....n} F^{(n)}(a+\theta h),$$

3. Shew how to transform an expression involving $$..... \iint y dx^2, \int y dx, y, \frac{dy}{dx}, \frac{d^2y}{dx^2} .....$$

into an equivalent expression in which a given function of  $x$  shall be the independent variable.

Express the angle between the radius vector and tangent at any point of a spiral, under the supposition that the curve is the limit (1) of a polygon whose sides subtend equal angles at the pole, (2) of an equilateral polygon.

4. Shew how to apply the differential calculus to determine the true value of a quantity which assumes the form  $\frac{0}{0}$ . Extend the rule to quantities which take the form  $\frac{\infty}{\infty}$ .

Find the value of  $\left( \frac{\theta^2}{1 - \cos m\theta} \right)_{\theta=0}$ .

5. State and prove the common rule for integrating by parts.

Shew that

$$f(x) = f(0) + \frac{x}{1} f'(0) + \dots + \frac{x^n}{1.2.3\dots n} f^{(n)}(0) + \frac{1}{1.2.3\dots n} \int_0^x f^{(n+1)}(\alpha)(x-\alpha)^n d\alpha$$ in which  $f$  represents any function, and  $f^{(n)}$  its  $n^{\text{th}}$  derivative.

Hence prove that  $\sin x$  differs from $$x - \frac{x^3}{1.2.3} + \frac{x^5}{1.2.3.4.5} - \dots + (-1)^{n-1} \frac{x^{2n-1}}{1.2.3\dots(2n-1)}$$ by a quantity less than  $\frac{x^{2n}}{1.2.3\dots 2n}$ .

6. Trace the curves whose equations are respectively

$$x^3 + y^3 - ax^2 = 0, \quad r = a \sec 3\theta.$$

7. Investigate a formula for the reduction of  $\int \frac{x^m dx}{\sqrt{2ax - x^2}}$ ; and thence find the value of  $\int_0^{\frac{\pi}{2}} (\sin \theta)^{2n} d\theta$ .

8. Explain how the curvature at any point of a plane curve is measured; and express the curvature in terms of the polar co-ordinates of the point, the equation of the curve being given.

Define the circle of curvature at a point of a plane curve; and prove that its centre coincides with the point of ultimate intersection of consecutive normals.

9. Investigate the analytical conditions necessary in order that a given function of two independent variables may, for given values of the variables, be a maximum or minimum; and shew how to distinguish between a maximum and a minimum value of the function.

Find the greatest and least straight lines which can be drawn from the centre to the surface of a given ellipsoid; and from the investigation infer the positions of the circular sections.

10. Prove the general formula

$$\Delta^n u_x = u_{x+n} - nu_{x+n-1} + \frac{n(n-1)}{1.2} u_{x+n-2} - \dots + (-1)^n u_x.$$

By the help of this and Fermat's theorem prove that  $1.2.3\dots(p-1) + 1$  is divisible by  $p$ , if  $p$  be a prime number.

11. If the tangent lines at a point of curve surface lie in a plane, shew that a surface of the second order may be determined such that any plane drawn through the point shall cut the two surfaces in curves which have equal curvatures at the point.

THURSDAY, January 17, 1850. 9...12.

1. PROVE that

$$x^3 + y^3 + (x+y)^3 = 2(x^2 + xy + y^2)^2 + 8x^2y^2(x+y)^2(x^2 + xy + y^2).$$ and if  $x^2 + xy + y^2 = a$ ,  $xy(x+y) = b$ , and  $n$  be any positive integer, shew that

$$x^{2n} + y^{2n} + (x+y)^{2n} = 2a^n + n(n-2)a^{n-2}b^2 + \frac{n(n-3)(n-4)(n-5)}{3 \cdot 4} a^{n-4}b^4 \\ + \dots + \frac{n(n-r-1)(n-r-2)\dots(n-3r-1)}{3 \cdot 4 \dots 2r} a^{n-2r}b^{2r} + \dots$$

2. If  $a$  be less than  $b$ , prove that  $\left(\frac{a}{b}\right)^{a+b}$  is increased by adding the same quantity to  $a$  and  $b$ .

And if  $n$  be greater than one, shew that  $\left(\frac{a}{b}\right)^n > \left(\frac{na-b}{nb-b}\right)^{n-1}$ ; by means of this formula prove that  $(a+b+c+\&c.)^n > n^a abc \&c.$

3. Find the points  $A, B, C$ , &c.  $L, M$  in a parabola such that the tangents at these points are parallel to the focal distances  $SM, SA, SB$ , &c.  $SL$  respectively.

4. Draw  $AB$  and  $AC$  at right angles to one another and make  $AB$  equal to twice  $AC$ , produce  $CA$  to  $D$  until  $CD$  is equal to  $CB$ ; prove that  $BD$  will be the side of a regular pentagon inscribed in a circle of which  $AB$  is the radius.

Also if with centre  $D$  and radius  $DA$  we describe a circle  $AEF$  of which  $ADF$  is a diameter and make  $AE$  equal to  $AB$ , then  $FE$  will be the side of a regular pentagon circumscribing a circle of which  $AC$  is the radius.

5. If  $\frac{p}{q}$  be the  $r^{\text{th}}$  fraction converging to  $\frac{m}{n}$  and  $n'$  be the  $r^{\text{th}}$  remainder in the process for finding the successive quotients, prove that

$$\frac{m}{n} \sim \frac{p}{q} = \frac{n'}{nq}.$$

6. If  $a, b, c$  be the sides of the triangle  $ABC$ ,  $p, q, r$  lines bisecting the angles drawn to the opposite sides, and  $p', q', r'$  these lines produced to meet the circle which circumscribes the triangle, shew that

$$\frac{\cos \frac{A}{2}}{p} + \frac{\cos \frac{B}{2}}{q} + \frac{\cos \frac{C}{2}}{r} = \frac{1}{a} + \frac{1}{b} + \frac{1}{c},$$

$$p' \cos \frac{A}{2} + q' \cos \frac{B}{2} + r' \cos \frac{C}{2} = a + b + c.$$

7. Find the probability of drawing a black and a white ball the same number of times from a bag which contains an equal number of each; the balls being drawn one by one and replaced after each drawing, and the number of drawings being the same as the number of balls in the bag, but this number is unknown, any number from 2 to  $2n$  being equally probable.

8. If a plane area, bounded by a parabola and its double ordinate, be supported by an axis through the focus and a vertical force acting along the ordinate, find what portion may be cut off by a line through the focus without affecting the vertical force; and the least area for which this is possible.

9. Prove the following formulæ :

$$(1) \quad \pi = 96(2 + \sqrt{2}) \left( \frac{1}{1.3.5.7} + \frac{1}{9.11.13.15} + \dots \right).$$

$$(2) \quad 1 + \frac{x^3}{1.2.3} + \frac{x^6}{1.2.3.4.5.6} + \dots = \frac{1}{3} \left( e^x + 2e^{-\frac{x}{2}} \cos \frac{x\sqrt{3}}{2} \right).$$

$$(3) \quad \frac{\cos\{(n-2r)a-s\}}{\sin(a-b)\sin(a-c)\dots} + \frac{\cos\{(n-2r)b-s\}}{\sin(b-a)\sin(b-c)\dots} + \&c. \text{ to } n \text{ terms} = 0,$$

where  $s$  is the sum of the  $n$  quantities  $a, b, c$  &c., and  $r$  is any integer between 1 and  $n-1$  inclusive.

10. Trace the curve whose equation is  $(r-c)^2 = c\theta(2a-c\theta)$  when  $c = \frac{2a}{\pi}$  : and prove that as  $c$  increases indefinitely the curve approximates to a circle.

11. Find the locus of the consecutive intersections of the curve whose equation is  $x'^2 + y'^2 = 2ax' + 2by'$ ;  $a$  and  $b$  having any values which satisfy the equations

$$2a \left( x \frac{dy}{dx} - y \right) = (x^2 - y^2) \frac{dy}{dx} - 2xy,$$

$$2b \left( x \frac{dy}{dx} - y \right) = x^2 - y^2 + 2xy \frac{dy}{dx},$$

$x$  and  $y$  being the co-ordinates of any given curve.

12. Given  $f(x) + f(y) = f(x+y) \{1 - f(x)f(y)\}$ , find the form of  $f(x)$ .

13. From the focus of an ellipse lines are drawn to any four points in the curve, and the reciprocal of each line is multiplied by the sines of half the angles between any two of the remaining lines, prove that the sum of the first and third of these products taken in order is equal to the sum of the second and fourth.

14. A rectangular vessel is filled with fluid of twice its weight and placed with its open end downwards upon a horizontal plane, which is then made to revolve round each side of the base of the vessel successively, one of these sides being greater and the other less than three times the height; find when the fluid will begin to escape in each case, supposing the centres of gravity of the vessel and the fluid to coincide.

15. If a luminous point be reflected by a small plane mirror so as to be seen by an eye in a given position, and the mirror move in such a way that the luminous point always appears to be upon a given conical surface, of which the point is the vertex and a line through the eye the axis, find the form of the surface upon which the small mirror must always be situated.

16. If the earth, supposed spherical, were covered to a depth  $h$  with water,

$h$  being small compared with  $r$  the earth's radius, shew that the height to which a person must be raised above the surface of the water in order to see as far below the horizon as when he was on the surface of the earth is $\frac{h^2}{2r(\mu^2-1)}$  nearly:  $\mu$  being the index of refraction for water.

17. If any number of bodies be projected from a given point with the same velocity in one plane, and describe ellipses round a central force which varies inversely as the square of the distance; find the law of force tending to the same centre, under the action of which a body will describe the curve which is the locus of the centres of the different ellipses.

18. If a body hang by a string, and through any point of the string a series of horizontal lines be drawn, with any one of which the body may be rigidly connected and perform small oscillations about it, the time of oscillation will be a maximum about a line at right angles to the one about which it is a minimum; prove this, and shew how to find the position of these two lines, and the time of oscillation about any other, in terms of the times about these two, and the angle which it makes with them.

19. If  $x, y, z$  be the co-ordinates of any point  $P$  on the surface  $f(x, y, z)=0$ ,  $x', y', z'$  of a point  $P'$  on the surface  $f(x', y', z')=0$ , and for any position of  $P$   $x'=lx, y'=my, z'=nz$ ; and if the surfaces be such that when we take any two points  $P, Q$  on the first and two corresponding points  $P', Q'$  on the second,  $PQ'$  is equal to  $P'Q$ ; find the form of the surfaces.

20. It is not possible to fill any given space with a number of regular polyhedrons of the same kind except cubes, but this may be done by means of tetrahedrons and octahedrons which have equal faces, by using twice as many of the former as of the latter.

21. If lines be drawn through any two of the points  $A, B, C$ , &c., and other lines through any two of the points  $a, b, c$ , &c. all in one plane, prove that the intersections of  $AB$  with  $ab$ , of  $AC$  with  $ac$  &c. will lie in one straight line, provided that the lines through the intersections of any two of the first series of lines and the corresponding intersections of the second series all pass through the same point.

22. Prove that the tangent plane at any point of the surface intersects the surface  $ayz + bzx + cxy = 0$  in two straight lines at right angles to one another.

$$(ax)^2 + (by)^2 + (cz)^2 = 2(abxy + bcyz + cazz)$$

23. Suppose that during the day of the equinox a man walks in a horizontal plane towards the sun at a uniform rate, prove that the equation of the path described by him is where  $x$  and  $y$  are the co-ordinates of his position, at any time, measured along and at right angles to his meridian at noon,  $l$  is his latitude, and  $a$  is the space he walks over while the earth revolves through an angle  $n$ .

Deduce the particular cases of his being at the pole and at the equator.

THURSDAY, January 17, 1850. 1½...4.

1. FIND the equations of the two lines which bisect the angles between two other lines whose equations are given.

If lines be drawn bisecting the angles of a triangle, and the exterior angles formed by producing the sides, these lines will intersect in only four points besides the angles of the triangle.

2. Given the rectangular equation of a curve, find the relation between  $s$  and  $\phi$ ,  $s$  being the length of the curve and  $\phi$  the angle of deviation of the tangent from the tangent at the origin; and vice versa.

If  $s = 4a \sin \phi$ , find the relation between  $x$  and  $y$ .

3. Shew how to integrate the equation of differences

$$u_{s+1} + f_1(x) u_s + f_2(x) = 0,$$

$f_1(x)$  and  $f_2(x)$  being given functions of  $x$ .

Integrate the equation  $u_{s+1} - e^{2ax} u_s - e^{ax^2} = 0$ .

4. Shew how to find the latitude of a place by observing the altitudes of two known stars at the same instant.

5. Shew how to determine the moment of inertia of a body about any axis when the moments of inertia about the principal axes are known.

A portion is cut from a hyperboloid of revolution of one sheet by planes perpendicular to the axis and equidistant from the centre; find the moment of inertia about a generating line.

6. Shew how to find the equation of a curve which cuts at a given angle a series of curves described according to a certain law.

7. A body is projected at a given angle of elevation and with a velocity  $u$  in the air, the resistance of which is assumed to be  $k(\text{vel.})^2$ ; if  $s$  be the arc which has been described when the direction of motion makes an angle  $\phi$  with the horizon, shew that

$$\frac{g}{k u^2} \frac{1}{\cos^2 \alpha} (\epsilon^{2ks} - 1) = \frac{\sin \alpha}{\cos^2 \alpha} - \frac{\sin \phi}{\cos^2 \phi} + \log \frac{\tan \left( \frac{\pi}{4} - \frac{\phi}{2} \right)}{\tan \left( \frac{\pi}{4} - \frac{\alpha}{2} \right)}.$$

Explain generally in what manner the motion of a sphere thus projected would be influenced (1) by its having a motion of rotation about any axis, (2) by its not having its centre of gravity at the centre of the sphere.

8. Explain the difference between periodic and secular variations.

How does it appear that the major axes of the planetary orbits are subject to none but periodical changes; and that there is a limit to the secular variations of the eccentricities of the orbits?

9. Given the component angular velocities about the principal axes of a rigid body which moves about its centre of gravity, investigate equations for determining its position at any instant with reference to a fixed plane and a fixed line in the plane.

If the body be acted on by no forces, eliminate the angular velocities from the equations by making a normal to the invariable plane the fixed line of reference.

10. Describe the phenomena observed when a beam of light passes through a plate of Iceland spar cut perpendicular to the axis of the crystal. Explain how the property of double refraction has been turned to account in Rochon's double image micrometer.

FRIDAY, January 18, 1850. 9...12.

1. SHEW how to distinguish between the different kinds of cusps.

If  $f(a+h)$  involve fractional powers of  $h$ , and  $f(a-h)$  be impossible, discuss the nature of the curve  $y=f(x)$  in the neighbourhood of the point  $x=a$ ,  $y=f(a)$ .

2. If  $n$  be a positive integer and  $\Gamma(n) = \int_0^\infty e^{-x} x^{n-1} dx$ , prove that

3. If an ellipsoid be defined by the equations  $x = a \cos \alpha$ ,  $y = b \sin \alpha \cos \beta$ ,  $z = c \sin \alpha \sin \beta$ , find an expression for an element of its surface in terms of the variables  $\alpha$  and  $\beta$ , and state the limits between which the integrations must be performed in order to find the area of the whole surface.

If  $\Delta S$  be an element of the surface at any point, and  $A$  the area of a section of the surface made by a plane through the centre parallel to the tangent plane at the point, shew that the limit of  $\Sigma \left( \frac{\Delta S}{A} \right) = 4$ .

4. If  $\int_{x_1}^{x_2} V dx$ , where  $V$  is a function of  $x$ ,  $y$ ,  $\frac{dy}{dx}$ , &c.... is to be made a maximum, subject to a condition between  $x$ ,  $y$ ,  $\frac{dy}{dx}$ , &c...., determine all the equations for the solution of the problem.

A piece of string of any given length is to be placed so as with a given straight line to include the greatest possible area; determine the form in which it must be arranged, and illustrate by a figure the integrations and other steps of your process.

5. Explain the general principle of interferences, and describe an experiment which shews that the principle of interferences applies to waves of sound as well as to waves of light.

Light proceeds from two origins near to each other, and the mixed streams are received upon a plane screen parallel to the line joining the origins; investigate the form and general appearance of the fringes which are received upon the screen.

6. Plane polarized light passes through an uniaxial crystal bounded by planes perpendicular to the axis of the crystal and is afterwards analysed, describe and explain the appearances presented when the planes of polarization and analysis are at right angles.

7. To what terms of the disturbing function are the most striking inequalities in the elements of a planet's orbit and in its longitude respectively to be referred, and what are the periods of these inequalities?

8. Shew that any function of  $\mu$  and  $\phi$  which is always finite between the limits  $-1$  and  $+1$  of  $\mu$ , and  $0$  and  $2\pi$  of  $\phi$  may be expanded in a series of Laplace's coefficients.

FRIDAY, January 18, 1850.  $1\frac{1}{2} \dots 4$ .

1. SHew how to integrate the linear equation of differences

$$u_{x+n} + p_1 u_{x+n-1} + \dots p_n u_x = X,$$

all the coefficients being constants.

2. Integrate the equations

$$\left( \frac{y}{z} + \frac{z}{y} \right) dx + \left( \frac{z}{x} + \frac{x}{z} \right) dy + \left( \frac{x}{y} + \frac{y}{x} \right) dz = 0.$$

3. Distinguish between skew and developable surfaces.

Shew that at every point of a developable surface

$$\left( \frac{d^2 z}{dx dy} \right)^2 - \frac{d^2 z}{dx^2} \frac{d^2 z}{dy^2}$$

is zero, and at every point of a skew surface is positive.

The equations of the generating line at the point  $(x, y, z)$  of a ruled surface are

$$\frac{x' - x}{a} = \frac{y' - y}{b} = \frac{z' - z}{2c \left( \frac{x}{a} - \frac{y}{b} \right)}.$$

Find the general form of the equation of the surface,

4. Prove that any motion whatever of a rigid body may be supposed to arise from the co-existence of a motion of translation of any point either in or rigidly connected with the body, and a motion of rotation about an axis passing through that point.

In examining the motion of a rigid body acted on by given forces, why is the centre of gravity of the body taken as the point to which the motion of translation is referred?

5. Investigate the condition necessary in order that a rigid body, which can turn about a given axis, may be struck by a blow so as to produce no impulsive action on the axis; and determine the line along which the blow must be struck.

Find how a rod which is moving in a plane must be struck by a blow so as to be instantaneously reduced to rest.

6. Determine the inequality in the moon's longitude called the annual equation, assuming the only disturbing force on the moon to be a central disturbing force equal to  $-\frac{m'}{2} \frac{a}{r'^3}$ , where  $m'$  is the mass of the sun,  $r'$  the sun's distance from the earth, and  $a$  the moon's mean distance from the earth.

7. State the circumstances connected with the solar system which chiefly facilitate the calculations of the planetary perturbations; and describe shortly the method of approximation pursued in consequence. Why is the same method inapplicable to the case of the moon?

Shew that the effect of a resisting medium on the instantaneous orbit of a planet would be to make the apsidal line regrede or progrede according as the planet moved from perihelion to aphelion, or from aphelion to perihelion.

8. Assuming that the effect of the moon's attraction on the earth is to make the pole of the earth revolve round the pole of the moon's orbit in a direction opposite to that of the earth's rotation and with an angular velocity proportional to the sine of the declination of the pole of the moon's orbit; find an expression for that part of the lunar nutation which affects the inclination of the equator to the ecliptic.

Plumian Professor.

1. SHEW how to obtain  $\log(a+b)$  from  $\log a$  and  $\log b$ , by means of a table of values of  $\log\left(1 + \frac{1}{x}\right)$  the argument of which is  $\log x$ .

2. Shew also how  $\log(a-b)$  may be deduced from  $\log a$  and  $\log b$ , by means of a table of values of  $\log \frac{x}{x-1}$  of which the argument is  $\log x$ ; and explain why it is unnecessary to carry the argument beyond  $\log 2$ .

3. Prove that an equation of five dimensions may in general be put under the form, and that the possible roots of the transformed equation are the abscissæ of the points of intersection of the constant curve whose equation is  $y = x^5 + x^3$ , or of that whose equation is  $y = x^5 - x^3$ , by a parabola, the latus rectum and position of which it is required to find.

$$x^5 \pm x^3 + p x^2 + q x + r = 0,$$

4. Determine the magnifying power of the Galilean Telescope, and the breadth of the visual pencil at the object-glass.

5. Prove that the surface of a spherical triangle is proportional to the excess of the sum of its three angles above two right angles.

Express the surface in terms of the angles and the radius of the sphere.

6. The curve whose equation is  $y = \sin x$  being described on a scale in which the linear unit is  $1^\circ$ , it is required to cut this curve by a straight line so that the abscissa of the point of intersection shall be the eccentric anomaly corresponding to any given mean anomaly in a given elliptical orbit.

7. If  $\delta\alpha$  be a small error in the calculated parallax ( $\alpha$ ) of the Moon in hour angle, arising from a small error  $\delta l$  in the assumed geocentric colatitude ( $l$ ), shew that

$$\frac{\delta\alpha}{\delta l} = \sin \alpha \cot l \sin \theta \operatorname{cosec} \theta',$$

$\theta$  and  $\theta'$  being respectively the apparent and geocentric hour angles.

8. The inclination of the Moon's orbit to the plane of the Ecliptic is greatest when the nodes are in syzygies, and least of all when the nodes are in quadratures and the Moon is in syzygy. (Principia, Lib. I. Prop. LXVI. Cor. 10.)

9. A large sphere of light material is suspended at the extremity of a rod supported on a fulcrum, and is counterbalanced by the weight of the rod; given the volumes and weights of the sphere and rod, the lengths of the lines drawn from the point of suspension of the sphere and the centre of gravity of the rod to the fulcrum, and the angle these lines make with each other, it is required to determine the position of equilibrium in air of given density.

10. Shew that an instrument constructed in the manner above stated would indicate variations of the density of the air, and determine on what conditions the sensibility of the instrument would depend. Shew also that if these conditions be satisfied, the equation of equilibrium is very approximately  $\rho = A + B \tan x$ ,  $\rho$  being the density of the air,  $x$  the inclination of the rod to a horizontal line, and  $A, B$  certain constants.

11. Given the length of a curve, find its form that its centre of gravity may be the lowest possible; and prove that if its extreme points be moveable on curves, it will cut the curves at right angles.

12. Shew how to find by the collimating eye-piece the angle which a line of collimation passing through the middle wire of a Transit makes with the plane of the meridian, the Telescope being directed to the nadir; and thence to determine, by reversing the instrument, the errors of Collimation and Level.

13. The angle made by the line of collimation of a Transit with the plane of the meridian, was found by the collimating eye-piece to be  $\alpha$ , the Telescope being directed to the nadir, and at the same time the vertical ordinates of two points at the extremities of the pivots near the axis of motion were  $y_1$  and  $y_2$ ; on directing the Telescope to a zenith distance  $z$ , the vertical ordinates of the same points were  $y'_1$  and  $y'_2$ , and the horizontal ordinates referred to the plane of the prime vertical,  $x'_1$  and  $x'_2$ . Shew that in this position of the Telescope the small angle of inclination of the line of collimation to the plane of the meridian is,

$$\alpha + \frac{y_2 - y_1}{D} + \frac{y'_2 - y'_1}{D} \cos z + \frac{x'_2 - x'_1}{D} \sin z,$$

The result is independent of the form of the pivots.

14. From the Apparent Right Ascension and North Polar Distance of a Planet observed at a given position of the Earth's surface at a given time, and the known geocentric co-ordinates of the Sun, find (without taking account of aberration) the equations of the line joining the Planet and the place of the observer, the angle which this line makes with the line joining the place of the observer and the Sun's centre, and the equation of the plane containing these two lines.

15. The equation of the plane of the Planet's orbit referred to the Sun's centre being given, calculate from an observation of its Apparent Right Ascension and North Polar Distance at a given place and given time, and from the known geocentric co-ordinates of the Sun, the distances of the Planet from the Sun and from the place of the observer,

16. If  $\phi = f(x, y, z, t)$ , prove by the Calculus of Variations that  $\delta(d\phi) = (d \cdot \delta\phi)$ , the brackets indicating that the variable  $t$  is not operated upon by the symbol  $d$ .

17. Prove on the usual hypotheses that the height of the Tide at any place caused by the action of a single luminary, is as the square of the cosine of the zenith or nadir distance of the luminary.

18. The equation of the boundary of a comet or nebulous body being given, together with the density at any point of its interior, it is required to find the law of brightness of its apparent disk, supposing that each particle sends the same quantity of light to the eye of a distant spectator.

Example: A spherical body of radius  $a$ , the density at any distance  $r$  from the centre being  $\Delta \sqrt{a^2 - r^2}$ .

19. Conversely, from the law of brightness of the apparent disk, and the density at any point and known distance of the body, find the equation of the boundary, supposing it to be symmetrical with reference to a plane perpendicular to the direction of vision.

Example: The density of the body being the same as in the foregoing example, the brightness at any apparent distance  $R$  from the centre of the disk varies as  $a^2 - m^2 R^2$ .

20. The centre of oscillation of a pendulum performing small vibrations in a circular arc of radius  $c$ , is observed to descend through the arc  $s$  in the first vibration, and to ascend through  $s_n$  in the  $n^{\text{th}}$ : shew that the decrements of the arc of vibration, supposing them all equal, are the same that would be produced by giving to the pendulum at each transit through the lowest point an impulse which suddenly diminishes the velocity of the centre of oscillation by  $\frac{s - s_n}{n} \sqrt{\frac{g}{c}}$ .

21. Assuming the mean effect of the dead-beat escapement of a clock to be equivalent to a sudden impulse given to the pendulum when the centre of oscillation is lowest, determine the clock-weight that will maintain the arc of vibration at a given constant value, the weight required to overcome the friction of the train of wheels not being considered.

Let  $a$  be the length of the arm of the pallet,  $\beta$  the angle which the face of the pallet makes with the arm,  $M$  the weight of the pendulum,  $h$  the distance of its centre of gravity from the axis of motion,  $s$  the given arc,  $U = \frac{s - s_n}{n} \sqrt{\frac{g}{c}}$  from the preceding question,  $W$  the required weight, and  $b$  its descent in 24 hours : then approximately,

$$W = \frac{43200 MU h \tan \beta}{ab}.$$

22. State the principles on which Newton determines (Principia, Lib. I. Sect. XIV.) the path of a corpuscle attracted or repelled by a given medium; and on these principles obtain according to the Corpuscular Theory of Light, the relation  $\mu^2 - 1 = K\rho$  between the refractive index  $\mu$  and density  $\rho$  of any medium,  $K$  being independent of variations of its density.

How may this law be deduced from the principles of the Undulatory Theory of Light? In what manner has it been experimentally verified for air?

23. Shew that if  $\mu^2 - 1 = K\rho$  for any state of density of the Earth's atmosphere, the following differential equation of the trajectory of a ray of light coming from a heavenly body, results independently of any Theory of Light: viz.

$$d\theta = \frac{a \sin Z dr}{r \sqrt{r^2 - a^2 \sin^2 Z} + K r^2 \rho},$$

$Z$  being the apparent zenith distance of the body at the Earth's surface,  $a$  the Earth's radius, and  $r, \theta$  polar co-ordinates referred to the Earth's centre and to the radius drawn to the place of observation.

In what respect does this solution differ from Littrow's?

24. A pulse propagated along a stretched cord is reflected when it reaches a fixed point, and the reflected pulse is on the opposite side of the cord.

How are these facts explained theoretically? Shew that they are direct consequences of the principle of the coexistence of small vibrations.

January, 1850.

BY THE REV. WILLIAM WHEWELL, D.D.

Master of Trinity College.

1. In a rectangular garden  $ABCD$ , a walk of equal width runs along the two sides  $BA, AC$ , having its corner at  $P$ , and is equal in area to half the triangle. Shew that  $P$  is the center of the circle inscribed in the triangle  $ABC$ .

2. A circle rolls upon a smaller circle which is within it: find the path described by any point in its circumference.

3. If two rectilinear figures be equal, the one can always be cut into rectilinear figures which will make up the other.

4. A rhombohedron of which the dihedral angles are given, has its axis produced equally both ways, so as to be  $n$  times the axis of the rhombohedron, and by laying planes along the lateral edges and through the new vertices, a scalenohedron is constructed: find the dihedral angles of this scalenohedron.

5. Two smooth cylindrical poles, resting on the ground at their lower ends, and making equal angles with the vertical, in parallel planes, touch and cross each other, and where they cross, are bound tight by a cord which passes round both. Find the tension of the cord when they support a given weight at their crossing.

6. A uniform sphere  $A$  strikes at the same moment any two other given uniform spheres  $B, C$  which are inelastic: find the motions of the three spheres after the impact.

7. Let  $m, m', m'', \&c.$  be the masses of any connected points in any system,  $A, A', A'', \&c.$  their places at the time  $t$ ;  $B, B', B'', \&c.$  the places which they would have at the end of a small time  $\delta t$  if they were unconnected and acted upon by the same forces;  $C, C', C'', \&c.$  their places at the end of  $\delta t$  in consequence of their connection: then  $m \cdot BC^2 + m' \cdot B'C'^2 + m'' \cdot B''C''^2 + \&c.$  will be a minimum.

8. A man sees himself reflected in a mirror which is cylindrically convex and concave respectively, in two directions at right angles to each other: describe the appearances which he will see at different distances.

9. Prove that in the satellites of different planets, the mean motion of the apse is in a given ratio to the mean motion of the node. (NEWTON. Princ. B. I. Prop. LXVI. Cor. 16.)

10. Two small planets  $P, Q$ , very near each other, revolve about the sun in orbits very nearly circular, and make two revolutions about each other while they make one revolution about the sun. Compare the sum of their masses with the mass of the sun.

If the line  $PQ$  move parallel to itself, what inference do you draw?

11. If a body move in a resisting medium of which the density is inversely as the distance from the center, the central force being inversely as the square of the distance, a body may revolve about the center in the equi-angular spiral. (Princ. B. II. Prop. xv.)

12. If  $S$  be the sun,  $T$  the earth,  $P$  the moon,  $TN$  the line of nodes;  $PI$  a perpendicular on the line of syzygies (the orbit being circular); the horary motion of the nodes is as the product of the sines of the three angles  $TPI, PTN, STN$ . (Princ. B. III. Prop. xxx.)

Supposing the nodes in quadrature and the moon in syzygy, find the actual value of this motion.

13. If a seconds pendulum taken to the bottom of a mine 1000 feet deep, gain  $p$  seconds a day, find the density of the earth (compared with the density of the mine stratum:) the radius of the earth being 20,000,000 feet.

14. A body revolves in an ellipse about the focus, and every time it comes to a certain point  $P$  the velocity is diminished in the ratio  $1 : 1 - p$ ,  $p$  being very small: find the magnitude and position of the major axis after any number of revolutions. What is the path described by the center of the ellipse during these changes?

15. Given the equation  $x^5 - a^3xy + by^4 = 0$ , trace the curve, shewing especially the nature of the point  $x=0, y=0$ , and the infinite branches.

16. Let  $s$  be the length of the curve and  $\phi$  the angle of deflection, measured from the origin : and let the curve be defined by the equation

$$s = a\phi + b\sin\phi.$$

Trace the curve according as  $a$  is greater, equal to, or less than  $b$ .

17. Sum the series :

$$\frac{1}{\sin\theta} + \frac{1}{\sin 2\theta} + \frac{1}{\sin 4\theta} + \frac{1}{\sin 8\theta} + \&c. \text{ to } n \text{ terms.}$$

$$\frac{1}{1^2 \cdot 2^2} + \frac{1}{2^2 \cdot 3^2} + \frac{1}{3^2 \cdot 4^2} + \&c. \text{ to infinity.}$$

$$1 - \frac{x^2}{2^2} + \frac{x^4}{2^2 \cdot 4^2} - \frac{x^6}{2^2 \cdot 4^2 \cdot 6^2} + \&c. \text{ to infinity.}$$

18. Let  $AECF$  be a great circle of a sphere ; the diameters  $AC, EF$  being at right angles ; let  $EAF$  be a parabola whose vertex is  $A$  : and on the parabola let a cylindrical surface be erected perpendicular to the plane  $EAF$  : find that portion of the surface of the sphere which lies on the concave side of the cylindrical surface.

19. An axis carrying a given flywheel is moved by a crank which is pushed up and down by a given force  $P$  in alternate semirevolutions : find within what limits the velocity varies.

Shew also that the effect is nearly the same as that of a force  $\frac{7}{11}P$  acting at the circumference described by the crank.

And that if there be another crank at right angles to the first and a force acting thereat in the same manner, the variation of velocity will be less.

20. A rectangular parallelopiped resting horizontally on the summit of a sphere is made to perform small oscillations (parallel to its vertical planes) about the position of repose ; find the time of oscillation.

Under what conditions is a small oscillation possible ?

21. Given any curve  $APB$ , find a curve  $BQF$  to be added to it, so that from whatever point  $Q$  a body descends (by gravity) through the arc  $QBPA$ , the time of descent shall be the same.

What does the required curve become when the given curve becomes a given inclined straight line ?

22. What phenomena of terrestrial magnetism cannot be accounted for by the hypothesis of an internal magnet ? By what hypothesis can these be explained, and by what measures can the hypothesis be verified ?

23. The amplitude of each wave in a long series is the same, but the elevations of the waves increase progressively from wave to wave, the same elevation always corresponding to the same place: find the forces which must act upon the particles of water to maintain this state of undulation.

Hence explain the effect of the wind in raising and maintaining waves.

BY GEORGE GABRIEL STOKES, ESQ. M.A.

Lucasian Professor.

1. If a parallelogram be inscribed in the inner of two similar, concentric, and similarly situated ellipses, and its sides be produced to meet the outer, and the adjacent points of intersection belonging to each pair of parallel lines be joined, shew that the quadrilateral figure formed by producing these joining lines will be a parallelogram, having its corners situated in a third ellipse, similar to the two former, and independent of the original parallelogram.

2. If  $p$  be the probability a priori that a theory is true,  $q$  the probability that an experiment would turn out as indicated by the theory even if the theory were false, shew that after the experiment has been performed, supposing it to have turned out as was expected, the probability of the truth of the theory becomes  $\frac{p}{p+q-pq}$ .

3. Shew that the limit of the continued product

when  $m$  and  $n$  become infinite together, is  $\pi^{-1} \lambda^\theta \sin \pi \theta$ ,  $\lambda$  being the limit of  $\frac{n}{m}$ .

4. Describe Horner's method of approximating to the real roots of equations, explaining any abbreviations of which the method is susceptible in practice, and illustrating your explanation by a numerical example.

5. Shew that a definite meaning may be attached to the expression  $\int_{-a}^a \frac{dx}{x}$  by supposing  $x$  to pass from  $-a$  to  $+a$  through a series of imaginary values, and that the result is  $(2n+1)\pi\sqrt{-1}$ , where  $n$  is an integer. Also give a geometrical illustration of the multiplicity of values.

6. Prove that the definite integral  $\int_0^\infty \sin ax \cdot x^{n-1} dx$  is convergent if  $n$  lies between the limits  $-1$  and  $+1$ , and otherwise divergent. Also express the value of the integral in finite terms by means of the tabulated function  $\Gamma(n)$ .

7. A surface is referred to the polar co-ordinates  $r, \theta, \phi$ : required to express the direction-cosines of the normal at any point by means of the partial differential coefficients of  $r$ , the three lines to which the direction of the normal is referred being the radius vector, and two lines perpendicular to the radius vector, and lying respectively in and perpendicular to the plane in which  $\theta$  is measured.

8. If  $u$  be a function of the rectangular co-ordinates  $x, y, z$ , and  $\frac{d^2u}{dx^2} + \frac{d^2u}{dy^2} + \frac{d^2u}{dz^2}$  be denoted by  $\nabla u$ , and if  $T$  be a small space about the point  $(x, y, z)$ , which in the end is supposed to vanish,  $U$  its volume,  $dS$  an element of its surface,  $dn$  an element of a normal drawn outwards, prove that

$$\nabla u = \text{limit of } \frac{\iint \frac{du}{dn} dS}{U}.$$

Hence obtain the expression for  $\nabla u$  in polar co-ordinates, by taking for  $T$  the elementary volume  $dr \cdot r d\theta \cdot r \sin \theta d\phi$ .

9. A cylindrical wire is formed into a spring, which in its natural state has the form of a helix, the tangents to which are nearly perpendicular to its axis: given the radius of the cylinder in which the axis of the wire lies, and the modulus of torsion of the wire, find how much the spring will stretch when pulled by a small given force.

10. A body revolves in an ellipse of small eccentricity about a centre of force in one of the foci; examine the changes in the eccentricity and direction of the line of apsides produced (1) by a small central disturbing force acting when the body is in the neighbourhood of a given point of the orbit, (2) by a sudden small change in the absolute force, which takes place when the body is at that point.

Shew that the precise points in an orbit of any eccentricity at which the latter kind of disturbance would produce no change (1) in the distance between the foci, (2) in the ratio of that distance to the major axis, are (1) the extremities of the latus rectum passing through the second focus, (2) the extremities of the minor axis.

11. A sphere is held in contact with the interior surface of a rough hollow cylinder with its axis vertical, and is then projected horizontally in a direction parallel to the tangent plane at the point of contact; determine the motion.

12. If  $V$  be a function of the rectangular co-ordinates  $x, y, z$  which vanishes at an infinite distance from a given finite closed surface  $S$ , prove that where the triple integrals extend to all infinite space outside  $S$ , and the double integral extends to the whole surface  $S$ , the meaning of  $\nabla$  and  $n$  being the same as in question 8.

13. If the normal component of the attraction of any mass be given throughout its surface, or else if the value of the potential throughout the surface be given, prove that the attraction on a particle external to the surface will be determinate, the law of attraction being that of the inverse square of the distance.

14. Shew that the equality of pressure in all directions in a fluid, whether at rest or in motion, is a necessary consequence of the hypothesis that the mutual pressure of two adjacent portions of a fluid is normal to the surface of separation.

Mention any phenomena which you conceive either to confirm the accuracy or to prove the inaccuracy of the above hypothesis, considering separately the cases of rest and motion.

15. Find, according to the usual suppositions, the rate at which air is admitted into a partially exhausted receiver, through a small orifice; examine the result obtained by supposing the exhaustion perfect, and explain the paradox.

16. Prove that the velocity of propagation of a long wave of small height in a uniform canal of any shape is equal to that acquired by a heavy body in falling through a space equal to the area of a transverse section of the fluid divided by twice the breadth at the surface.

17. Shew that the differential equation to a ray of light propagated through a medium of variable density, which is symmetrical with respect to the plane of  $xy$ , which is that of the ray, is where  $U$ ,  $V$  denote the partial differential coefficients  $\frac{d \log \mu}{dx}$ ,  $\frac{d \log \mu}{dy}$ ,  $\mu$  being the refractive index.

Apply this equation to shew that the astronomical refraction ( $r$ ) can be expressed in a series of the form where  $z$  is the apparent zenith distance.

$$r = A \tan z - B \tan z \sec^2 z \dots\dots,$$

18. What phenomena shew that the velocity of propagation of light in vacuum is the same for all colours?

19. If it be assumed that the true wave surface in a biaxal crystal is symmetrical with respect to three planes at right angles to one another, that it is expressed by an equation of the fourth degree, and that each of its principal sections consists partly of a circle, the radii of the three circles being different, shew that it is the wave surface of Fresnel.

By what experiments has the third assumption been confirmed with respect to light of each particular degree of refrangibility?

20. A prism is cut from a doubly refracting substance, and a pencil of light is transmitted through it, the plane of incidence being perpendicular to the edge: the angle of incidence, the angle of the prism, and the deviation of one of the emergent pencils being observed, obtain formulæ for determining the direction and velocity of the corresponding wave within the crystal, and put the formulæ in a convenient shape for numerical calculation.

Lowndean Professor.

1. FIND the equation of the line joining the points of intersection of two circles, whose equations are given: shew that this line is real and determinate, when the points of intersection are imaginary. What explanation do you give of this paradox? Shew that if there be three circles, the three lines in question will meet in one point, from which the tangents drawn to the several circles are equal.

2. What is the test of incommensurability? Give Euclid's proof of the incommensurability of the diagonal and side of a square.

3. If 4000 be the number of the stars in both hemispheres, which are visible to the naked eye, and if we suppose them to be distributed fortuitously over the surface of the heavens, what is the probability that two of them at least shall be found within the distance of 15' of each other? What conclusion does the argument from probability lead to with respect to the physical, as distinguished from the optical, connexion of double stars? Do the observed facts respecting their proper motions lead to the same conclusion?

4. What is commonly meant by the space penetrating, as distinguished from the magnifying, power of telescopes? Define the former in an Herschelian telescope of 18 inches aperture, assuming the pupil of the eye to have an aperture of .2 inches, and the proportion of incident to reflected light, from the mirror of the telescope, to be as 10 to 9. What is the lowest magnifying power which can be used with it without loss of light? In what proportion is the space penetrating power of an Herschelian superior to that of a Newtonian telescope of the same aperture?

5. What is the probable form and constitution of the Milky Way as far as it can be considered to be already determined by observation? Upon what assumptions were Sir William Herschel's guages founded, and upon what grounds were they afterwards abandoned?

6. Find the shortest curve (not assuming it to be a straight line) between the straight line whose equation is

and the parabola whose equation is

$$y^2 = 2x.$$

7. If

$$t = \rho + \alpha \rho_1 + \alpha^2 \rho_2 + \dots \alpha^{n-1} \rho_{n-1},$$

where  $\alpha, \alpha^2, \alpha^3, \dots, \alpha^{n-1}$ , are the roots of  $\frac{x^n - 1}{x - 1} = 0$ , be assumed as the form of the expression for the roots of an equation of  $n = qm$  dimensions (when  $m$  is not greater than  $q$ ): then its solution may be made to depend upon that of a final reducing equation of

$$\frac{1 \times 2 \times 3 \times \dots \times 12}{m(m-1) \cdot (1 \times 2 \times 3 \times \dots \times q)^m} \text{ dimensions.}$$

Apply this theory to the solution of a biquadratic equation.

8. Investigate the ratio of the angular velocities of two axes connected by a single Hook's joint. Mention some of the principal applications of this joint.

9. What is meant by the retardation of the tides? Compare its value at Spring and Neap tides. Are the times of low water and of what is called "slack water" necessarily the same?

10. Determine the projections of the lines of greatest and least curvature in a curve surface whose equation is

$$2z = ax^2 + by^2.$$

11. The attraction of a thin homogeneous crust, bounded by concentric ellipsoids, upon a point in its exterior surface, is proportional to its thickness at that point, or, in other words, to the segment of a normal to that point made by a diametral plane perpendicular to it.

12. If two tangents be drawn to an ellipse from any point of another ellipse, exterior to it, described from the same foci, the excess of the sum of the tangents above the arc of the ellipse which they intercept is a constant quantity.

Prove this and apply it to assign, by a geometrical construction, pairs of amplitudes  $\phi$  and  $\phi'$  of an elliptic function  $F(\phi)$  and  $F(\phi')$ , which satisfy the equation where the amplitudes  $\alpha$  and  $\alpha'$  are given.

$$F(\phi) - F(\phi') = F(\alpha) - F(\alpha'),$$

13. Describe fully the cause and progress of twilight. Why are objects not in sunshine visible?

14. If  $p$  be the parallax of a point of the Moon's disk,  $Z$  and  $V$  its corrected zenith distance and angular distance from the vertical as seen in the telescope,  $P$  her horizontal equatoreal parallax and  $S$  her semidiameter in arc, shew that very nearly.

$$\sin p = \sin P \sin Z \left(1 + \frac{1}{2} \sin^2 S + \frac{1}{2} \cos V \sin S \sin P\right),$$

State some of the principal astronomical phenomena, in the prediction and calculation of which an accurate knowledge of the effects produced by parallax on the R.A. and Declination of the Moon is indispensable.

15. Write short dissertations

- (1) On the foundations of statics.
- (2) On the relations of zero and infinity.
- (3) On the methods used for determining the masses of the planets.

16. Prove that

$$\int_0^1 \frac{x^n - x^m}{\log x} \cdot \frac{dx}{x} = \log \frac{m}{n}.$$

Reconcile this conclusion with that which would be obtained by making  $x^n = z$  and  $x^m = y$ , which appears to give

$$\int_0^1 \frac{x^n - x^m}{\log x} \cdot \frac{dx}{x} = \int_0^1 \frac{dz}{\log z} - \int_0^1 \frac{dy}{\log y} = 0.$$

17. A parabolic segment made by a focal line is placed with the straight line vertical; shew that the line of quickest descent to the directrix of the parabola is a tangent to the curve at that point.

18. Explain the general effects of the tangential and normal disturbing forces acting upon a planet receding from the sun, the first accelerating its motion and the second acting outwards, upon the apsides and eccentricity of its orbit.

19. Give a general explanation of the coloured rings which are produced by the interposition of a crystalline body between a polarizing and an analyzing plate.

20. Is the notion of a limit essentially connected with the application of the Differential Calculus to the theory of curves? Illustrate this in the solution of the problem for drawing a tangent to a curve and a tangent plane to a curve surface.

21. When both limbs of the moon are observed, it usually happens that one of them is defective from failure of illumination: investigate the correction to be applied to her semidiameter, both when she is horned and gibbous.

For GREEK IAMBICS :

AND now went forth the morn,
Such as in highest heaven, arrayed in gold
Empyrean: from before her vanished night,
Shot through with orient beams: when all the plain,
Covered with thick embattled squadrons bright,
Chariots, and flaming arms, and fiery steeds,
Reflecting blaze on blaze, first met his view:
War he perceived, war in procinct; and found
Already known what he for news had thought
To have reported: gladly then he mixed
Among those friendly powers, who him received
With joy and acclamations loud, that one,
That of so many myriads fallen, yet one
Returned not lost. On to the sacred hill
They led him high applauded, and present
Before the seat supreme; from whence a voice,
From midst a golden cloud, thus mild was heard:

Servant of God, well done: well hast thou fought
The better fight, who single hast maintained
Against revolted multitudes the cause
Of truth, in word mightier than they in arms:
And for the testimony of truth hast borne Universal reproach, far worse to bear
Than violence; for this was all thy care,
To stand approved in sight of God, though worlds
Judged thee perverse.

For LATIN PROSE:

THE fate of Rome was now brought to a crisis; and the contending parties were making their last efforts either to oppress or preserve it: Cicero was the head of those, who stood up for its liberty; which intirely depended on the influence of his counsils: he had many years therefore been the common mark of the rage and malice of all, who were aiming at illegal powers, or a tyranny in the state; and while these were generally supported by the military power of the Empire, he had no other arms or means of defeating them, but his authority with the Senate and People, grounded on the experience of his services, and the persuasion of his integrity: so that, to obviate the perpetual calumnies of the factious, he was obliged to inculcate the merit and good effects of his counsils; in order to confirm people in their union and adherence to them, against the intrigues of those, who were employing all arts to subvert them. The frequent commemoration of his acts, therefore, was not made so much for glory as for defence; and this is what he himself declared in all his speeches: "that no man ever heard him speak of himself, "but when he was forced to it: that when he was urged with fictitious "crimes, it was his custom to answer them with his real services: and if "ever he said anything glorious of himself, it was not through a fondness for "praise, but to repel an accusation: that no man, who had been conversant "with great affairs, and treated with particular envy, could refute the con- "tumely of an enemy, without touching upon his own praises; and, after all "his labours for the common safety, if a just indignation had drawn from him "at any time what might seem to be vainglorious, it might reasonably be "forgiven to him: that, when others were silent about him, if he could not "then forbear to speak of himself, that indeed would be shameful; but when “he was injured, accused, exposed to popular odium, he must certainly be allowed to assert his liberty, if they would not suffer him to retain his dignity.” This then was the true state of the case, &c. &c.

TRANSLATE into GREEK PROSE :

MARIUS, when raising soldiers to accompany him into Africa, disregarded the usual practice altogether, and enlisted into the legions citizens of the lowest and most indigent classes of society. His motives for this unprecedented measure are variously stated ; but it may be most probably imputed to a mingled feeling of personal ambition, and of hatred towards all those who were any way distinguished for birth or fortune. Himself sprung from the lowest of the people, and having forced his way to the high station which he filled, amidst the scorn and aversion of the nobility, it was his delight to be the consul of the populace ; and as he had risen by their favour, to shew that he cared for the support of no order in the state besides. He knew moreover, that an army formed out of those who have no property to lose, becomes the ready instrument of its general's ambition, and easily transfers to him the duty and affection which it owes to its country and its government. Marius stands conspicuous amongst those who have risen to greatness by favouring the envy and hatred of the dregs of the community towards all above them, and who have purchased the forgiveness of the multitude for their crimes and their tyranny, because every thing most noble, most exalted, and most sacred, has been especially the object of their persecution.

ARNOLD, Hist. Lat. Rom. Comm. Vol. I. chap. iv.

Custom has a twofold operation, the one to deaden the frequency and force of repeated impressions, the other to endear the familiar object to the affections. Commonly, where the mind is vigorous, and the power of sensation very perfect, it has rather the last operation than the first ; with meaner minds the first takes place in the higher degree, so that they are commonly characterized by a desire for excitement, and the want of the loving, fixed, theoretic power. But both take place in some degree with all men, so that as life advances, impressions of all kinds become less rapturous owing to their repetition. It is, however, beneficially ordained that repulsiveness shall be diminished by custom in a far greater degree than the sensation of beauty.

Squalidus in magnâ fastidit compede fossor,
Qui meminit, calidæ sapiat quid vulva propinæ.

Juv. Sat. xi.

Ergo ubi concipiunt, quantis sit cladibus urbi
Constatura fides superum : feralis per urbem
Justitium : latuit plebeio tectus amictu
Omnis honos : nullos comitata est purpura fasces.
Tunc questus tenere suos, magnusque per omnes
Errabat sine voce dolor ; sic funere primo
Attonitæ tacuere domus, cum corpora nondum
Conclamata jacent, nec mater crine soluto
Exigit ad sævos famularum brachia planctus :
Sed cum membra premit fugiente rigentia vita,
Vultusque exanimis, oculosque in morte minaces :
Necdum est ille dolor, sed jam metus incubat amens,
Miraturque malum.

LUCAN. Phar. ii.

Desiluit mœrens, lacrymasque avertit Apollo.
Tunc vero ingemuit corrusque, orbique jugales.
Non aliter cæco nocturni turbine Cori
Scit peritura ratis, quum jam damnata sororis
Igne Therapnæi fugerunt carbasa fratres.
Jamque recessuræ paullatim horrescere terræ,
Summaque terga quati ; graviorque effervere pulvis
Cœperat : inferno mugit jam murmure campus.
Bella putant trepidi, bellicque hunc esse fragorem.
Hortanturque gradus : alius tremor arma, virosque,
Mirantesque inclinat equos : jam frondea nutant
Culmina, jam muri, ripisque Ismenos apertis
Effugit : exciderunt iræ, nutantia figunt
Tela solo, dubiasque vagi nituntur in hastas
Cominus, inque vicem viso pallore recedunt.

LAWS AND BYE LAWS

---

THE CAMBRIDGE PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY was established November the 15th, 1819, for the purpose of promoting scientific enquiry, and of facilitating the communication of facts connected with the advancement of Philosophy and Natural History; and became a Body Corporate by virtue of a CHARTER granted by His late Majesty King WILLIAM the Fourth. This Charter, bearing date the 3d day of August, 1832, was formally accepted by the Society at a general Meeting held after due notice for that express purpose, Nov. 6th, 1832.

---

ABSTRACT OF THE LAWS

PRESCRIBED BY THE CHARTER.

IT is expressly provided by the Charter—

1. THAT the Society consist of such Graduates of the University as were then Fellows thereof, or should at any time become Fellows thereof, agreeably to the Bye Laws of the Society.

2. That there always be a Council to manage the concerns of the Body Corporate, and that the said Council consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, one Treasurer, not more than three Secretaries, and not more than twelve nor less than seven other Fellows, to be elected out of the Fellows of the said Body Corporate.

3. That General Meetings of the Body Corporate be held once in the year, or oftener; for the purpose of electing the Officers and Council of the Society, and determining the period of their continuance in office—of enacting such Bye Laws as seem useful and necessary for the regulation of the said Body Corporate—of fixing the days on which the ordinary Meetings of the Society shall be held—of determining the mode in which Fellows and Honorary Members shall be elected, admitted, or expelled—and of managing the affairs of the said Body Corporate.

4. That the Fellow who has filled the office of President for two successive years shall not be again eligible to the same situation until the expiration of one year from the termination of his office.

5. That it be lawful at the General Meetings of the Body Corporate to alter or revoke former Bye Laws, and to make such new Bye Laws as they shall think good and expedient.

6. That no such General Meeting shall (without the consent of the Council) have the power of altering or repealing any Bye Laws or making any new one, unless the Fellow or Fellows of the Society desirous of altering or repealing any Bye Law or of making any new one shall have given to the Council one month's previous notice of such his or their intention.

7. That no Bye Law shall on any pretence whatsoever be made in opposition to the true intent of the Charter, the Laws of the Realm, or the Statutes of the University of Cambridge,

8. That the Council (in conformity with the Charter and Bye Laws of the Society) have the sole management of the Funds and affairs of the Society, and do all such acts as shall appear to them necessary to carry into effect the objects and views of the Body Corporate.

9. That the whole property of the Body Corporate be vested in the Fellows thereof: but that no disposition of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments belonging to the said Body Corporate be made except with the approbation and concurrence of a General Meeting.

BYE LAWS

OF THE

I. OF THE ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL.

1. THE President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Secretaries, and at least three ordinary Members of the Council, shall be annually elected by ballot from among the Fellows of the Society.

2. The same Fellow shall not be eligible to fill the office of Vice-President, for more than two years successively.

3. The three senior ordinary Members of the Council shall retire annually.

4. No Fellow under the degree of M.A., M.B., or LL.B., shall be a Member of the Council.

II. OF THE ELECTION, ADMISSION, AND EXPULSION OF FELLOWS.

1. ANY Graduate of the University of Cambridge desirous of becoming a Fellow of the Society, shall be proposed and recommended by a certificate in writing, signed by three or more Fellows. The certificate shall specify the Christian and surname of the Candidate, his Degree, the name of his College and his usual place of residence; all of which must be certified from the personal knowledge of at least one of the subscribing Fellows.

The following shall be the Form of the Certificate.

Name.	Degree.	College and place of residence.
--------------	----------------	--

 being desirous of becoming a Fellow of the Cambridge Philosophical Society, we, whose Names are underwritten, do recommend him as a proper person to be a Fellow of the said Society.

(Signed) _____ from personal knowledge.
 _____

This Certificate shall be read by one of the Secretaries at the Meeting at which the Candidate is proposed, and remain suspended in the Meeting Room of the Society till he be balloted for.

2. The Ballot shall take place on the second Meeting (Ordinary or Extraordinary) after that at which the Candidate is proposed: but all Heads of Houses, Doctors, and Professors, and all persons who have been admitted to Honorary Degrees, shall be balloted for at the Meeting at which they are proposed.

3. No person shall be declared elected, unless he have in his favour at least two thirds of the Members voting, and if it appear upon the ballot, that the person proposed is not elected, no notice thereof shall be taken in the minutes.

4. The Vice-Chancellor for the time being, when regularly proposed, shall be admitted a Fellow without a ballot.

5. No person shall be admitted a Fellow, or be entitled to any of the privileges of the Society, till he has paid his admission fee and his subscription for the current year, or the sum specified in lieu of his admission fee and annual contributions.

6. Every Fellow elect after having complied with the preceding regulations shall (at the first ordinary or extraordinary Meeting after) be declared admitted by the President in the following terms:

I ..... in the name and by the authority of the Cambridge Philosophical Society declare ..... to be a Fellow thereof,

After this admission, the name of the Fellow shall be inscribed by one of the Secretaries in a Book prepared for that purpose.

7. If the annual subscription of any Fellow be twelve months in arrear, a notice of the same shall be suspended in the Reading-room, and the Secretary shall inform the Fellow thereof; and if the said subscription be still due at the expiration of the succeeding twelve months, the name of such Fellow shall be struck off the list of the Society.

8. Any person whose name has been removed from the list of the Society on account of the non-payment of his subscription, may, on payment of his arrears, be re-admitted by ballot without a fresh admission fee.

III. OF HONORARY MEMBERS.

1. No Graduate or Member of the University of Cambridge shall be an Honorary Member.

2. Honorary Members shall be proposed, after a sanction of the Council, by at least six Fellows of the Society. The Certificate of recommendation shall specify the grounds on which each Honorary Member is proposed; and his mode of election shall be subject to the same regulations as that of the Fellows.

IV. OF THE FUNDS OF THE SOCIETY.

1. The annual subscription of each Fellow shall be one guinea, and shall be due on the first of January in every year.

2. Every Fellow, previous to admission, shall pay one guinea, and also the subscription for the current year.

3. Any Fellow, or Fellow elect, may compound for all annual subscriptions, on paying ten guineas.

4. The Society shall not make any dividend, gift, division, or bonus in money unto or amongst any of its members.

V. OF THE COUNCIL.

1. The Council shall meet at the house of the Society, at least once in every fortnight during full term, and not less than five shall constitute a quorum. Due notice of each Meeting shall be sent to every member of the Council.

2. All questions shall be determined in the Council by vote, unless a ballot be demanded. The determination of the Council, whether by vote or by ballot, shall, at the desire of any two or more members present, be deferred to the next succeeding Meeting. If the number of votes be equal, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.

3. The Council shall draw up a Report on the state of the affairs of the Society, to be presented at the general annual Meeting. In this Report shall be inserted an abstract of the proceedings of the Society during the year.

4. Nothing shall be published by the Society, which has not been previously approved by the Council; and the Council shall be at liberty to call in the aid of any Fellow of the Society, well skilled in the particular branch of science, which may happen to be the subject of any paper under consideration.

VI. OF THE ORDINARY MEETINGS.

1. The Meetings of the Society shall be held on Mondays, once in every fortnight, during full term.

2. The President shall take the Chair at Seven P.M. and shall quit it before Nine.

3. The business of each Meeting shall be conducted in the following order:

- (1) The Minutes of the preceding Meeting read and approved.
  - (2) Notices of new Motions presented.
  - (3) Members proposed.
  - (4) Members ballotted for.
  - (5) Presents acknowledged.
  - (6) Miscellaneous business.
  - (7) Communications read.
4. Each Member shall be at liberty to introduce a visitor on delivering his name to the President or Chairman at the time.
5. The Treasurer's Accounts for the past year shall be audited at the first Ordinary Meeting in the Lent Term.

VII. OF THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

THE Annual General Meeting of the Society shall take place on the Sixth of November (the anniversary of the acceptance of the Charter), unless the sixth fall on a Sunday, in which case the Meeting shall take place on the following day. At this Meeting the Report from the Council shall be read on the state of the Society, and the Officers elected for the succeeding year.

VIII. OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS.

1. THE Council may at any time call a Special General Meeting of the Society.
2. At least three days' notice of such Meeting shall be given by one of the Secretaries to the resident Members of the Society.
3. The Council, on receiving a requisition to that effect, signed by not less than six Fellows of the Society, shall call a general Meeting, to take place within a week after the expiration of the month's previous notice prescribed by the Charter.

IX. OF THE DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENTS.

1. THE duty of the President shall be, to take the Chair at the Meetings of the Society and Council; to regulate and keep order in all their proceedings; to state questions and propositions to the Meeting; to report the result of ballots; and to carry into effect the regulations of the Society.

2. In the absence of the President, the Chair shall be taken by one of the Members of the Council in the following order; viz. the Senior Vice-President, Treasurer, or Senior Ordinary Member of the Council.

X. OF THE DUTIES OF THE TREASURER.

THE Treasurer shall receive all sums of Money due to the Society, transact all its pecuniary affairs, and keep a regular account of receipts and payments, in the mode which may seem most proper to the Council.

XI. OF THE DUTIES OF THE SECRETARIES.

1. THE Secretaries shall have the management of the correspondence of the Society and Council.

2. They shall attend all Meetings of the Society and Council, take minutes of their proceedings, and enter them in books provided for that purpose; they shall transact the business of the Ordinary Meetings according to the mode specified in Section VI. Rule 3.

3. One of the Secretaries shall have the care of the Reading-room; and his office shall be to procure and take care of the books, to see that the papers are filed, and the Room properly prepared for the reception of the Members; to collect the bills, sign them, and send them to the Treasurer for payment.

4. The Secretaries shall have the charge, under the direction of the Council, of printing the Memoirs of the Society, and of correcting the press.

XII. OF THE SOCIETY'S PROPERTY.

1. AN Inventory of the Furniture and other articles in the Meeting Room of the Society shall be made every year. Catalogues of the Library, Collections in Natural History, &c. shall also be made for the use of the Members of the Society.

2. The Common Seal, Charter, and Deeds of the Society, shall be kept in an Iron Chest with two locks and two different keys, the one to be kept by the President, and the other by the Treasurer.

XIII. OF DONATIONS.

EVERY person who shall contribute to the Museum or Library of the Society, shall be recorded as a benefactor, his name shall be read at the annual General Meeting, and shall be inserted in the next succeeding volume of the Society's Memoirs.

XIV. MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

L A W S.

I.—THAT the Society be for the encouragement of the study of History, Architecture, and Antiquities; and that such Society be called "THE CAMBRIDGE ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY."

II.—That the object of the Society be to collect and to print information relative to the above-mentioned subjects.

III.—That the Subscription of each Member of the Society be One Guinea annually; such Subscription to be due on the first day of January in each year: on the payment of which he shall become entitled to all the Publications of the Society, during the current year.

IV.—That any person who is desirous of becoming a Member of the Society, be proposed by two Members, at any of the ordinary Meetings of the Society, and ballotted for at the next Meeting: but all Noblemen, Bishops, and Heads of Colleges, shall be ballotted for at the Meeting at which they are proposed.

V.—That the management of the affairs of the Society be vested in a Council, consisting of a President, (who shall not be eligible for that office for more than two successive years,) a Treasurer, a Secretary, and not more than twelve nor less than seven other Members, to be elected from amongst the Members of the Society who are graduates of the University. Each Member of the Council shall have due notice of the Meetings of that body, at which not less than five shall constitute a quorum.

VI.—That the President, Treasurer, and Secretary, and at least three ordinary Members of the Council, shall be elected annually by ballot, at a General Meeting to be held in the month of May; the three senior ordinary Members of the Council to retire annually.

VII.—That no Member be entitled to vote at any General Meeting whose subscription is in arrear.

VIII.—That, in the absence of the President, the Council at their Meetings shall elect a Chairman, such Chairman having a casting-vote in case of equality of numbers, and retaining also his right to vote upon all questions submitted to the Council.

IX.—That the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Society be audited annually by two auditors, to be elected at the Annual General Meeting; and that an abstract of such accounts be printed for the use of the Members.

X.—That the object of the usual Meetings of the Society be, to read communications, acknowledge presents, and transact miscellaneous business.

XI.—That the Meetings of the Society take place once at least during each term: and that the place of Meeting and all other arrangements, not specified in the Laws, be left to the discretion of the Council.

XII.—That any Member be allowed to compound for his future subscriptions by one payment of Ten Guineas.

XIII.—That Members of the Society be allowed to propose Honorary Members, provided that no person so proposed be either resident within the County of Cambridge, or a Member of the University.

XIV.—That Honorary Members be proposed by at least two Members of the Society, at any of the usual Meetings of the Society, and ballotted for at the next Meeting.

XV.—That nothing shall be published by the Society, which has not been previously approved by the Council, nor without the author's name being appended to it.

XVI.—That no alteration be made in these Laws, except at the Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose, of which at least one week's notice shall be given to all the Members; and that one month's notice of any proposed alteration be communicated, in writing, to the Secretary, in order that he may make the same known to all the Members of the Society.

It is requested that all Communications intended for the Society and the names of Candidates for admission, be forwarded to the Treasurer, St. John's College.

Subscriptions received by the Treasurer, or by his Bankers, Messrs. Mortlock and Son, Cambridge; or at the Bank of Messrs. Smith, Payne and Smith, London, "To the Cambridge Antiquarian Society's account with Messrs. Mortlock and Son, Cambridge."
